DEDICATION.

WE DEDICATE THIS BOOK—

FIRST. TO THE MEMORY OF OUR ANCESTORS, WHO BEQUEATHED TO US THE GLORIOUS PRIVILEGE OF RELIGIOUS LIBERTY, AND SET US EXAMPLES OF BLAMELESS, EXEMPLARY LIVES.

SECOND. TO OUR PARENTS, WHO TAUGHT US TO PRIZE THIS INHERITANCE AS A PRICELESS BOON DIRECT FROM THE HAND OF GOD.

THIRD. TO OUR CHILDREN, WHOM WE ADJURE TO CHERISH THEIR INESTIMABLE PRIVILEGES, AND KEEP UNSULLIED THE FAMILY NAME.

FOURTH. TO OUR POSTERITY MAY THEY EMULATE THE WORTHY EXAMPLE OF THE "GOOD AND TRUE" WHO HAVE PRECEDED THEM, AND "HONOR GOD AND OBEY HIS COMMANDMENTS."

It should have been begun years ago, while there were yet living those of the third generation, who could have given more satisfactory information of the early ancestors that would be of great interest, and value to the work, but which with their demise is forever lost. Already the ancestral thread was lost to many who were unable to trace their lineage farther than to the grandfather, or were totally unaware of the fact that they were in any way connected with the Fretz family.

Had the author been aware of the gigantic proportions the work would assume, in tracing the branches and whereabouts of many of the descendants, and collecting the necessary information, it is more than probable the work would never have been undertaken. It is to be regretted that the records are not more complete in many of the branches. Owing to a lack of interest in the matter, some, for reasons best known to themselves, failed to respond to inquiries for information concerning their respective families, thereby causing these defects.

The work has been prepared at a greater sacrifice of time than was anticipated. Had all promptly responded to communications the work would have been far easier. The writer is far from satisfied with the result of the work. He is aware that imperfections exist, but pleads in extenuation of the fact that the difficulties were insurmountable.

The author acknowledges himself indebted to the many friends for kind favors received during the compilation of this work, and while we express our sincere gratitude to all who in any way aided us, we especially acknowledge our indebtedness to those who have very materially aided us. They are as follows: C. D. Fretz, M. D., of Sellersville, Pa., Rev,

A. M. Fretz, and Reuben G. Fretz, of Bedminster, Pa., J. H. Fretz, M. D., of Hagersville, Pa., A. N. Fretz, M. D., of Fleetwood, Pa., J. Freeman Hendricks, A. M., of Doylestown, Pa., Prof. A. B. Fretz, of Cedar Grove, N. J., and Thos. J. Fretz, of Allentown, Pa.

That the work may meet with general approval is the earnest wish of the AUTHOR.

INTRODUCTION.

The history of the Fretz family in America has hitherto been unpreserved save by personal recollections transmitted from generation to generation and by such information as may be found in family Bibles, church archives, public records, etc., and was fast being lost to the world. The want of some accurate, complete, enduring record of this old and numerous stock has therefore long been felt and the undersigned, among other descendants of the blood, finally suggested the compilation and publication of a formal history of the family. The collection of the information it was at once apparent would prove a gigantic undertaking and ought to be placed into the hands of one peculiarly fitted for that kind of work. As a person thus fitted, there stood out in bold relief Rev. A. J. Fretz, and he was at once solicited to undertake the task. He kindly consented. The work was begun. Descendants were hunted up, grandfathers and grandmothers interviewed, family Bibles and old documents rummaged, public records searched, thousands of letters written, years of labor bestowed; and at last the information attainable is about all attained, the work goes to press and to-day we present to posterity and to the world the fruit of our labors. We present the history of a family whose settlement in this country dates way back beyond the Revolution, whose descendants have spread not only over every section of this broad land but over Canada as well, and whose number has already grown into swelling thousands. We present the history of a plain, sturdy, country folk; of an industrious, thrifty, upright, christian people. We present the history of an ancestry whereof we are justly proud and whom we ever delight to honor. We present the history of a people whose memory posterity may cherish to endless day and whose virtues the world may well emulate. Up to the present generation, the family produced few (if any) professional men. It was a people of peace and quiet. It was a line of unassuming, conscientious sons of toil. Most of them were farmers. A few of them adopted some other manual pursuits. But the generation of to-day is not confined to the workshop and the farm. It graces every walk in life. It is represented in every profession. It has won high honors among men. It has made its mark in business, in the school-room, in journalism, in medicine, at the bar, on the platform, in the pulpit. God speed the new departure. May the Fretz descendants freely enter the pursuit for which their tastes and capabilities may fit them; may they keep pace with the car of progress, may they aspire to every thing that is worthy and honorable but may they never forsake the virtues of the fathers and bring shame upon an honored name. May they so live that the very name shall be a passport to respect, confidence, preferment. Every man every hour of his life, whether consciously or unconsciously, is making history and that history either is to his credit or it is not. May the Fretz posterity ever bear this truth in their hearts and so live that the history of the future shall be as resplendent as the history of the past. In every age monuments have been reared to commemorate noble deeds and illustrious careers and it is fitting that the good men do be immortalized—immortalized in bronze and granite and marble, immortalized in statue and arch and splendid pile. In every age the notable works of men have been inscribed upon the annals and it is meet that every worthy deed should be preserved to the world. There is a monument, an annal for good things done; and the proudest monument, the sweetest annal is that of a noble, blameless life written on the hearts and wrought into the lives of men. Though the chisel may never inscribe, though the statue may never preserve, though the page may never contain and though we have long been sleeping the last sleep we may still live—live from age to age, live in those whom we in life have blest. And though unmarbled, unannaled, unsung, unwept, unremembered our names may be inscribed on the book of life. May the Fretz descendants—though worldly honors never crown their heads, though their worth and works are unnoticed of men—strive, whether by their struggle for lofty prizes or by the beauty of their quiet lives, at least to merit the reward. With this hope—this prayerful hope—we present and commit this work to posterity and to the world.

LIST OF EXPLANATIONS AND ABBREVIATIONS.

In the preparation of this work it will be observed that all descendants are recorded in the regular order of birth, from the oldest down to the youngest throughout the entire connection, each generation being marked consecutively from first to last. The Roman numerals placed before each name are used to designate the generation to which they belong, as:—

- I. John Fretz (First Generation).
- II. John Fretz, Jr. (Second Generation).
- III. Manasseh Fretz (Third Generation).
- IV. Margaret Fretz (Hestand.) (Fourth Generation).
- V. Hannah Hestand (Urmy.) (Fifth Generation), etc.

Beginning with the first (I.) ancestor John Fretz, all his children are named in the order of their birth. Then follows his oldest son John Fretz (II. Generation), and his children, (III. Generation) next, Manasseh being the oldest, is followed down to the last of his descendants, then the second in order of birth of the III. Generation, and so on until the end of the entire branch of John Fretz, of the II. Generation is reached. Then the second child of John Fretz, of the I. Generation, viz: Jacob Fretz, is carried down in like manner to the last of his descendants, and so on throughout the entire connections.

Where marriages occur between members of the connection the husband carries the record. In all such cases, a numbered reference is placed after the name and marriage of the wife, as, for example — (See Index of Reference No. 1.) In the Index of References, will be found No. 1. Hannah Smith, 167. On page 167 in the body of the book, the family record is given.

In the General Index will be found the names of all males of eighteen years and over, and the maiden names of all females of eighteen years, and over; also the pages on which their family record is given in the body of the book.

To find family records, see Index of Branches, where names of all that had issue of the first, second, and third Generations are given.

Abbreviations: Dec'd signifies Deceased; S. Single; Mrd. Married; Ch. Church; Montg. Co. Montgomery Co.; Twp. Township;

This family History contains the names of over 9000, including the names of over 1500 born bearing the name of Fretz.

THE FRETZ FAMILY HISTORY.

The brothers John, and Christian Fretz, together with a third brother (name unknown, and who died on the voyage), emigrated from near the City of Mannheim, in the Grand Duchy of Baden, Germany, formerly known as the Palatinate, or Rheinisch Prussia.

They were of German origin, as is quite evident from the fact that they wrote and spoke the German language, and were connected with a distinctively German church.* That they were of German origin, is also evident from the fact that on the opposite side of the Rhine, in the province of Alsatia, there are to this day, living where they have lived for the past two or three centuries, many Fretz's of an old Alsatian Stock, who claim they are of German origin, "as all true Alsatians are."

The Province of Alsatia was annexed to France in 1648, prior to that time it was always under German Dominion, and while the French language was exclusively taught in the schools, the language spoken is a German dialect, with decided variations in different localities.

* The Mennonite church, of which Menno Simon (a Hollander by birth) was its founder, had its rise in Holland, but eventually spread into the adjoining countries of Germany and Switzerland, where they also became quite numerous.

At what port the Fretz ancestors landed, or the exact date of their arrival into this country is not known, but may have been between the years of 1710 and 1720. It is said that they came to this country during what was known as "the last persecution." They were given the alternative of connecting themselves with the state church, or leave the country, and they chose rather than to give up their religious liberty to leave the "Fatherland," the land of their birth, and the homes of their kindred and friends, the graves of their ancestors, and all the hallowed associations of the home and country of their nativity, and found for themselves a home in a strange and far-off land where they could worship God "under their own vine and fig-tree," according to the dictates of their own conscience without fear of molestation.

Undoubtedly they had heard that America afforded a refuge for the oppressed and granted religious liberty to all its subjects, and naturally enough they turned their steps hither, where they too, might enjoy liberty of conscience. And thus are we, as their descendants, citizens of this great liberty loving country. How we, of to-day, should prize this liberty! Think what our Ancestors sacrificed to enjoy it. How they left their native land, a country established many hundreds of years, to seek a home in the new world, in the wilds of America.

They came about thirty-five years after the charter was granted, and the great seal of England, with the signature of Charles II. was affixed, and William Penn became the proprietor of Pennsylvania. They were here about thirty-five years before the French and Indian war, in which George Washington, was a British Colonel. Our first ancestor, John Fretz, slept beneath the sod before the fires of the Revolution were kindled, or about three years before the battle of Lexington.

They came when the country was but sparsely settled, when the inconveniences were great, and when the equally dangerous red man infested the land. They were still living during the period when some of the great subjects which eventually led to the war of the Revolution were being agitated, and their children were settled with families during the bloody struggle for Independence, and although being—non-combatants, they were true and loyal to the American cause, and aided it as best they could, without compromising their religious faith by bearing arms.

Our ancestors and their immediate descendants were Mennonites, who worshiped at Deep Run, Bucks Co., Pa., first in the old log church, which was probably built in 1746, and later in the old stone church, built in 1766, and which stood for over a hundred years. They no doubt aided in erecting this church, both by contributing of their means and labor, and from it they were carried to their last earthly resting place in the cemetery adjoining. There may their ashes rest in peace until the trump of Gabriel shall awake the dead to come forth, and obtain the inheritance of the faithful.

Which of the two brothers was the elder is not known as no records of the birth of either have been found.

Christian, settled in Tinicum township, Bucks Co., Pa., along the Tinicum Creek, on what is now known as Heaney's Mill.

It is not known where John Fretz at first settled. He afterward settled in what was then Plumstead township, but now Bedminster, on what is known as the Old Fretz Homestead, situated about one mile North East of Bedminsterville, now owned by Ely Fretz, and occupied by his son, Mahlon M. Fretz.

The homestead originally consisted of 230 acres of land, which John Fretz purchased of Bartholomew Longstreth in 1737 or 1738, for which he paid 106 pounds. The release being given in the latter year in the month of May. The tract when purchased had a house, barn, and other buildings, but was surrounded on all sides by vacant and unimproved wild land. A veritable wilderness. The homestead now includes the whole or part of four farms—viz, Samuel High's 69 acres, Ely Fretz's 57 acres, Isaac L. Fretz's 44 acres, and Reuben Miller's 60 acres. John Fretz was a weaver by trade, and is known as "Weaver John." Of his public services nothing is known of especial interest further than that he was one of the committee to form the new township of Bedminster in 1741.

He was twice married, but the maiden name of neither wife is known. By his first wife Barbara, he is known to have had five children, and by his second wife, Maria, three. There may have been more, but if there were they died young.

John Fretz died in 1772, probably in February. His last will and testament, was dated January 29, 1772, and was probated on the third day of March of the same year, which shows that he died between the two dates given. The provisions of the will were that his son Christian should have the farm, and pay 800 pounds, and each of the children were to have equal shares, except the sum of 60 pounds which was to be distributed among the children of his first wife, and which came from their Grandfather. (probably on the mother's side.)

To the widow was willed a 100 pounds of which she was to receive the interest as long as she remained his widow. She was to have the house in which George White lived at that time.

The last Will and Testament of John Fretz, as an old and rather peculiar document, will no doubt be interesting reading, and of sufficient importance to warrant its insertion in the history of the connection, and it is herewith produced—entire as follows:

In the name of God Amen. I, John Fretz, of the Township of Bedminster in the County of Bucks in the Province of Pennsylvania, Weaver being sick in body, but of sound memory blessed be God unto this day the twenty-ninth day of January in the year of our Lord, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-two make this as my last Will and Testament in manner and form following:

First of all it is my Will that when it shall please God to call me out of this world my body shall be decently buried, and my soul I recommend to God my Savior.

Secondly, I Will that all my just debts shall be paid carefully out of my estate, and rest disposed of as followeth, that is to say, I give unto my beloved wife Maria, one hundred pounds lawful money to be paid out of my estate and the said hundred pounds shall be put on interest, and my wife shall have the interest yearly during her natural life, or so long she remains my widow, and if she shall want any of the principal of the said hundred pounds so that the interest would not be sufficient for her yearly maintenance, it shall be allowed to her sufficient to maintain her during her natural life, or so long she remains my widow, and if any is remaining of the said hundred pounds after her decease; or if she marries again, the remainder shall be equally divided amongst my children in equal shares, and it is my Will that my wife shall live in the house wherein George White lives now, during her natural life or so long she remains my widow, and my Executors shall finish the house off sufficiently and build a good stable to the house to put her cow in and her hay, and my son Christian Fretz shall let her have so much meadow hay as to give two cows, and my said son Christian shall give unto my said wife yearly eleven bushels of good winter grain half wheat and half rye, and to sow yearly one acre of Buckwheat, and to plow a half acre of land for Indian corn, and to plow and sow a half acre for flax yearly during her natural life, or so long she remains my widow, and my wife shall have a row of apple trees in my orchard, the fourth row from the barn, and my wife shall have to choose a cow from my cows which she please, and her bed and clothes and the furniture belonging to her bed, and my wife shall have one iron pot, and two pails, and all her household goods which she brought to me she shall take again, and my said wife shall have liberty to cut fire-wood on my place sufficient during her natural life or so long as she remains my widow. The garden by the house of George White shall be for her during her natural life, and it is further my Will that all my children shall have equal shares—except sixty pounds lawful money shall be paid unto the children of my first wife out of my estate which money came by their Grandfather, and the said sixty pounds shall be equally divided amongst my said children of my first wife. And as all my children which are married have had fifty pounds apiece it is my Will that my son Mark shall have fifty pounds likewise to make him equal with the rest, and my son Henry shall have so much as my children from my first wife except what is above excepted, and except the fifty pounds which is paid unto my children when married.

And it is further my Will that my daughter Barbara shall have one hundred pounds lawful money out of my estate, and a cow, and a bed, all which she shall have when she comes to the age of eighteen years, and my son Henry shall have his share when he comes to the age of twenty-one years—and no sooner. And it is further my Will that my son Christian Fretz shall have all my lands to him, his Heirs and assigns, and he shall pay eight hundred pounds lawful money for my said land or plantation, and to have the half of the grain in the ground with the place, and he is to pay the Legatees as the Will directs, and he, the said Christian fulfill all the articles mentioned in this Will to my wife accordingly and my son Christian shall have always a equal share with the rest of my children.

He, the said Christian, my son, shall pay unto John Fretz my son, and Jacob Fretz, and Jacob Kulp, my son-in-law, for my daughter Elizabeth, her share fifteen months after my decease, and unto my son Abraham two years and three months after my decease, and unto my son Marcks, three years and three months after my decease, and the said Barbara, my daughter which is mentioned in this Will she shall have no more of my estate as the hundred pounds, and the cow, and bed, as above mentioned, and Lastly, I do ordain, constitute, appoint my sons Christian and John Frets, to be my Executors of this my Last Will and Testament, whom I do empower authorize to sell all my Estate except what is in this Will excepted and to pay all my debts and the Legacies aforesaid in my name, utterly revoking and disannulling all other and former Wills or Testaments and Executors by me before this time made or named Ratifying and Confirming this and no other to be my last Will and Testament. In witness whereof I have to this presents set my hand and seal this the twenty-ninth day of January in the year 1772.

Sealed signed pronounced declar by this presents this as my last Will and Testament in the presence of us,

John Fretz. { SEALE. }

His children in the order of their birth were, viz:
John, Jacob, Christian, Abraham, Elizabeth,
Mark, Henry, and Barbara.

DESCENDANTS OF JOHN FRETZ, SON OF WEAVER JOHN.

II. John Fretz (son of Weaver John) was born Mar. 1730; died May 4th, 1826, aged 96 years. Married Mary Kolb, of Tinicum Twp., Bucks Co., Pa., in 1754. She was born Sept. 10th, 1730, died —

He lived previous to, and at the time of his father's death, in Haycock Twp., Pa., on the To-hickon, where he owned and run a mill. He afterwards moved below Doylestown.

In 1800 he emigrated to Canada with all of his family except his daughter Barbara, who married Jacob Silvius, and remained with her family in Bucks Co., and Moses, who went out to Canada the year previous. The journey to Canada was in wagons, and on foot. The old people rode and the younger members of the family walked. It is said that Mrs. Hipple carried her child all the way to Canada on foot.

The journey was a very tedious one, through the thinly settled wilderness. In some places they had to cut a road through the forests, and for lack of bridges they had to ford the streams. Thus on their way they experienced many inconveniencies and hardships. On one occasion near the close of the day, something broke about the wagon, without the repair of which they could not proceed, so one of the boys took a horse from the wagon, rode back twenty miles to the nearest blacksmith shop where the iron was repaired, and returned arriving at early dawn, when the horse was put to the wagon, and the journey continued. An incident which will serve to show the spirit of John Fretz, occurred during his residence in Pennsylvania. It was during the early days of the Revolution. The patriot army being somewhat destitute of arms, the soldiers went from house to house collecting guns for the army, from the settlers. On coming to his house they asked for his gun. He took the weapon from its accustomed place, and replied to the soldiers saying, "Yes, you can have my gun, but I'll keep hold of the butt end of it." In 1801, the first Mennonite church was established in Canada,—known as Moyer's church. Of this church he was ordained Deacon in 1801, being the first Deacon of the Mennonite church in Canada.

Among the relics retained of the home of John Fretz, is a barrel churn of white cedar, made by him in Bucks Co., Pa., ninety-four years ago (1796) for his daughter Elizabeth, wife of Abraham Grobb, and is now owned by John Grobb, grandson of Elizabeth. His children are: Manasseh, Barbara, Abraham, Ephraim, Judith, Moses, Anna, Diana, Sarah and Elizabeth.

III. Manasseh Fretz, born in Bucks Co., Pa., Mar. 22, 1755, died in Canada. Mrd. Mary Swartz, Dec. 7, 1779. She died June 4, 1781. They had one child: (VI.) summer. Before he was quite seventeen, he obtained a certificate to teach, and on Jan. 1, 1870, took charge of his first school. For over thirteen years he labored in the school room, till failing in health he was compelled to seek other occupation. At the age of 22 while teaching a country school, at the modest sum of $400 a year, he was married. Three years later, he secured an appointment to a position in the Central School of St. Catharines. After four years of hard work, he was promoted to headmastership of the school. But the unceasing labor, the close confinement, and the loss of two of his children so wore upon his health, that in 1883 he resigned his position to seek some more active out door life. During the same year he began the study of medicine, and the next year he removed to Chicago, where in 1886 he received his degree at the College of Physicians and Surgeons, and at once settled down in the same city to engage in the practice of his profession. In early life Mr. Kephart was a farmer, and like the Revolutionary patriot, Gen. Putnam, at the outbreak of the civil war, left the plow for the field of carnage at the first call to arms. His military history dates back to 1855, when he joined the Doylestown Guards, which at the beginning of the war was captained by W. W. H. Davis, and who tendered the services of the company to the government at the first call for 75,000 men, for three months. They were the first troops to pass through Baltimore, Md., after the Massachusetts Reg't. that met with violence at the hands of the mob. The company was attached to the 25th Reg't. Pa., Vol., and formed Co. I. of that Reg't. They were among the troops to make the first advance into Va., and during the campaigns in that state they met the enemy in a skirmish at Harper's Ferry, and engaged them in battle at Falling water. At the expiration of enlistment, they were mustered out of service and returned home. After the Regiment was mustered out of service Mr. Kephart was promoted from private to Corporal. Soon after their return, the 104th Reg't. Pa. Vol. was raised with Capt. W. W. H. Davis as Col., from whom Corporal Kephart received his commission as First Lieutenant of Co. B. The Reg't. joined the Army of the Potomac, and served through the Penisular Campaign, and engaged in many of the bloody battles of the war. Their first battle was Lee's Mills; then the siege of Yorktown, battles of Williamsburg, Chickahominy, Seven Pines, Fair Oaks, Seven days battles, James' Island, John's Island, taking of Morris Landing, seige of Ft. Sumpter and Charleston, Cedar Creek, and Campaigns before Petersburg and Richmond. After the battle of Fair Oaks, Leut. Kephart was promoted to Captain of Co. B. and subsequently commissioned Major, then

Lieut. Col., and finally Colonel of the Regiment. After his return from the war his first venture was in the clothing and boot and shoe business, but for the past twenty years he has been employed as a train messenger for the American Express Co., at Chicago, Illinois.

VI. Frank McIntosh, born in Bucks Co., Pa., Feb. 21, 1852. Mrd. Maria Antoinetta La Rue, of Yardley, Bucks Co., Mar. 2, 1881. Mr. McIntosh received a public school education, and when eighteen entered the office of the Bucks Co. Intelligencer, then published by Henry T. Darlington, to learn the printing business. He remained in this establishment until he was 22 years of age, serving one year as journeyman printer. Being somewhat of a roving disposition, he then determined to see something of the country, and started for Cincinnati, Ohio. Here he worked at his trade for something less than a year.

He next found employment on the St. Louis Dispatch, an afternoon paper, and a few months later on the Times, a morning paper. He remained in St. Louis about a year, then went to Columbus, Platte Co., Neb., where he secured work on the Republican, a weekly paper, remaining over a year, when through the influence of the proprietor of the paper, (Mr. Frank Burgess, son of William Burgess at that time agent of the Pawnee tribe of Indians) he received the appointment of Commissary Sergeant to the tribe, and at once set forth for the Indian Territory where the Pawnees were and still are located. His work here was the care of Indian supplies, and the issuing of rations to the Red men. He held this position until President Hayes appointed a new agent for the Pawnees, when he and the other appointees of Agent Burgess were asked to hand in their resignation. Returning to Doylestown to visit his parents, he soon after accepted the position of local editor of the Bucks county Intelligencer. He remained in this position until March, 1881, then, having married, he located in Chillicothe, Ohio, where he secured the position of assistant editor of the Sciota Gazette. Remained in Chillicothe about a year, then returned East with his family, where he found employment as proof-reader on the Times, a daily paper published in Trenton, N. J. He held this position for about three years, when the Times passed under new management, he was made the editor of that paper, and still holds that position. Children: (VII.) In 1872 he went to the Doylestown English and Classical Seminary, from which he was graduated in 1874. The fall and winter of the same year, and a portion of the next he spent at Lafayette College, Easton, Pa., taking a select course. Returned to Doylestown in the spring of 1875, and engaged in teaching in the Doylestown English and Classical Seminary, and continued to teach there until the spring of 1876. In the fall of 1876 he became principal of the Swedesboro Academy, Swedesboro, N. J., where he remained two years, then resigned his position to enter Brown University, Providence, R. I., in the fall of 1878, from which he graduated in 1882, having won in that year the prize for the best philosophical essay. Upon graduation he accepted a position in the Worcester Academy, Worcester, Mass., as instructor in the natural Sciences. Three years later he was advanced to the position of assistant principal, and instructor.

in Latin from which he resigned in the winter of 86-87 on account of sickness. He was admitted in the courts of the Commonwealth of Mass. in Feb., 1888.

In August, 1862, he enlisted in the 16th Penna. Vol. Cavalry. Of this organization he was clerk for about eighteen months, after which he was promoted Sergeant Major. During the summer of 1864, he was prostrated with the dreaded scourge chronic diarrhœa and spent several months in the hospital. Then he received his commission as adjutant of the regiment. Indisposed as he was, he decided to assume the duties of his office at once, and reported for duty, but the regiment becoming engaged the following morning at the Cavalry engagement of White Oak Swamp, here he was severely wounded while leading the advance guard after the retreating confederates, the ball taking effect in the knee, but fortunately not shattering the bone. He was soon afterwards sent to the hospital at Philadelphia from which he obtained "sick-leave" and came home. His complaint having assumed a more serious turn, the wound now became a secondary cause, and after a struggle of several months he finally died, Nov. 4, 1864. Thus ended a life that had given promise of great usefulness.

IV. Magdalena Fretz, born Apr. 22, 1815, and died unmrd July 1, 1854.

DESCENDANTS OF CHRISTIAN FRETZ, SON OF WEAVER JOHN.

II. Christian Fretz, (son of Weaver John) was born in 1734. He married Barbara Oberholtzer in 1757. She was born Nov. 20, 1737. Their married life ran through a course of forty-six years. He died May 1, 1803. His wife survived him twenty years, and died May 8, 1823. It is a noteworthy fact that at the time of her death, she was the mother of twelve children, had a hundred and nine grand children, and a hundred and three great grand children. Previous to his father's death, Christian, and his brother Isaac, lived on what is known as the Isaac Fretz homestead, situated in Tinicum Twp., now owned by Henry F. Myers. He was one of the executors of his father's estate, and inherited the old homestead in Bedminster under the conditions previously mentioned in the will, and where he subsequently lived and died. To the homestead he added by purchase from his son John, the tract known as the "Poor Fields," in 1793, and which consisted of about 30 acres. He and his wife were members of the Mennonite church, and worshiped in the ever memorable Old Stone Church at Deep Run, which was the oldest Mennonite congregation in Bucks county. In his day the Indians were yet quite numerous, and often quite troublesome. It is related that he had a very fine horse, to which the Indians took a particular fancy, and wanted to buy, but he would not sell it. The Indians however, determining to gain possession of the horse, came by night and stole it. Some time after, he ascertained where the horse was, and went to the Indian camp, arriving at evening, and seeing the horse turned out to pasture, he concealed himself until slumber had fallen upon the inhabitants of the wigwam. The Indians had a custom of just before retiring for the night, to go outside of their wigwams and shout and make a great noise to frighten away the wild beasts. Knowing this to be the signal for retiring, he waited until he thought they were sound asleep, and then entered the lot, secured the horse, and returned home with it. It is also related that his son Joseph had a very fine young horse, and that during the Revolutionary war, when Washington's Army was encamped below Newtown, that foraging teams, accompanied by an officer on horseback, came to Christian Fretz's place for hay for the army, that the officer saw the horse, and in conversation with the foragemen, said it was a fine horse, that he would try and buy it, but if he could not buy it, he would have it anyway. The conversation between the officer and men was over-heard by one of Christian's daughters, who ran to the house and told her brother, who was sitting at the loom weaving. As the officer was coming to the house by the front way, to see him about the horse, he not wishing to part with it, leaped through the window, ran to the barn by the back way unobserved by the officer, mounted the horse, and rode towards the Haycock Mountain. The officer however saw him as he dashed away with the horse, and followed some distance until he lost track of him. He rode the horse up through the wilderness country, a part of the time fording up the streams to cover his tracks and hid the horse at the place now known as Shellenberger's mill. A few days later the officer came again to Christian's place, and told him that he would have that horse.

The next day, however, Christian accompanied by a neighbor went to the Encampment at Newtown, and laid the matter before the General in command. The General gave him a writing of protection, told him not to trouble himself about the horse, and if the officer should come around again, to hand him that paper. In a few days the officer came the second time, and very impudently made demands for the horse, whereupon Christian handed him the paper from the General in command. He looked it over, dropped it and left. Among the relics of Christian Fretz's home is a table now owned by Mrs. Lapp, who lives at the Doylestown Mennonite meeting house, which was used in his family, and on which he, being a wealthy man, counted his money. The table was bought at the public sale of Christian Fretz's effects by Joseph Wisler, and is now in possession of his daughter, Mrs. Lapp. The children of Christian and Barbara Fretz, in the order of their birth are, viz: John, Agnes, Joseph, Henry, Martin, Jacob, Abraham, Isaac, Barbara, Christian, Mary, Elizabeth.

III. John Fretz (son of Christian and Barbara) known as Warwick John was born on the "Old Homestead" in Bedminster Township, Bucks Co., Pa., May 24, 1758, and died Dec. 20, 1804, aged 46y-6m-26d. He married Ann Kratz, of Plumstead (daughter of Philip Kratz). She was born Nov. 4, 1764, and died Aug. 4, 1813, aged 48 years and 9 months. John Fretz bought what is called the "Poor fields," 25 acres, for three pounds 19 shillings, and sixpence, by patent from the executive council of Pa., dated June 12, 1787. The warrant for the same having been granted one year previously. This tract is situated in Bedminster Twp., and now occupied in part by Jonas Loux. In 1793 he sold this tract to Christian Fretz for the sum of fifty pounds. At the time of this sale he was a resident of Warwick. In 1790 while yet residing in Bedminster Township, he purchased of John Thomas, a tract of 130 acres in New Britain Township, now known as the Curly Mill property. This property he sold to Mark Fretz in 1792. He never resided on this property. V. Henry Z. Gill, M.D., L.L.D., born in Northampton township, Bucks Co., Pa., Oct. 6, 1831. Mrd. Miss Mattie W. Carpenter, of Columbus, Ohio, April 21, 1869. She being the only daughter of Timothy R. Carpenter. After completing his twenty-first year at home (at the place of birth), he went to a select school kept by John Clark, A. M., about two miles north of New Britain church, remaining several months. He then returned home, taught school for ten months in Plymouth Township, Montgomery Co., Pa. Some time in 1854 he taught a term of school near Columbus, Ohio. Having injured his eyes by too close application to study, he consulted a physician—connected with a College Eye Infirmary, commenced treatment, and after his school term was completed, by the physician's suggestion and recommendation, he commenced the study of medicine. His original purpose having been to study civil engineering. After attending a course and a half of lectures, and close reading till the fall of 1846 he went to Jefferson Medical College at Philadelphia, Pa., from which he graduated in March, 1857. During his time of study in Columbus, Ohio, he had charge of the dissecting room, and aided in the Eye Infirmary. These two circumstances gave him a taste for surgery, and diseases of the eye, which were not neglected, and were of much advantage to him in the general practice of his profession. After graduating he returned to Columbus, Ohio, and commenced to practice, giving especial attention to the eye and ear though not abandoning the general practice. The war breaking out in 1861, a call was made for medical men, a law being passed requiring all to pass examination: five years of practice being required, or its equivalent in hospital for assistants, and ten years for surgeons. Although in the examinations he and another stood equal (third) in the list of over fifty admitted to examination, yet he could be appointed assistant only. In the summer campaign in West Virginia, he had the entire work of the Regiment until winter, when he had the first severe sickness of his life, and from which he probably never fully recovered. The next summer (1862) foreseeing the probable same experience of all the work with part of the pay of surgeon, he resigned, and was in a few days appointed Surgeon of another Regiment, the 95th O. The former being the 11th Ohio Infantry. They were immediately sent to the field in Kentucky; and on August 30, 1862 and engaged in the battle (three engagements in one day) of Richmond, Ky., where a large part of the regiment were captured, and many killed and wounded. Remaining six weeks in the enemies' hands with the wounded, they returned paroled to Columbus, Ohio in October, and prepared for the work of 1863, down the Mississippi River, and the siege of Vicksburgh, in all of which he (Dr. Gill) participated. After that campaign and the second attack on Jackson, Miss., they spent the fall and winter in scouting, and doing guard duty. He had applied for permission to appear before the United States Medical board for examination for Surgeon of Volunteers, a higher position than Surgeon of a Regiment, though of the same rank (Major of Cavalry). The number of such was limited by law of Congress. A ten days' examination satisfied the authorities and he received his commission from Abraham Lincoln. (It is believed the first vacancy). He was at once sent to the Atlantic Campaign, and very early assigned as Surgeon in chief of the first Division, 20th Army Corps, Gen. Joe Hooker's fighting corps. This position he held to the close of the war, finishing the Atlantic campaign, the famous march to the sea, the Carolina Campaign, and so on to the great Review at Washington in 1865. He went with the Western troops, west to Louisville, Ky., and was honorably mustered out in August 1865. Spent the fall in traveling, the winter at the Jefferson Medical College. In May 1866 he sailed for Europe where he spent two years of hard study in hospitals, sixteen months in Germany, the remainder of the time in Paris, Geneva, and London, and returned to New York in May 1868, and recommenced the practice of his profession in St. Louis, in Oct., 1868. There he practiced and was associate editor of the St. Louis Medical and Surgical Journal until 1873. When at the solicitation of friends he removed to Jerseyville, Ill. About 1875 or 6, the degree of A. M. was conferred on Dr. Gill by McKendree College, Lebanon, Ill., and the degree of L.L.D. by the University of Wooster, Ohio in 1885, the Medical Department of which was located in Cleveland, O., where he was living and lecturing in the Medical College, occupying the chair of Clinical Surgery. In 1881 he was appointed Physician to Southern Illinois Penitentiary, where he did some of his best work. In March 1865 he received the first Brevet (Lt. Colonel) of any medical officer from the state of Ohio. From Chester, Ill., (Southern Ill. Penitentiary), he was urged to take the chair of Surgery in the Medical Department of the University of Wooster, at Cleveland, Ohio, which position he filled for over two years, then resigned on account of over work, and severity of climate. In Oct., 1886, he removed to El Dorado, Butler Co., Kansas. Having at that time just completed his work on "Diphtheria, Croup and Tracheotomy," a work which cost him much labor. In the spring of 1855, Dr. Gill joined the M. E. church, of which he has been a member ever since, and has held every official position up to President of the "Lay Electoral Conference," of Southern Ill. Conference, in 1883. Their children are: (VI.) Amos Carpenter Gill, born May 6, 1871; died Feb. 22, 1872. (VI.) Elizabeth Carrell Gill, born Sept. 21, 1873. (VI.) Randolph Foster Gill, born Aug. 6, 1880.

III. Martin Fretz, born on the Old Homestead, in Bedminster Twp., Aug. 9, 1764; died Sept. 26, 1835, 71y., 1m., 19d. Farmer and Linseed Oil manuf'r. He lived in Hilltown Twp., near Yost's Mill, on the farm now occupied by Jacob Smith. He was an honest, upright man, and held in high esteem. As a christian, he endeavored faithfully to discharge his religious duties, in all of which he was conscientiously strict. He never allowed any member of his family to leave the church before the benediction was pronounced. An adage of his was: "Wer naus geht vor dem segen, geht dem fluch entgegen." Though at times taking a smoke, it was a saying of his, "That he never wanted to be a slave to tobacco or whisky." In the time of the subject of this sketch, many of the luxuries of the present day were not enjoyed. There were no carpets, and no parlor matches in those days. Sometimes they had to go to neighbors for fire, and on one occasion the Fretz' meadow was set on fire by borrowed fire. For the married girls in those days the dry goods outfit was mostly home-made. The spinning wheel was one of the fixtures of the family, and in this family of ten girls there were six spinning wheels going at one time, commencing at 5 o'clock in the morning, and continuing until 10 and 11 P. M. One of the daughters, Mrs. Susanna Funk, generally spun 18 cuts of flax per day, and one day she spun 20 cuts. The reel and the shaving bench were in the same room. Martin Fretz was one of the first to get a Dearborn pleasure wagon. Bows and cover were taken along, and if wanted, in case of rain, were put up. Among the relics of this home is a bar of soap made by his wife in 1816, one of her last acts, now in the possession of a grand-daughter, Esther Hunsberger, of Dublin, Pa. Martin Fretz was twice married. His first wife was Anna Kratz, by whom he had fifteen children. She was born Sept. 11, 1768; died June 24, 1816. He married for his second wife Anna Licey—. They were members of the Mennonite church at Blooming Glen, where he and his wives lie buried. The children, all by the first wife, are: Barbara, Mary, Agnes, Betsey, Betsey, Nancy, Veronica, Martin, Martin, Susanna, Silas, Veronica, Catharine, Leah, Rachel.

V. John Fretz Funk, born in Hilltown Twp., Bucks Co., Pa., Apr. 6, 1835. He worked on the farm as soon as he was old enough, going to school in the winter season until he was in his nineteenth year (1854), when he commenced teaching in his native township, and taught during the winter for three successive winters. He also attended school at Freeland Seminary three months during the summer of 1855, and again in 1856. In the spring of 1857, after closing his school at Chestnut Ridge, S. H., in Hilltown township, he went to Chicago, Ill., and engaged in the lumber business, in which he continued nine years. In the winter of 1859-60 he became a member of the Mennonite church at Line Lexington, Bucks Co., Pa. In January 1864 he commenced the publication of the Herald of Truth, and Der Herold der Wahrheit, and on the 19th of the same month was married to Salome Kratz, daughter of Jacob Kratz, of Hilltown, Bucks Co., Pa. On the 28th of May, 1865, he was ordained to the ministry in the Mennonite church near Gardner, Grundy Co., Ill. In April, 1867, he removed to Elkhart, Ind., and established there the business house now known as the Mennonite Publishing Co., first under his own name, and afterwards under the firm name of John F. Funk & Bro., after having associated with himself his brother Abraham K. Funk, and continued the business under this firm name until May 1, 1875, when the Mennonite Publishing Co. was organized. Children: (VI.) Martha. (VI.) Susan Mary (dec'd), (VI.) Phœbe, (VI.) Rebecca (dec'd), (VI.) Grace Anna (dec'd), (VI.) John Edwin (deceased).

V. Sarah Funk, born in Hilltown Twp., Bucks Co., Apr. 24, 1837; died Aug. 20, 1839.

V. Abraham Kratz Funk, born in Hilltown, Bucks Co., Jan. 20, 1840. His early years were spent on his father's farm. He attended school about four months usually in the winter, and a month or two during the summer. He commenced teaching in the public schools of the county, at the age of 18, under the County Superintendency of Wm. H. Johnson. He attended school at Freeland Seminary, at Freeland, now Collegeville, Montgomery Co., in 1859, and the Excelsior Normal Institute, at Carversville, Bucks Co., in 1861. After spending five years in farming during the summer and teaching in winter, he went to Chicago, Ill., in the spring of 1863 and engaged in the lumber business. After a residence of five years in Chicago, he went to Elkhart, and there entered into a copartnership with his brother, under the firm name of John F. Funk & Brother, as publishers and booksellers. They continued the publication of the Herald of Truth, and Der Herold der Wahrheit, and also issued during the continuance of the co-partnership a number of religious works, the most important of which was the great book of Martyrs, in the German language, containing over 1100 quarto pages, and the complete works of Menno Simon, which was translated from the Holland and printed in English. In 1875 he became one of the principal stock-holders in the Mennonite Publishing Co., which was then organized, and has since held the position of Secretary and Treasurer of that institution. He married Annie M. Landis, daughter of Joseph and Mary (Geil) Landis, of Greer's corner, near Dublin, Bucks Co., Pa., Mar. 11, 1872. Mennonites. Children: (VI.) Mary Maude, (VI.) Edna Josephine, (VI.) Esther Winifred.

V. Jacob Silas Funk was born in Hilltown Twp., Bucks Co., Pa., Apr. 13, 1842. He spent his early days on his father's farm, and received as was customary in those days, a fair, common school education. He afterwards, during the early part of 1862 and the summer of 1863, spent two terms at the Excelsior Normal Institute, at Carversville, Bucks Co. He taught in the schools of his native county, from 1862 to 1865. In the spring of 1865 he gave up that vocation and went to Chicago, Ill., and engaged in the Lumber business. On the 28th of Sept., of the same year he purchased a scholarship in the Eastman Business College of that city, and took a commercial course, attending evenings only. After four years' residence in Chicago, he determined to engage in business for himself, and accordingly, in the spring of 1869, located at Chillicothe, Mo., where he opened a lumber yard and commenced business on his own account. On the 15th of January following (1870), he was married to Annie K. Stover, daughter of Jonas Stover, of E. Rockhill Twp., Bucks Co., Pa. He afterwards became connected with the North Western Lumber Co., who had their mills at Eau Claire, Wisconsin, and extensive yards at Hannibal, Mo.; and on the 20th of Apr., 1880, moved with his family, from Chillicothe to Hannibal. Afterwards when the duties of his position required him to be mostly in the neighborhood where the mills of the company were located, he found it more economical and convenient to have his family in that vicinity also, and accordingly, on the 20th of July, 1885, removed to Minneapolis, Minn. He continued with the above firm eleven years, during which time he gained with them the highest esteem and respect, both for his conscientious business integrity and his excellent qualifications for the work in which he was engaged. In the spring of 1890 he severed his relations with N. W. Lumber Co., but the warm feeling of esteem and respect which he had won for himself during these extended business relations, continued to the end of his life. He took an active part in the various civil, social and religious movements of the day, and was always ready and willing to assist in all enterprises of public interest, and held continuously positions of responsibility and honor. Soon after his removal to Chillicothe, in 1869, he was elected superintendent of the Sunday School of the Presbyterian church of that city, which position he held until his removal to Hannibal in 1880. He was converted and united with the Third Presbyterian Church of Chicago during the time of his residence there. In 1871 or 72 he was elected elder of the First Presbyterian Church of Chillicothe. He was secretary of the School Board of that city, and through his influence, was built the beautiful new school building, costing from $45,000 to $50,000. In 1875 he was also member of the City Council. During the last three years of his residence in Chillicothe he was correspondent of the "Globe Democrat," a Republican paper of St. Louis. During the summer of 1890, after severing his connection with the N. W. L. Co., he, with A. Fiero, was appointed, by the Lumber Manufacturers of the N. W., to inspect the system of grading employed by the leading manufacturers of the northwest, and their report was received with much favor and satisfaction. After the completion of this commission, he became connected with the T. B. Scott Lumber Co., of Merrill, Wis., and during a business trip through Illinois and Indiana he was taken sick with a severe bilious attack, and after nearly a week of suffering in hotels, in Terre Haute, Ind., Chicago, Ill., and on the road, he reached his home in Minneapolis, Minn., on the 22d of Sept. The disease assumed a complicated form which resulted in blood poisoning, and after three weeks more of intense suffering, which he bore with patience, he died on the 15th of October, 1890, aged 48 y., 6 m. and 2 d. IV. Rachel Fretz, born in Hilltown Twp., Bucks Co., Pa., Jan. 1, 1814; died Dec. 11, 1858. At an early age she lost her mother, and the only remembrances she had of her fond parent were the recollections of early childhood. It is related that on the day of her mother's funeral, she stood beside her casket, calling her mamma to listen to her child-like questions. She received such educational advantages as the public schools, of that early period, afforded. She read both German and English well, and in later years, the reading of German Poetry afforded her especial pleasure. She was a constant reader of the Bible, and delighted to call the attention of her own family to the beauty of its precepts. She was married to Henry S. Krout, of Bedminster, Nov. 2, 1835.

He was born Apr. 10, 1810; died May 30, 1888. They lived near Line Lexington for eight years. Then moved to the homestead of the Krout family, on the Deep Run, where six more years of their busy lives were spent in tilling the soil that had been cultivated for more than a century by the paternal ancestral line. While residing here they determined to own a home of their own, and purchased and occupied the Kramer farm, on the east branch of Perkiomen Creek. While living here the family ties were broken. The mother having contracted consumption, was called to precede the rest of the family circle and join the great majority in the eternal world beyond the shadowy vale. She was a truly pious mother, and her chief care was to bring up her children in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. Above all she loved her family, her church, her Savior, and her God. They were members of the Mennonite Church at Deep Run. Children: Jacob, Martin, Abraham, John.

V. Jacob F. Krout, born in Bucks Co., Pa., Oct. 29, 1836. He always lived under the parental roof, and after the decease of his father, came into possession of the homestead, in Bedminster, where he is the proprietor of the farm and the Bedminster Nursery of Fruit and Ornamental Trees. By industry and frugality he has acquired much success as a farmer and nurseryman. He is unmarried and a member of the Mennonite church at Deep Run.

V. Martin F. Krout, born in Bucks Co., Pa., Nov. 3, 1838; died Apr. 20, 1876. He lived with his parents and worked on the farm until he was twenty-one years of age. He then took a position in a mercantile house in Philadelphia, where during his four years of service, he became thoroughly conversant with the business and enjoyed the confidence of all. In 1862 he went to River Styx, Ohio, and engaged in Tanning, in which business he continued for a time. He then purchased a farm near that town, and settled upon it, where he remained until his death. He married Rebecca, daughter of Dr. Wm. Andrews, of River Styx, Ohio, Oct. 2, 1864. Children: James and Wm. Arthur,

VI. James H. Krout, born Apr. 30, 1866.

VI. William Arthur Krout, born Apr. 20, 1871.

V. Abraham F. K. Krout, born in Bucks Co., Pa., Feb. 2, 1843. He lived at home until he was nineteen years of age. He then entered the North Wales Institute to obtain a more thorough education than the public schools afforded. Here he remained about a year. In the Fall of 1862 he commenced teaching, and until 1868 taught successively in the Deep Run, Rocky Ridge, Algards, Sellersville and Plumsteadville Schools. In 1868 he took charge of the West Bethlehem Schools, Lehigh Co., and in 1869 accepted the Principalship of Coplay schools, in the same Co. Here he remained from Sept. '69 to June '83, when he asked to be relieved to become the accountant and cashier for Coplay, Iron Co. This position he held from July '83 to Oct. '88. In the Fall of 1889 he took charge of the Borough Schools of Emlenton, Venango Co., P., where, as Principal, he reorganized the school system, and introduced a number of important changes for the improvement of the Public schools in that municipality. Having been offered still better inducements by the Board of Education of the Leighton Borough Schools, he will in the future have the Principalship and supervision of the schools of that growing town on the Lehigh. Through all these years of teaching there is one idea that has never been lost sight of, namely, that of self-improvement. The schooling at the academy was only the beginning of a life of study. In 1876 he appeared before the State Board of Examiners, passed the examination and was granted a Normal Certificate as Teacher of Didactics. He found much pleasure in pursuing a course of general studies in science and language, and in 1877 Franklin and Marshall College recognized his industry as a student and conferred on him the Honorary Degree of A. M. He has been a member of the Pennsylvania State Teachers' Asst'n since 1877, and an active member of the Touvey Botanical Club of Columbia College, New York City, since Oct. 1881. Having the confidence of the people at his permanent home in Coplay, he was frequently called upon to fill positions of honor and responsibility. He was the first commissioned Justice of the Peace for this Borough, and has continuously held this office from 1869 to 1890. He was Secretary of the Town Council for thirteen years, and a school Director while serving the Coplay Iron Co. The Judges of the Courts frequently appointed him to serve on road juries and commissions and there are few townships in Lehigh Co., in which he has not been called to execute these appointments. Being a member of the Ref. ch. he took an active interest in the founding of Trinity Congregation, at Coplay, in 1872. He served as deacon and was for many years the Sec'y of the Consistory. He was the Superintendent of the Sabbath Schools of this congregation for eighteen years. He married Mary C. Moyer, of Skippack, Montgomery Co., Pa., Oct. 1, 1868. Children: (VI.) Mabel Olivia Krout, born Dec. 25, 1871. (VI.) Jacob Henry Krout, born May 16, 1874. (VI.) Clarence A. Krout, born May 3, 1883; died Sept. 12, 1883. (VI.) Helen Rachel Krout, born Nov. 5, 1885.

V. John H. Krout, born in Bucks Co., Pa., June 26, 1845; died Mar. 22, 1888. He worked on the farm until of age. After having taught one term of school, he went to Philadelphia and engaged as clerk, and afterward followed the mercantile business in Montgomery and Lancaster counties. He was a member of the Roman Catholic Church.

III. Jacob Fretz, born in Bucks Co., Pa., Jan. 1, 1767; died Jan. 12, 1799. Mrd. Elizabeth Kratz, Nov. 6, 1787. She was born in 1768. Resided in Solebury, at the place known as Fleecydale. Fuller and Dyer. Children: Philip, Barbara, Christian, Elizabeth, Mary.

She was born Aug. 30, 1776, died Jan. 9, 1840.—He lived and died on the Old Fretz homestead, in Bedminster Twp. The farm consisting of about 255 acres he inherited from his father. He was an honest, upright citizen, a conscientious Christian, and much esteemed by the community in which he lived. It is related that while he was working in the field one day, a man rode up, and seeing his fine cows, wanted to buy one, but he did not want to sell. The man however insisted and asked him to set a price. He then thought that if he should ask double what the cow was worth, the man would leave without buying. But contrary to his expectation, the man laid down the money and drove the cow off. After the man was gone, he talked the matter over with his wife, and they decided it was "usury." So he mounted a horse, rode after the man, and gave him back half of the money, saying, "I don't want to be damned for a cow." He and his wife were members of the Mennonite church at Deep Run, of which he was for many years a deacon. Children: Anna, Rebecca, Jacob, Christian, John, Isaac, Martin, Elizabeth, Barbara, Abraham.

Christian, mrd. his second wife, Elizabeth Nash, Oct. 6, 1867. She died —. He was a farmer of large means, a man of thriving energy, a director of the Doylestown Bank, and an honored Mem. of the Mennonite Ch. at Deep Run.

V. Ely Fretz, born Sept. 9, 1825. Mrd. Mary, (daughter of William Meyers, a descendant of Tincum Christian Fretz' branch,) in 1850. He is a prosperous farmer of Bedminster Twp., and a director of the Sellersville bank. He and his wife are influential Mems. Second Mennonite Ch. of Deep Run. Children: Allen, Lucinda, Emeline, Mahlon, Francis, Barbara, Susan, Mary, Etta.

VI. Rev. Allen M. Fretz, born Dec. 12, 1853, in Tincum Twp., on the property known as Fretz' Mill, on the Tohiekon, where his parents lived at the time. In 1856 his parents moved to Bedminster Twp., to the farm of his Grandfather Christian, where his father was born and brought up, and which, upon the death of Christian passed into the hands of Ely, who still (1889) owns it. Allen now resides thereon. When 17 years old he was sent by his parents to the Mennonite seminary at Wadsworth, Ohio. He subsequently attended one term at the Excelsior Normal Institute at Carversville, Pa.; after which he taught school eleven terms, working on his father's farm during the summer months. On Sept. 18, 1880, he was mrd. to Sarah (daughter of Abraham L. Leatherman, also Fretz' descendants, see—). She died Mar. 21, 1882. An infant son died soon after birth without name. In the fall of 1882 he accepted the nomination of the Republican party as a candidate to the State Legislature, which was tendered him, but his party being in the minority in that year's campaign, he was, with the rest of the ticket, defeated. In 1883 the Second Mennonite church at Deep Run called him to be their minister, and he was accordingly ordained by Bish. Moses Gottschall on Oct. 13, 1883, and installed pastor of the same. Feeling the pressing need of an English paper in the interests of his branch of the Mennonite church, he, with the aid of N. B. Grobb, pastor of the church in Philadelphia, succeeded in Oct. 1885, in getting out the prospectus of "The Mennonite," which was laid before the conference and accepted as one of the periodicals of the church. He is still one of the editors of the paper, which has steadily increased in popularity and circulation since it was started. On Mar. 5, 1884, he was mrd. to Anna, daughter of Jacob F. Rittenhouse, of Campden, Ont. She is a descendant of John Fretz, who emigrated to Canada in 1800. Children: (VII.) Jacob Rittenhouse Fretz, born July 22, 1886. (VII.) Ely R. Fretz, born Nov. 27, 1888.

IV. Martin Fretz, born on the old Fretz' homestead in Bedminster, Pa., Sept. 12, 1808. Mrd. Elizabeth Kratz (daughter of John Kratz of Skippack, Pa.), Oct., 6, 1831. She was born Aug. 31, 1813, died Mar. 21, 1855. He was variously occupied as Farmer, Weaver, Miller, and Merchant. He at first lived on a farm in Montgomery Co., and afterwards purchased Sixty acres of the old Fretz' homestead, and some adjoining lands in Bedminster, Bucks, Co., where in 1838, he built a dwelling house, and subsequently a barn, tenant house, and other buildings. The farm is now owned and occupied by Reuben Miller. In early life he and wife were Mems. Old Mennonite Ch. at Deep Run. About 1847, a division took place in that congregation, and a new meeting-house was built a few hundred yards from the old one. At the time of the division he was a trustee of the old church, but cast his lot with the new church, and was subsequently chosen one of its first ministers. In 1853 he purchased a mill property in Sussex, Co., New Jersey, and moved thereon with his family in the spring of 1854. He mrd. for his second wife, widow Margaret E. Hill (maiden name Wintamute), Feb. 14, 1857. She was born Apr. 30, 1817. Soon after marriage, in the spring of 1857, having rented this mill property, he moved to his wife's farm in Warren Co., N. J., where he engaged in farming until the spring of 1862; having disposed of his mill property, he removed to Newton, Sussex Co., where he had built a house, and engaged in the commission business. About 1866 he removed to Stillwater, Sussex Co., where he had purchased a home and engaged in Merchandise. In the spring of 1882, he again removed to the farm in Warren Co., where he died July 13, 1882. Some years prior to his death, he was ordained a Ruling Elder in the Presbyterian Ch. of Stillwater. Amid all the trials, and turmoils of his long and eventful life, he maintained a strict integrity and died highly respected by the community in which he lived, and honored in the church. V. Alva Bennett Fretz, born in Hardwick Twp., Warren Co., N. J., July 23, 1858. His early school days were spent in the Academy, and Collegiate Institute, both of Newton, N. J. He next attended the select school of Rev. T. B. Condit, at Stillwater, until the doors of that institution were closed forever. He then attended the Academy in that village until the age of sixteen when he left school and for a year worked as day laborer, after which he continued his studies under his Preceptress Miss Anna M. Condit.

*She is a descendant of Robert Headley who settled at Milton during the Revolution. He was a native of England, and emigrated to this country and settled in the Wyoming Valley, Pa. Prior to the Wyoming Massacre he received timely warning of the impending danger, from a friendly Squaw, and made his escape.

During this his last year at home he decided to make teaching his profession, which he has since followed with but few periods of relaxation, up to the present. He began his career as a teacher in 1876, has been very successful as such, and is at present principal of a Graded School in Essex Co., N. J. He has always been a profound reader, and an indefatigable student. He has held positions of trust and honor in various social, Dramatic, Musical, and Literary Societies to which he belongs, and received many encomiums of merit, ability and talent from his patrons, and superiors. He is a member of Arcana Lodge, No. 60, F. and A. M., at Boonton, N. J. He was married to Lillian Isabel Williams, daughter of Matthew Williams, of Hampton, Sussex Co., N. J., in 1881. - V. Sarah Hendricks, born Sept. 1, 1851; died Oct. 20, 1862.
- V. Jacob Freeman Hendricks, A. M., born May 15, 1854. He was the youngest and is now the only surviving child. He was given the patriarchal name of Jacob, being named after his paternal grandfather. When the boy became of school age, he was sent to the public school of the vicinity. In 1862, through the visitation of death, of seven children but two, the oldest and youngest, were left. A few months later, marriage having claimed the oldest, led her forth from beneath the parental roof, leaving the subject of the sketch the only child at the family fireside. In '65 his father sold the farm on which he had lived for many years, and on which he had reared his children and bought a property near the village of Line Lexington, in Hilltown township, and moved thereon. Here the boy resumed his attendance at public school, assisting his father when school was not in session in the work on the farm and in the chores about the place. Between '65 and '70, he induced his father to send him for several short terms to the Line Lexington Seminary, then a select school for boys and girls, instead of the public school. In the spring of '70, thirsting for wider educational advantages, he induced his father to send him to the Excelsior Normal Institute at Carversville, then under the Principalship of Rev. F. R. S. Hunsicker, D. D. After a twelve weeks attendance at this school, he entered the profession of teaching, taking charge of a school in Hilltown Twp., and continued to teach in that township for four successive terms. In the spring of '71 he entered the Millersville State Normal School and remained there twelve weeks. In the spring of '74 he returned to that school and took a short term. In the fall of that year he was examined by the County Superintendent of Lehigh County, and granted a provisional certificate, having one in every branch. He was thereupon elected principal of the Schools of Rittersville, in that county. After teaching there several months he was granted a professional certificate. In the spring of '75 he returned to Millersville to finish his course, graduating with honors in the class of '76, and the degree of Bachelor of the Elements. In the fall of '76 he took charge of a school at Breinigsville, Lehigh County. During this term he gained prominence among the teachers of the county. At the County Teacher's Institute of that year, he was made Secretary of the Institute, appointed to open the discussion on one of the topics, chosen delegate to the State Teacher's Association and selected as one of the evening lecturers. In the fall of '77 he took charge of a school in East Donegal Township, Lancaster County. During this term he gave some attention to public lecturing, appearing, among other audiences, before the Page Literary Society of Millersville. At the commencement of '79 he received from his Alma Mater the degree of Master of the Elements. In the fall of '78 he was elected teacher of the Intermediate Department of the Doylestown Borough Public Schools, and before the close of the term was made Principal and Borough Superintendent. In the summer of '79, after winning golden testimonials as a teacher, he left the school room and turned his face in the direction of the legal profession. He entered the office of Alfred Fackenthal, Esq., and was duly registered as a student at law. In '81 he was admitted to the Bucks County Bar, and at once began the practice of law at the County Capitol. For reasons he has never yet made known he now adopted as a middle name, the name Freeman, writing his name J. Freeman Hendricks. In the spring of '85, Doylestown Borough elected him Justice of the Peace by an overwhelming majority, when his party was hopelessly in the minority. The same year he was admitted to the Bryant Literary Union of New York, and again he entered the lecture field. Since then he has appeared before County Teacher's Institutes and other distinguished audiences, and won the strongest testimonials. At the commencement of '86 Ursinus College conferred on him the honorary degree of Master of Arts. He is a Republican in politics, and a Presbyterian in religion. He still resides in Doylestown, figuring as a lawyer, Justice and lecturer.

IV. Barbara Fretz, born on the Old Homestead in Bedminster, Mar. 24, 1813; died—. Mrd. Joseph F. Myers. (See Index of References No. 56).

V. Lavina D. Fretz, born in Bedminster Twp., May 2, 1843. Mrd. Jonas S. Myers. (See Index of References No. 57).

V. Clayton D. Fretz, M. D., son of Abraham and Sarah (Detweiler) Fretz, was born on the old John Fretz' homestead in Bedminster, Nov. 16, 1844. At the age of six years his mother died of a lingering illness. He remained at home with his father until the spring of 1855, when he was hired out on the farm of the late Jonas Meyers, of Bedminster, where he remained nearly two years. The following year he was with the late Reuben Stover, and the succeeding year with Aaron Tyson, working on the farm in the summer months and attending school at Bedminster, during the winter terms. His father having resumed farming he returned home in the spring of 1859, and assisted on the farm, attending school during the winter months at Fretz Valley. In the spring of 1862 he attended a term at "The North Wales Institute," under the principalship of A. S. Overholt. He also attended the spring term of 1863, at the same institution. In the summer of 1864 he took a course at "Eastman Business College" at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., graduating July 12. In the Autumn of 1862, he secured a certificate of County Superintendent S. S. Overholt, and taught his first term of school in the "Old Octagon" school house, near Fountainville. He continued teaching for the next three years—teaching at the Monroe school, Durham; and the Fretz Valley school, Bedminster, and closing his career as teacher at Crout's school, Rockhill. During this last term he commenced reading medicine under his preceptor, Dr. I. S. Moyer, then at Plumsteadville, Bucks Co. After the close of the school term he devoted all his time to medicine, and entered the office of his preceptor as a regular student, and in the autumn of 1866 matriculated at the Medical Department of the University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia. During the succeeding two years he applied himself closely to study, attended the lectures, and graduated Mar. 13, 1868. Ten days thereafter, on the 23d of March, he located at Sellersville, Pa., and entered into partnership with Dr. Nelson Applebach, for the practice of his profession. He met with success, and in a few years succeeded in acquiring a lucrative practice, and establishing himself in the confidence and esteem of the community. In the autumn of 1871, he dissolved the business partnership with Dr. Applebach to enter into a life partnership with Miss Kate B. Everhart, daughter of the late Dr. Charles W. Everhart, of Sellersville.—The study of Botany and the collection of specimens of plants and flowers has been one of his favorite pursuits. He has added many new and rare plants to the known flora of Bucks Co., besides having discovered one new to the state flora, and also a variety not before known to science. His herbarium not only contains a complete set of all the plants in Bucks Co., but a very large majority of the plants growing east of the Mississippi, including not less than ten thousand specimens and about four thousand different species and varieties.—Dr. Fretz is a member of the Bucks Co., Medical Society, the Lehigh Valley Medical Association, the Bucks Co., Historical Society, and the Bucks Co., branch of the Pennsylvania Forestry Association. In 1822 Isaac mrd. his third wife, Betsey Landis. She was born Nov. 16, 1799; died Feb. 13, 1887. In early life Isaac Fretz followed the vocation of farmer. He owned and lived on the farm in Tinicum Twp., now owned and occupied by Henry F. Myers. He also for a time had teams on the road freighting goods from Philadelphia to Easton, Bethlehem, and Nazareth, with an occasional visit to Pittsburg and other points west. During his absence from home Mar. 4, 1804, his barn was struck by lightning and burned. On this occasion his wife Veronica, displayed heroic energy, in rescuing horses and cattle from the burning building, and undoubtedly would have perished herself in the flames, had she not at last been held back by the neighbors. In spite of all efforts to rescue the cattle from the flames, one horse and fourteen (some say 21) head of cattle perished. In 1815, Isaac built what is now known as the Fretz Valley Mill, on the Tohickon Creek, and in addition to farming operated the mill. During his busy life he succeeded to competency, and accumulated nearly 300 acres of land. He and wives were members of the Mennonite church. He, however, respected all denominations, and would never (without reproof) allow any one in his presence to speak lightly of any church, or church ordinance.

At the age of twenty-one, he apprenticed himself to the milling trade which he followed many years. About 1818 he, in company with Samuel, son of "lame Anthony Fretz, and "Velvet" Henry Fretz, made a trip to Canada, to visit friends and relatives there. The entire trip was made on foot, and was attended with the usual amount of adventures. At an early age he connected himself with the Mennonite church, but on marrying a Ger. Ref. lady, he was excluded from membership, and so remained until the division, twenty-six years later, when he and wife connected themselves with the New Mennonites. He was at one time nominated for Deacon, but not elected. He served as trustee for some time, and was the second sexton of the church, which position he held for over twenty-two years. DESCENDANTS OF MARK FRETZ, SON OF WEAVER JOHN.

II. Mark Fretz (son of Weaver John and Maria), was born in Bedminster Twp., Bucks Co., Pa., in Dec. 1750. He died Feb. 24, 1840, aged 89 years and about two months. Mrd. Elizabeth, daughter of Rev. Henry and Barbara Rosenberger, of New Britain Twp., Bucks Co., Pa., May 11, 1773. She was born Sept. 19, 1752; died Jan. 10, 1847, aged 94y., 3m., 22d. They lived in New Britain Twp., Bucks Co., on the place now known as "Curley's Mill," which he purchased of John Fretz of Warwick, in 1792. The tract consisted of 130 acres. To this he added by other purchases until he owned several hundred acres. He was extensively engaged as a farmer and in the milling business. They were members of the Mennonite church at Line Lexington, of which he was a deacon. Children: Barbara, Maria, Elizabeth, Infant dau., Henry, Infant dau., Mark.

III. Barbara Fretz, born in Bucks Co., Apr. 21, 1775; died in Brazoria Co., Texas, June 10, 1840, aged 65y., 1m., 20d. She was buried between two trees. Mrd. John Sliver. Brickmason. In early life she was a member of the Mennonite ch., and later united with the M. E. ch., of which she remained a consistent member until her death. Their only child was (IV.) Elizabeth Sliver, born in New Britain Twp., Bucks Co., Feb. 20, 1798; died at Gonzales, Texas, Aug. 10, 1840. Mrd. William Denyer, May 31, 1821. He was born in the county of Southampton, Hampshire, England, Nov. 22, 1794; died in Louisiana, Mar. 14, 1848.

In early life he was a cabinet maker in Baltimore, Md. After marriage he was a farmer in Bucks Co., Pa., later he burned lime from oyster shells, in Philadelphia, was in ice business, rafted lumber down the Schuylkill river, boated on the Schuylkill canal, run saw and grist mill in Lycoming Co., Pa., and engaged in whip-sawing at New Albany, Ind. While there he was taken sick, and went to Louisiana for his health. In 1839 he settled with his family near Brazoria, Tex. In 1840 he moved to Gonzales Co., Tex., and in 1841 to Louisiana, and traveled as an itinerant minister of the M. E. ch., until his death. Mr. and Mrs. Denyer were earnest Christians, and endeavored faithfully to bring up their family under the influence of the Christian religion, and lead them heavenward. Children: Samuel, Elizabeth, Ebenezer, Jane, William, Ross.

V. Samuel Jennings Denyer, born in Baltimore, Md., May 22, 1822. Mrd. Zerelda Ann Singleton, of Louisiana, Oct., 17, 1849. During his eventful life he was variously occupied. He attended the Methodist Seminary at New Albany, Ind., two or three years, was a good English and Latin scholar, taught school for a number of years, surveyed lands, and practiced law at Galesburg, Ill., where he held the office of Notary Public. In June 1841, he joined a Volunteer Co., in the "Santa Fe Expedition," under Gen. Hugh M'Leod. After undergoing many hardships, the expedition reached their destination in Sept., with the commissioners who were to treat with the Mexicans. They were received with every appearance of friendship. A bountiful meal provided, and while they were enjoying it they were disarmed by the treacherous Mexicans, taken prisoners, and marched barefooted, with bleeding feet that stained the stones and snow, at every step, and were driven into sheep cotes, with one blanket for bed and covering. When on the march they were required to keep up with the mounted officers, or be cut down by their captors. Mr. Denyer, in helping one of his comrades, who was near fainting from fatigue and weakness, to some water, got a little behind and received a cut from a sword in his side, the scar of which he carried to the grave. He was imprisoned at Puebla, where he remained nearly a year. In the spring of 1843, he returned to Pennsylvania, working his passage to New York. In 1858 he moved to Burnett Co., and from there to Llano Co., Texas, where he followed stock-raising. Apr. 30, 1861, while out hunting for a lost cow, he was treacherously shot by an Indian. At the time of his death he was preparing himself for the ministry of the M. E. church, South. Zerelda, his wife, died in 1867. The following is a poem composed and dedicated to the memory of "Mother," beloved wife of Samuel J. Denyer, by their youngest child, Mrs. Ida E. S. Green.

Mother! ah, how oft that name
Our loving hearts have thrilled,
It soothes to rest in hours of pain,
Though death her pulse has stilled
In life we were her constant care;
And often while we slept,
She o'er us bent in silent prayer,
While Indians through our barley crept.
They had her loved companion slain,
Disguised in 'white-men's' clothes.
Whom he mistook for neighboring friends,
Till they had strung their bows.
And then upon that April morn,
When death his frame had chilled,
She stood beside that lifeless form,
Her heart with anguish filled.
And when we laid him in the tomb,
And sadly turned away,
Our mother knew that she alone,
Must guard us night and day.
Nor did she through those years of grief
E'er murmur or repine,
But sought in prayer that sweet relief
Which true believers find.
And when consumption seized her child,
The first that God had given,
She closed in death those eyes so mild,
And said, "We'll meet in heaven."
One year elapsed, then mother left,
To join the host above,
And four small children were bereft
Of either parents' love.

And now those loved ones round the throne
Are beckoning us away;
Dear brothers, sisters, kindred ones,
Let us the call obey.

Yes! let us follow in the path
This noble woman trod;
Perform our duty here on earth,
But lean upon our God.

BARBARA FRETZ, DAUGHTER OF WEAVER JOHN.

II. Barbara Fretz, youngest child of "Weaver" John, and Maria Fretz, born—; died—. Nothing is known of her. It is probable that she never married.

CHRISTIAN FRETZ,
BROTHER OF WEAVER JOHN.

(Tinicum Branch.)

1. Christian Fretz (brother of "Weaver" John), settled in Tinicum Twp., Bucks Co., Pa., along the Tinicum creek, at the place now known as Heaney's Mill. The house stood on the opposite side of the road, a short distance from the present one. The farm originally contained about 140 acres, and is now divided into three tracts. The present house is of stone, was built by his son Christian, and is now over one hundred years old. The homestead with about 40 acres of the original tract, is owned and occupied by Joseph M. Hockman. Sixty-five acres are owned by Henry S. Wolfinger, and 25 acres by — Johnson. It is probable that some of his children scattered early, were lost sight of and forgotten, so that nothing definite is known of but three or four of them, although there are slight evidences of others. So far, in our investigations, we have not learned that he had any daughters. His children that are known were: Abraham, Mark, Christian Daniel. Those who probably were or are supposed to have been his children, are: John, Jacob, Henry.

DESCENDANTS OF ABRAHAM FRETZ, SON OF CHRISTIAN FRETZ OF TINICUM.

II. Abraham Fretz (son of Christian Fretz, of Tinicum). The date of his birth is not known, but he was born as early as 1745, or before that date. When he died is not known. He was married to Dorothea Kulp*—. In 1775 he purchased a farm in Bedminster Twp., consisting of 224 acres, of Alexander Brown, who purchased it from Richard and Thomas Penn (Governors and Esqs.), in 1758. The farm is now divided into four farms, owned and occupied as follows: Jacob F. Hockman, on the north; Levi Hockman on the north-east; and Anthony R. Fretz and Quincy A. Fretz on the south-west. It is quite probable that Abraham Fretz and his wife were among the early worshipers of the Mennonite church at Deep Run, and buried there. Their children were: Judith, Elizabeth, Henry, Joseph, Esther, Anna, Barbara.

III. Judith Fretz, born Oct. 2, 1767; died Nov. 7, 1847. Mrd. John Meyer (his second wife) July 3, 1788. He died July 10, 1814. They lived on a farm on the Durham road, S. E. of Pipersville. They were members of the Mennonite ch. Children: Abraham, John, Christian, Joseph, Jacob, Christian, William, Dorothea, Samuel, Isaac.

* It is rather remarkable that the three brothers, Abraham, Mark and Christian Fretz, married three sisters, viz: Dorothea, Gertrude, and Judith Kulp; and a cousin, John Fretz of the Bedminster Branch, who emigrated to Canada, married Mary Kulp, also a sister of the above.

VI. Anthony F. Myers, M.D., born in Plumstead Twp., Bucks Co., Jan. 6, 1856, and was reared on his father's farm and mill property, on the Tohickon creek, in Tinicum Twp., and attended the public schools during the winter months. At the age of 20 he attended the Mennonite Seminary, at Wadsworth, Ohio, for a year, and began teaching in the public schools of Tinicum in the fall of 1876. The following two years he taught the Pipersville school, and during the summer term attended the Millersville State Normal School. In Sept. 1879 he again entered the Normal school at Millersville for a year, and while there was tendered and accepted the position of assistant Principal of the Tressler Orphan's Home at Loysville, Perry Co., Pa. After filling the responsible position very acceptably to the Board of Trustees for two years, he resigned, and spent several months traveling, visiting numerous national cemeteries, and old battle fields, and various places of interest in some of the Southern States. In Sept. 1882, he entered the office of Dr. S. S. Brumbaugh, at Pipersville, Pa., and began the study of medicine. He studied under the efficient supervision of his preceptor, Dr. Brumbaugh, until the following year, when he entered the Missouri Medical College, at St. Louis, from which institution he graduated as Physician and Surgeon in Mar. 1885. Returning East, he, in order to become a practicing physician in Pa., passed a creditable examination at the Medico Chirurgical College of Philadelphia, and since Apr. 1885, he has been a practicing physician and surgeon at Blooming Glen, where by good success and his ambition to become more proficient in his profession, he has gained the confidence of the people, and is enjoying a lucrative practice. Dr. Myers was mrd. Oct. 11, 1888, to Wilhelmina S., daughter of Simon H., and Lydia (Savacool) Snyder. She was born Mar. 21, 1864. Lutherans. The doctor is an active member of the Bucks Co. Medical Society, the Lehigh Valley Medical Association, a charter member of the Perkasio Lodge No. 671, I. O. O. F., and a member of the Sellersville Encampment, I. O. O. F., No. 252.

He was an industrious farmer, a devoted husband, a loving father, a worthy citizen, and an exemplary neighbor and christian. He never united with any church. He occupied a farm of 80 acres in Richland Twp., DeKalb Co., Ind., which he earned and improved by unremitting toil. His was a life of privations, such as the present generation can have no conception of. He was buried in the church yard at Green's corners, the place where he used to worship. He was the father of five children: Benjamin, John, Nancy, George, Henry.

VI. Benjamin Franklin Fretz, born June 22, 1854. in DeKalb Co., Ind., where he spent his childhood. The death of his father left him, then but little more than seven years of age, the oldest of a family of five children. It was in his early boyhood that he witnessed some of the privations and hardships incident to life among the heavy forests of Indiana. Frank with his widowed mother, assumed the task of caring for themselves and family, in all a group of five children, ranging in age from eight years to five months. The mother bowed down with grief at the untimely loss of her husband and the weight of the great responsibility thus thrown upon her, was for a number of years almost an invalid. Through the direction of a kind Providence and an indomitable energy, born of that courage which comes only of an unflinching faith in God, she with the help of her older children, succeeded in stemming the tide of poverty and want which at times threatened her. It was during these trying ordeals that Frank received many of the lessons of life, usually learned by others at a more advanced age, and only learned by experience. These, together with the kind advice and maternal admonition of his mother, were the germs from which grew the future hopes and aspirations of the young man. He attended the Public School until the age of sixteen when he was obliged to quit. During the whole period of his school life much of his time was diverted to attend to the wants of the family. He entered a normal class in 1871 under the instruction of Prof. Wm. H. McIntosh, was licensed to teach the common branches, and taught in his county during the winter of 1871 and 72, dividing his meagre salary with his mother. He entered the Oberlin school of Telegraphy in the fall of 1873, taking a complete course in that art, and soon after secured a position in a Railway Telegraph Office at Kendallville, Ind. He returned to the profession of teaching in 1875, devoting his time alternately to his profession and various other pursuits. In the spring of 1878, he determined to visit the Great West. At Independence, Kans., he passed the summer on a farm, as a common laborer, and the following winter again entered the school room. In 1880 he began the study of law, under the tutorship of the Hon. Daniel Grass, of Independence, Kan., but a year later accepted the offer of Ben. S. Henderson Atty. at Law, to finish his law studies and prepare for a copartnership with him in the practice. Here his associations and relations were pleasant and profitable. He acquired a taste for his profession, but circumstances conspired to change his course and he was induced to accept a position as teacher in the employ of the Department of the Interior, at Osage Agency, I. T., where he remained for nearly two years among the natives of the plains. Here in the summer of 1882 he was married to Miss Linna Crooks, of Waterloo, Ind., a former associate and fellow teacher. The marriage was consummated Aug. 20, 1882, and the two at once set out for the husband's field of labor among the red men of Indian Ter. Both engaged as teachers of the Indian children of that post. During the following winter Small-Pox scattered the inmates of the school and on the 26th day of Feb., 1883, the doors were closed and all employees sent to the states. Embarking again for Independence, Kan., he accepted the offer of the Clerk of the County, as deputy, and later that of Clerk of the Court. Here he remained a short time and then removed to Waterloo, Ind., and accepted a position with the L. S. & M. S. Ry. Co. In 1887 he removed to Rochester, Fulton Co., Ind., where he was at once admitted to the practice of law. Here he has formed the surroundings which will probably attach him permanently to the place and profession above named. He has frequently occupied positions of trust and honor in the society to which he belongs, and in the business of the county in which his interests are centered. In matters pertaining to religion he was always a doubter or skeptic; not careless, but incredulous. The virtues taught him by his mother were never forgotten, though often ignored. His researches led him to the philosophy of Spencer, Huxley, Tyndal, Hume, Voltaire, Payne and Ingersol, but each failing to satisfy the wants of man's spiritual nature, the beautiful philosophy of Jesus Christ has been adopted. In 1888 he renounced his allegiance to the Prince of Darkness and has since sought to lead the life of an exemplary christian. Husband and wife are members of the Christian Church, at Rochester, Ind., and were baptized Dec. 29, 1888. Children: (VII.) Ralph Fretz, and (VII.) Ray Fretz (Twins), born Aug. 27, 1883. (VII.) Edna E. Fretz, born Sept. 17, 1889.

VI. John Calvin Fretz, born in DeKalb Co., Ind., July 10, 1856. He was named John Calvin because he chanced to be born on the same day of the year as the great theologian of that name. His early life was that of an ordinary farmer boy. At about the usual age he began attending school. He was compelled to leave the summer school at the age of twelve. However he attended the district school for about three months each winter until he was sixteen years old. He then took a short normal course, and was licensed to teach the common branches. At seventeen he began teaching, and for six consecutive winters followed that profession. In the Fall of 1875, while attending a normal course in Waterloo, Ind., he became acquainted with Ettie Philips, daughter of C. M. Philips, Att'y. at Law, of Waterloo, whom he mrd. Oct. 29, 1876. In 1878 he finally decided the great question, "What shall be my life work?" which had agitated his mind for years, by determining on the science of Medicine as a permanent profession. He at once began, and for a year studied medicine in connection with farm and school work. In the spring of 1879 he removed to Auburn, where he entered the office of Jared Spooner, M. D., and set to work with a firm determination to succeed. In the Autumn of the same year, he entered the Medical Department of the University of Mich., at Ann Arbor. This was a year of great mental growth for him, and well did he avail himself of all the advantages with which he was surrounded. The careful and thorough instruction imparted by this institution formed a broad base for a thorough medical education. After an absence of nine months from home and family, Calvin returned and settled at Deedsville, Ind., where he at once began the practice of medicine. For five years he continued his practice, and then once more returned to the University where he completed his course and graduated in 1886. For a short time he located at Garrett, Ind., but the same year he returned with his family to Deedsville. Since that time he has enjoyed a growing reputation, earned by hard and honest work. In 1888 he joined the medical society of his county, and in 1889 was chosen its President, a position occupied by him at present writing. In the spring of 1872, when in his sixteenth year, Calvin became a Christian, united with the U. B. and was baptized. He has earnestly labored for the salvation of souls, has occupied all the offices in the gift of the church society and Sunday School, and enjoys the labor in "The Master's Vineyard." Not only has his wife greatly assisted him in the battles of life, but he still has a mother who has done all that a mother could, to encourage him in the acquisition of knowledge. It was by her that this truth was fixed in his mind "Much is possible to him who tries." Children: (VII.) Maggie Fretz, born Feb. 25, 1879. (VII.) Granville P. Fretz, born July 12, 1887; died Infant. VI. Lewis Barney Fretz, born in Greene Co., Ind., Mar. 4, 1868. His parents lived for a number of years after his birth in Greene Co., from which locality they moved to Taylor Co., Ky., remaining there about eighteen months, after which his home was located in DeKalb Co., Ind. In early life he worked upon the farm and attended the District school. In Sept. 1883, his parents established a home in the town of Auburn, the County-Seat of DeKalb Co., where for several years he attended the Graded School, and graduated from the Grammar Department in 1887. In 1885 he entered the painting department of the Snyder Wagon Works, as an apprentice, under the tutelage of J. C. Day, and mastered the trade in 1887. Finding that painting was detrimental to his health, he abandoned it, and in Nov. 1888 entered as apprentice the Publishing House of the Auburn Courier. The advantages of this position have been the crowning benefit of his life. He has gradually risen from the lowest to one of the advanced positions of the establishment, that of a "Local Reporter." In addition to being a first class Typo, he is an Orator of superior talent, possessing a powerful voice, good articulation, and an easy command of language. his audiences are held in rapt attention, while they are interested by an eloquence that is natural and irresistible. Mr. Fretz, was converted in February, 1890. since which time he has occupied the pulpit alternately with the resident pastor of the Church of God. The ministry is his probable future vocation. Being a moral and temperate man, and possessing good natural abilities the height of his aspiration is unlimited.

DESCENDANTS OF JOHN FRETZ, SON OF—.

II. John Fretz, born Feb. 8, 1749; died Aug. 30, 1815. Mrd. Magdalena Fox, of Pa. She was born Apr. 1, 1748; died Sept. 23, 1820. He was a wheelwright, joiner and manufacturer of Fanning Mills, and a member of the Dunkard church. His ancestry is involved in doubt. By some of the connection he is supposed to have emigrated from Germany*. He settled near Manheim, Lancaster Co., Pa., where probably all his children were born. In 1800 he emigrated to Welland Co., Canada, with all his family

* It is said by one of the descendants that John Fretz came from New Jersey, or from near the "line," (State line). Considering the fact that "Tinicum Christian Fretz" lived only a few miles from the Delaware river, or State line, on the Pennsylvania side, however, it may be that he was the son of Tinicum Christian Fretz. In early life, John Fretz may, for a time, have lived on the Jersey side, and afterwards settled in Lancaster Co., Pa. There is a tradition in this family that three brothers fled from Germany, because of religious persecution; but it is not known what became of two of them. John Fretz of Lancaster Co., could not have been one of these brothers, as the persecution took place many years before he was born; but his father, it is quite probable, may have been one of the brothers. On the other hand the tradition of the Bucks Co., Fretz' ancestors is that three brothers fled from Germany because of religious persecutions, and that one of them died on the voyage; the other two, Christian and John, landed and settled in Bucks Co., Pa. The same year that John Fretz of Lancaster Co., settled in Welland Co., Canada, John Fretz of Haycock Twp., Bucks Co., Pa. (son of Weaver John Fretz), settled in Lincoln Co., Canada. It is said that Jacob Fretz, son of Lancaster John, visited them, but they could establish no mutual relationship.

except his daughter Barbara, and son Daniel. They were six weeks in making the journey to Canada, taking their live stock with them. At night bells were put on the horses and cattle, and they were turned out to pasture. After a milking the milk was put into the churn, which was fastened to the hinder part of the wagon, and their butter was churned by the motion of the wagon as they proceeded. On the twelfth day of June they crossed the Niagara river on a raft. They swam the horses and cattle across. They were assisted in crossing by friendly Indians. John Fretz settled in the township of Bertie, Welland Co., Ont., on lots 2 and 3, concessions 15 and 16, which consisted of about 400 acres, on which he built a log house. Some time previous to his death he laid out on his property a family burying ground, in which he and his wife were buried, and it is still used by his descendants as a place of burial. Among the relics retained of the home of John Fretz, a cupboard, made by him in 1801, is in the possession of his great-grandson, Jacob Fretz, of Fenwick, Ont., who also has an iron maul, an axe, a taper bit, and the old family Bible, published at Zurich, Switzerland, in 1539, and brought from Germany by the ancestor. The children of John Fretz were: Barbara, Abraham, Daniel, Jacob, Peter, Francis, Mary.

DESCENDANTS OF JACOB FRETZ, SON OF CHRISTIAN FRETZ OF TINICUM.

II. Jacob Fretz, born—; died—; mrd.—. He lived in Tinicum Twp., Bucks Co., and was buried in the vicinity of Coopersburg. His ancestry was for some time in doubt, and was supposed himself to have emigrated from Switzerland. But as he lived in Tinicum township, Bucks Co., the home of the ancestor, Christian Fretz, there is now not the least shadow of a doubt in the minds of the author and others that he was the son of “Tinicum Christian Fretz.” There is an old family Bible, brought from Germany, now in the possession of his grandson, David Fretz’s family, which was published at Basle, in 1720. It is bound in old style Boards and Leather, but unfortunately, it having gone through three fires and two freshets, all signs or semblance whereby the least letter could be made intelligible is obliterated. Otherwise it is in good condition. Jacob Fretz was a member of the Mennonite church. He had only one child, a son: Jacob.

III. Jacob Fretz, born in Tinicum Twp., Bucks Co., Pa., Mar. 15, 1793; died Dec. 1, 1875. Mrd. Elizabeth Gehman,—. She died Nov. 24, 1828. Children: Mary, Aaron, David.—Jacob mrd. for his second wife Elizabeth Driesbach, May 19, 1829. She died May 17, 1844. Children: James, Catharine, Matilda, Rebecca, Amanda.—Jacob mrd. for his third wife Elizabeth Keifer, in 1845. She died in 1854. He lived in upper Saucon and Allen Twps., Northampton Co., Pa., and led a checkered life as farmer, stage driver and laborer. He was a member of the Ger. Ref., and later of the Ev. Ass. ch.

IV. David Fretz, born in Bucks Co., Pa., Oct. 24, 1825; died Nov. 26, 1883. Mrd. Susie, daughter of John P. Beil, Jan. 1, 1852.—David Fretz was one of the best known citizens of the Western end of the county in which he lived and died. His father came from Bucks Co., when David was yet a small boy, and settled in Allen Twp., Northampton Co., where the family has since resided. David's first employment from home was on the farm of the deceased John P. Beil, whose daughter he afterwards married, and who with their five children survive to mourn the demise of the respected husband and father. When not yet of age he entered the Mercantile establishment of Joseph and Samuel Laubach, and with the exception of a very short time spent at Fullerton, as Superintendent of the Rolling Mill at that place, and the last five years of his life spent with no regular occupation, he passed his lifetime connected with the firm above mentioned; and no fact can be mentioned, or words said that will convey more forcibly the integrity of character and devotion to the interests of others that characterized him, than the fact that he spent almost forty years with the same people. Mr. Fretz served as School director two terms, and be it said to his honor, his ideas were far beyond the prevailing sentiment of his time, and it was always a regret with him that he could not advance educational matters with the rapidity that he wished. The schools of his township owe very much to his efforts. For sixteen years he was president of the Hokendauqua Bridge Company, serving in that capacity at the time of his death, and was a director of the company almost from its foundation. He was a member of the Reformed ch. at Howertown, of which he was also an Elder. His activity in religious, political, and business matters made him known to a large circle of friends, and his unostentatious ways, and many kind acts during his life caused pangs of regret to very many on the occasion of his death. Such men when they die are a public loss. Children: Alvin, William, Mary, Peter, Emma, Clara, Alice, Thomas, David.

The number reported of children born bearing the name of Fretz, in both, the Bedminister and Tinicum Branches, is over 1400. Of this number about 800 are living. The total number of descendants reported is over 8,800 with over 6,800 living. Complete returns of all born bearing the name of Fretz, no doubt would bring the number up to over 1,500, and the total number of descendants to over 9,200.

Among the remarkable relationships, are the following: The children of Joseph F., and Barbara (Fretz) Myers, descend from two brothers, viz.: Henry Fretz, and Deacon Abraham Fretz. Henry, being the great-grandfather, and Deacon Abraham the grandfather.

The children of Abner Landis, descend from three brothers, viz.: Abraham, Christian and Jacob (sons of Weaver John Fretz). Through the father they descend from, both, Abraham, and Christian, and through the mother from Jacob, being the Sixth generation in each case from the Ancestor John Fretz.

The children of Abraham K. Funk, descend from three brothers, viz.: Christian, Abraham and Mark. Through the father they descend from Christian, and through the mother from Abraham and Mark, being the sixth generation in each case from the first Ancestor, John Fretz.

The children of Isaac Hunsberger, of Canada, descend from three brothers, viz.: Henry, John and Christian (sons of Weaver John Fretz). Through the father they descend from Henry, and through the mother from John, and Christian, being the sixth generation in the father's line of descent, and the seventh in the mother's.

THE FIRST FRETZ' FAMILY REUNION.

BY C. D. FRETZ, M. D.

The first reunion of the Fretz' family was held in the grove adjoining the old Fretz' homestead, near Bedminsterville, Pa., Sept. 15, 1888. The weather was all that could have been desired, and the descendants of those two pioneers, John and Christian Fretz, who are so numerous in this vicinity, came in large numbers. Nearly all of the eastern counties of Pennsylvania were represented, as well as the states of Ohio, Kansas, New Jersey, and the District of Columbia. Old and young came to see their relatives, who were gathered here from all quarters, to learn something about their worthy ancestors who were sleeping in the quiet churchyard, at the Deep Run Mennonite meeting-house, before the fires of the Revolutionary war were kindled, and who had built their log huts in the wilderness years before George Washington was born. More than five hundred of their descendants, registered their names, and many were there who did not register. The number present was estimated at from eight hundred to one thousand. The oldest descendant present was, Mrs. Susanna Funk, of Line Lexington, being 86 years old. She is the mother of Rev. John F. Funk, editor of the Herald of Truth, and Abraham K. Funk, Sec'y of the Mennonite Publishing Co., of Elkhart, Ind., and daughter of Martin Fretz, deceased, of Hilltown. Philip K. Fretz, of Bedminster; Henry Fretz, of Plumstead; Mrs. Elizabeth Fretz Farrren, of Doylestown; and John Henry Garges, of Washington, D. C., were among the oldest. The ministers of the Gospel were Rev. Allen M. Fretz, of Bedminster; Rev. Abraham J. Fretz, of Milton, N. J.; and Rev. Enos Loux, of Dublin.

The medical profession was represented by Dr. Harvey Kratz, of New Britain; Dr. A. F. Myers, of Blooming Glen; Dr. O. H. Fretz, of Quakertown; Dr. A. N. Fretz, of Fleetwood, Berks Co.; Dr. C. D. Fretz, of Sellersville; and Dr. John H. Fretz, of Hagersville.

The only representative of the legal profession was J. Freeman Hendricks, Esq., of Doylestown.

County Superintendent W. H. Slotter, of Doylestown represented the educational interests.

The mass was made up of the sturdy yeoman, who for a century and a half has given character to the family by their integrity and moral worth. The female portion of the family was worthily represented by the wives, sisters and mothers, and none labored more zealously than they to make the reunion a success. The latest generation was there too, and the shouts and merrymaking of the children made a cheerful accompaniment to the more staid gathering around the speaker's stand.

The committee of arrangements had made ample preparations. A table one hundred and eighty feet long had been constructed, upon which the ladies of the committee were engaged during the forenoon in transferring the contents of many well filled baskets and boxes. When the dinner hour arrived and a general invitation to all was extended by the chairman, the audience as generously responded, and not until the table had been filled and cleared three times were all the hungry satisfied. A speaker's stand had been erected upon a convenient spot, in front of which were placed benches and chairs for the audience. On one side was placed an organ, presided over by Miss Ida Moyer. The musical part of the programme was very properly left in the hands of Dr. A. F. Myers. The exercises of the forenoon were opened by singing the Coronation hymn from printed slips previously distributed through the audience. This was followed by a fervent prayer by Rev. A. J. Fretz. Rev. Allen M. Fretz, then delivered the address of welcome, after which the Secretary, Dr. C. D. Fretz, read a letter from Harrison H. Fretz, of Springfield, Missouri, regretting his absence and hoping to be able to meet them at a future reunion.

J. Freeman Hendricks, Esq., of Doylestown, addressed the audience very felicitously for some time, when the exercises of the forenoon were closed by singing that patriotic hymn, "America."

The time between the exercises was taken up in social converse, and in registering the names of the descendants present, which are to be preserved for future reference. Dr. John H. Fretz, who had been appointed as Registor, was kept busily engaged during the interval.

The afternoon exercises commenced at 2 o'clock by singing the hymn, "Come, Thou Fount of every Blessing." Rev. A. J. Fretz then delivered the Historical address, which was listened to with profound interest. He graphically depicted the surroundings when the two brothers, John and Christian Fretz, driven forth from their fatherland by cruel persecutions, sought refuge in this far off land, this wilderness, inhabited by wild beasts, and the equally dangerous Red Man. The genealogy of the different branches of the family were briefly reviewed, and other interesting facts and dates given. Dr. A. N. Fretz, of Fleetwood, who had just arrived, and who was a complete stranger in this section of the state, then gave a short talk, after which County Superintendent, Wm. H. Slotter, delivered the memorial address. After some announcements and the singing of the hymn entitled, "There's a Land that is fairer than day," the exercises were closed with the Benediction and the Doxology, "Praise God from whom all blessings flow."

THE ADDRESS OF WELCOME, DELIVERED BY REV.
ALLEN M. FRETZ, AT THE FRETZ' FAMILY
REUNION, SEPT. 15, 1888.

Dear Friends:—In appearing before you this morning to bid you welcome on this occasion, I feel that mine is a very pleasant duty indeed. It is a pleasant duty, first, because I trust that all who have gathered, and who have now assembled before me, as well as all who may still be coming and will be here later in the day, have come with a knowledge, and an assurance of the fact that they are welcome. I do therefore deem it unnecessary to enter into arguments to prove that fact. Further it is a pleasant duty for me to stand, unworthy as I may be for it, between the fathers of almost two centuries ago whose dusts now lie mingled with the earth in yonder grave yard, and their numerous descendants, of which I have the honor of being one, to bid you welcome to the first general reunion of the Fretz' Family.

Less than two centuries ago these teeming valleys, and verdant hills were mostly covered with forests, and were, with this grove in which we have assembled to-day, the home of the Red man, while the wild beasts of the forests vied with him in finding a sustenance. The remains of our ancestors lie side by side, in soil not their own by birth, and we visit their graves at times to call our memories back to their daring lives, while the ashes of the Aborigines have entered into the substance of the soil from which we reap our beautiful harvests, and obtain our sustenance. In the early years of the 18th Century came emigrants from England, Scotland and Germany, and took possession of the land in this vicinity. It was then, that, among the many others, two brothers, John and Christian Fretz, left their homes and friends in the fatherland, and for weal or woe, crossed the wide, perilous Atlantic, and came to this new world, the refuge for the oppressed and persecuted of every civilized country.

In course of time Christian became possessor of a tract of land in Tinicum Township, about three miles from here, while John made his purchase and future home on a tract in Bedminster Twp., of which the soil on which we meet to-day is a part, and which has since been continuously in the possession of his male descendants to this day. In these homes the Lord prospered them till now their descendants are no longer confined to the townships of Bedminster and Tinicum, but have increased and multiplied, and spread abroad, until now they may be found in almost every State and Territory through the length and breadth of this fair land, and in various parts of Canada as well.

This is an age of reunions, Alumni of Schools and Colleges have reunions, the veterans of the late war have reunions, families have reunions, and it is well that the descendants of these two brothers should have such a gathering also. During the brief time allotted for preparation, there were sent out to all Fretz' descendants whose names and address could be ascertained, invitations to meet with us at this reunion, to renew the memories of our ancestors, and become better acquainted with each other as offspring of a common ancestry. I do therefore, in memory of our forefathers, bid you welcome to this assembly. In behalf of the present proprietor of this grove I bid you welcome. In the name of the committee of arrangements I bid you welcome. I bid you welcome to the exercises that will be conducted here to-day, and to the common table that will be spread for dinner.

Let us make this day a day of profit, as well as a day of pleasure. While our memories are refreshed with the daring and self-denial of our ancestors, let us also take an example from their devotedness to the cause for which they forsook their native land—religious liberty, and cultivate true filial love and devotedness to one another. Above all let us lift our hearts in thankfulness to God, the giver of every good and perfect gift, for his blessings upon our ancestors, upon our immediate fathers and mothers, and upon us to the present moment. Let us unitedly pray that He may continue to be with us and bless us as He has been with our fathers and blest them.

Let us seek so to live in his fear, and to Glory in His great name, that in the great and final family reunion, we may all be privileged to participate. That we having heeded the loving invitation may be reunited with our friends gone before, and with them forever share the joys of a reunion inseparable.

VALEDICTION.

Dear Friends:—The time approaches when we must take our leave of you. But ere we part, let us review the past and seek to gain an idea of the weighty responsibility resting upon us. Since the day on which our worthy ancestors first set foot upon these sylvan shores, more than a century and a half has elapsed. To them and to us this epoch has been one of incalculable blessings, emanating from the hand of the Almighty.

Here they felled the wooded wilderness, subdued the land, and lived modest, unassuming lives as humble tillers of the soil. Here they erected their shrines and altars, and worshiped unmolested the God of their fathers. Here prosperity smiled upon them, and there was no fear in their hearts that the next edict of Royalty or the Church would condemn them as heretics worthy of death or the galleys.

Here, under the bright sun of freedom, they increased and were happy.

Although, before they came, they were fully aware of the difficulties they must encounter and overcome in clearing the forests, in contending with wild beasts, and in mollifying the no less savage Red man, yet they thought it better, far better, to leave the Land of their Nativity, a land whose soil was drenched with blood, and seek beyond the Western Wave, a clime where they might worship God according to the dictates of their own conscience, and live in peace with their fellow men. Although they took no active part in that arduous struggle for Independence, yet from the very fact that they settled here, we are indebted to them for our invaluable birth-right, American Citizenship. Our duty to their memory is as great as the duty we owe to the memory of those who directly laid the foundation of the great social, moral, religious, and political platform on which we securely rest. It is difficult for many of us to adequately appreciate the value of the many privileges we, as citizens of this "Happiest of Lands," enjoy. But if we could, for a brief time, visit the Old World and behold the condition of millions of Earth's down-trodden and oppressed, we would from our inmost hearts thank God for the comparative comfort, peace, and plenty, that we enjoy.

Let us then revere the memory of our progenitors, not forgetting the trials they had, the persecutions they suffered, and the difficulties they surmounted in that age of bigotry and intolerance. Let us cherish the precepts and obey the injunctions of our Fathers.

Let us as elder brothers warn and counsel our children against the vices and immoralities of the age, and live ourselves strict moral lives, that we convey to them no hereditary taints.

"The richest treasure mortal times afford,
Is spotless reputation."

We can leave to our children no nobler legacy than an unblemished name. "A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and loving favor rather than silver and gold." Prov. 22—1st. Its praise will reverberate down the aisles of ages, and like "Footprints in the sands of time," leave impressions that posterity will emulate long after we have been gathered to our fathers and are "Resolved to earth again."

We the people of to-day are rearing a generation who, in their turn, must man the "Ship of State." How, depends in a great measure upon the impressions they receive in childhood, the home influence, their training, the thoroughness and breadth of their education, the pattern we set for them, and their love of God. Our duties to our children are onerous and manifold. We should shoulder the burden in the spirit of paternal love rather than from necessity.

As a wild plant under the care and training of the skillful florist becomes year by year more and more perfect until it brings forth rare and beautiful flowers which are admired by all who behold them, so we should foster and train our children, that each succeeding generation may become more enlightened, more powerful for good, and more perfect in all that constitutes true manhood.

In this enlightened age of progress shall we cling to old and antiquated customs by hoarding the "Ducats," and allowing the mental faculties of our youth to become stunted and dwarfed, or shall we endeavor to keep pace with the march of Intellect, and assist them (when they need assistance most) by giving them every educational and spiritual advantage within the limits of our possibility?

It should be our aim and desire to father a race of live, intelligent, enlightened men and women who are capable of performing the duties and functions of life, rather than a tribe of puny, sickly beings whose mental growth is dwarfed and whose conception of life, its duties, and its responsibilities, is vague and uncertain. Which it will be, our lives and deeds will make known.

Trusting these thoughts may awaken an answering echo in many hearts, we say: Farewell; and God be with you.

OMISSIONS.

(Page 45). V. Manasseh Fretz, born June 28, 1824; died August 18, 1826.

V. Philip Fretz, born Apr. 7, 1828; died Feb. 3, 1829.

(Foot note Page 292). Jacob Kolb, was the son of Isaac Kolb, who was born in 1711, and died July 23, 1776. Isaac lived in Bucks Co. He was called "der Grosse Isaac, der sehr Starke man." He was the son of Jacob Kolb, who emigrated from the Palatinate in 1707, and settled in Germantown, Pa. In 1709 he moved to Skippack, and died there.

The name is differently spelled, by some it is spelled Kolb, by others Culp, but the majority spell it Kulp.

The HISTORY of the FRETZ FAMILY is completed. The traditions and personal history of our ancestors have been preserved for future generations. The names of the descendants, their births, marriages, and deaths have been recorded and other interesting matter has been added that will make it an heirloom—which should be in the hands of every descendant of the family.

The author Rev. A. J. Fretz deserves great credit for his unflagging zeal, and patient effort for a period of over three years, in gathering and compiling the enormous mass of matter that is contained in the history.

It was at first thought that the price fixed for it would be sufficient to remunerate him for the labor and expense of publication—but the matter accumulated to such an extent that it is twice the size originally intended. The price to subscribers was however left the same, although the cost of its publication was greatly increased, and now it is found that unless many more books are sold, the author will be $150 short which he has expended on the work leaving him nothing at all for his labor.

It is the object of this circular to make known these facts so that all may assist in finding means for reimbursing the author at least for the money expended.

We make this appeal especially to those who have not yet taken the book.

Send for it at once and persuade others to do likewise. Get at least one more subscriber for the History. It will be a priceless treasure to your descendants in after-years.
