

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

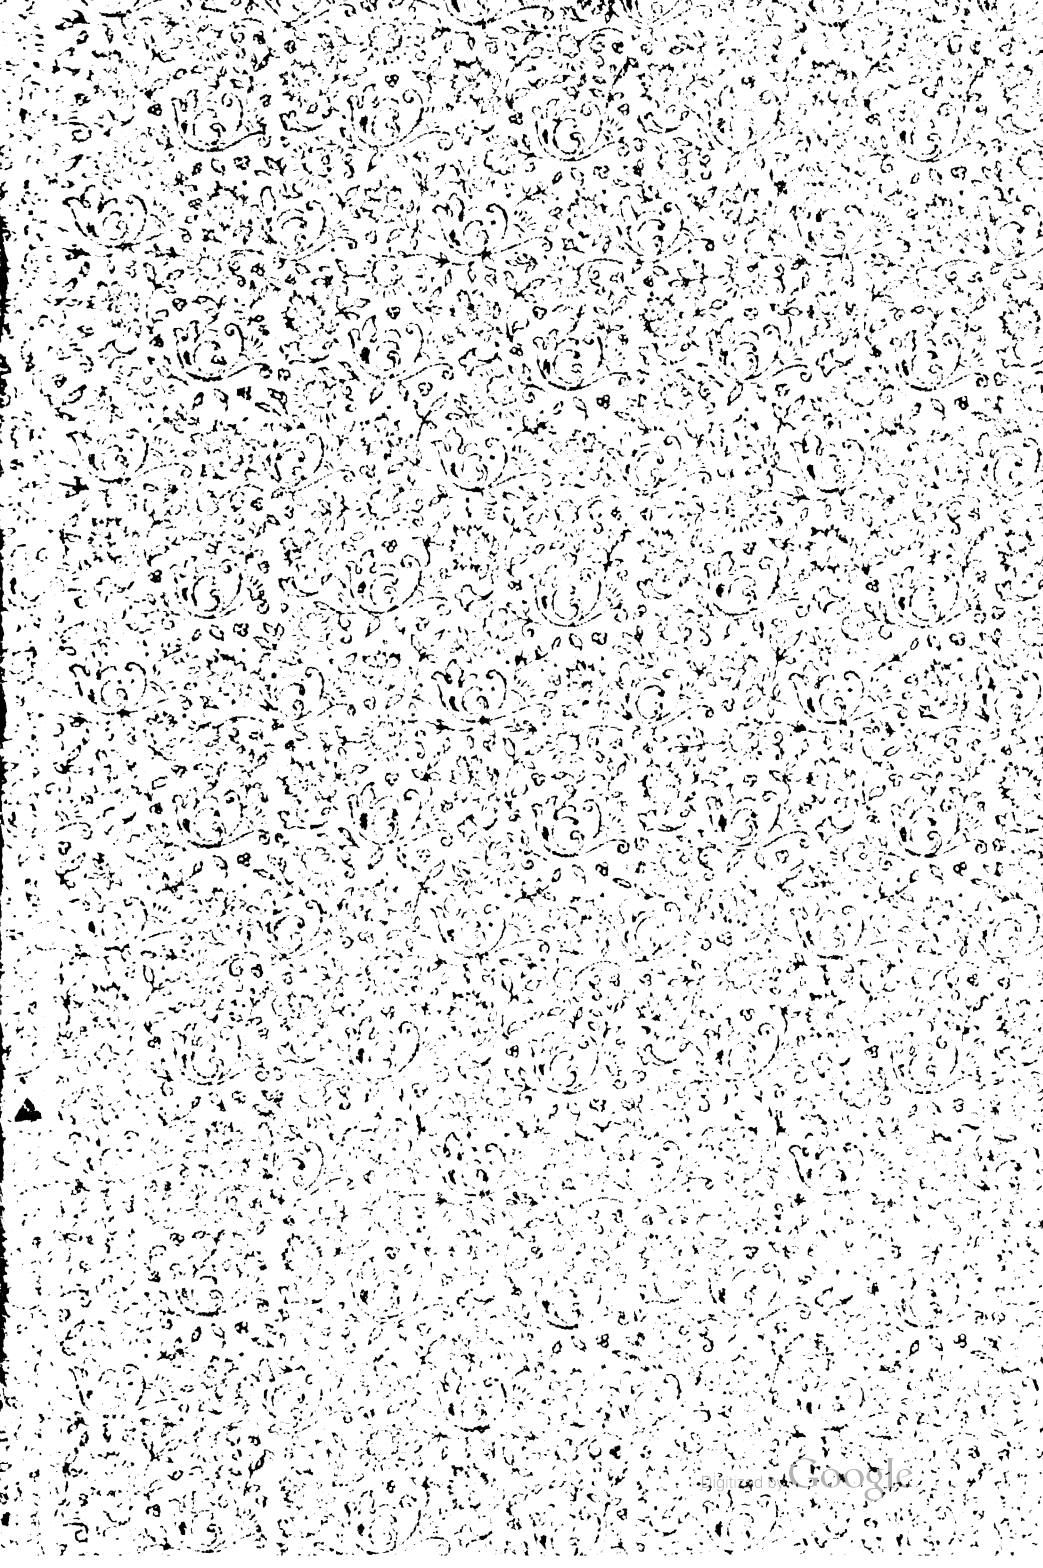

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. DEDICATED daughter of pioneer Martin Oberholtzer; mother at the time of her death of 12 children, 109 grandchildren and 108 greatgrandchildren, and whose descendants [living and dead] now number more than 2,500.

TO THE MEMORY OF

To our ancestors who bequeathed to us the glorious privilege of religious liberty, and set us examples of blameless exemplary lives.

To our parents who taught us to prize this inheritance as a priceless boon direct from the hands of God.

To our children, whom we adjure to cherish their inestimable privileges and keep unsullied the family name.

To our posterity may they emulate the worthy example of the "good and true" who have preceded them, and "honor God and his commandments.

PREFACE.

The study of genealogy is interesting and of great value. Its effects ought to be beneficial in maintaining the honor and integrity of a family extending through a long line of progenitors whose memory with loyal devotion, should be cherished, and whose virtues are worthy of emulation. It is commendable to be familiar with one's family history, and eminently proper to put it in convenient form for the benefit of future generations.

Records which preserve from oblivion the history and traditions of the lives of the progenitors and their posterity, will be of incalculable value to generations yet unborn, and will be highly prized by them.

These genealogical trees will become heirlooms in the family, and volumes will be sought for and placed in public libraries. They will also wield a powerful influence in the family; as the lives of unselfish devotion to God, conscience, and family, of the forefathers are recounted, to keep unsullied the family name.

The work has been prepared at a great sacrifice of time and labor. Had all responded promptly to communications, the work would have been far easier, more complete, and less time and expense required.

The author acknowledges himself indebted to many of the family for their kind favors received in the form of records and other data for the work, among whom we especially mention those who have very materially aided the author in the work with valuable information, they are: Dr. M. P. Overholser, of Harrisonville, Mo., Isaac F. Overholt, of Mount Pleasant, Pa., Miss Annie S. Overholt, of West Overton, Pa., W. W. Scott, of Canal Dover, Ohio., and Martin Overholt, of West Overton, Pa.

AUTHOR.

MILTON, N. J., May 20, 1901.

EXPLANATIONS.

It will be observed that all descendants are recorded in order of birth, from the oldest down to the youngest throughout the entire connections, each generation being marked consecutively from first to last.

The Roman numerals placed before each name designates the generation to which they belong, as:

- I. Martin Oberholtzer, [First Generation].
- II. Barbara Oberholtzer [Fretz], [Second Generation].
- III. John Fretz, [Third Generation].
- IV. Christian Fretz, [Fourth Generation].

Beginning with the first (I) ancestor Martin Oberholtzer, all his children are named in order of birth, then follows his daughter Barbara, (II. Generation), and her children (III. Generation) next, and so on down to the last of her descendants. Then the next child of Martin Oberholtzer, I. Generation, viz: Henry Oberholtzer is carried down in like manner to the last of his descendants, and so on through the entire connections.

When marriages occur between members of the connection the husband carries the record, and the family history will be found under his name.

To find family records see Index of Branches, in which names of all that had issue of the first, second, and third generations are given.

OLD MENNONITE CHURCH OF DEEP RUN, PA.

MARTIN OBERHOLTZER.

1. Martin Oberholtzer, the progenitor of a family numerous represented in Bucks, Montgomery and Westmoreland counties, Pa, Tuscarawas and Stark counties, O, and in other Western States, was born in 1709 in Germany, "thirty miles from Frankfort-on-the-Main," emigrated to America in the early part of the 18th century, and settled in Bucks county, Pa, probably somewhere in Bedminster township. He died April 5, 1744, in his 39th year. On November 2, 1736, he married *Agnes ——— (maiden name unknown). She was born April 18, 1713; died February 15, 1786. Both are buried at the old Mennonite graveyard at Deep Run, Bucks county, Pa. Nothing is known of the life and characteristics of Martin Oberholtzer. He, in common with others of the Mennonite faith, no doubt left the fatherland on account of religious persecution to which they were subjected in their native land, and fled to America, which had then become an asylum for the oppressed of every nation, and where, under the bright sunlight of religious freedom, they could worship God without the least restraint. Thus early emigrating to America, while the country was yet principally a vast wilderness, infested with serpents, wild beasts, and treacherous savages, he, in common with his brethren in the faith, endured all the trials and privations of pioneer settlers.

It is not known where he lived. "He never owned land in fee in Bedminster township," but may have been a tenant under William Allen, or resided in an adjoining township. It is not known where he attended church services, as he died before the Deep Run and other contiguous churches were erected, but undoubtedly in that early day the services which he attended were held in private houses. Mennonites. Children : Barbara, Henry, Maria, John, Martin.

DESCENDANTS OF BARBARA, DAUGHTER OF MARTIN OBERHOLTZER.

II. Barbara Oberholtzer, born in Bucks county, Pa, November 10, 1737; died May 8, 1823; married Christian Fretz in 1757. He was born in 1734; died May 1, 1803. She survived her husband twenty years, and it is a noteworthy fact that at the time of her death she was the mother of 12 children, and had 109 grandchildren and 103 great-grandchildren.

Christian Fretz was a son of John Fretz, who, with his brother Christian, together with a third brother (name unknown, and who died on the voyage) emigrated from near the city of Manheim, in the Grand Duchy of Baden, Germany, formerly known as the Palatinate, or Rhenish Prussia, and were of German or Swiss origin. The time of their arrival in America is not known, but was probably about 1720, earlier or later. It is said that they came to this country during what was known as the "last persecution." They were given the alternative of connecting themselves with the State Church or leaving the country, and they chose rather than to give up their religious liberty to leave the fatherland and found for themselves a home in a strange and far-off land, where they could worship God according to the dictates of their own consciences without fear or molestation.

John Fretz probably at first settled somewhere in Montgomery county, Pa, where he married Barbara Meyer, daughter of pioneer Hans Meyer, of Upper Salford township. He afterwards settled with his family in what was then Plumstead but is now Bedminster township, on what is known as the "old Fretz homestead," situated about one mile northeast of Bedminsterville, now occupied by Mahlon M Fretz. The homestead originally consisted of 230 acres of land, which John Fretz purchased of Bartholomew Longstreth in 1737 or 1738. After his death the homestead passed into the possession of his son, Christian Fretz, who lived and died there. To the homestead Christian Fretz added by purchase the tract known as the "Poor Fields" in 1793, which consisted of about 30 acres. In those early days the Indians were yet quite numerous and often quite troublesome. It is related that Christian Fretz had a very fine horse to which the Indians took a particular fancy and wanted to buy, but he would not sell it. The Indians, however, determining to get possession of the horse, came by night and stole it. Some time after he ascertained where the horse was and went to the Indian camp, arriving at evening, and seeing the horse turned out to pasture, he concealed himself until slumber had fallen upon the inhabitants of the wigwam. The Indians had a custom of going outside their wigwams and shouting and making a great noise just before retiring to frighten away the wild beasts. Knowing this to be the signal for retiring, he waited until he thought they were sound asleep and then entered the lot, secured the horse and returned home with it.

A much treasured relic, in the form of a finely woven piece of linen trousers material, woven by Christian Fretz and worn by him, is in the possession of Miss Altia Rheua Austin, a great-great-granddaughter.

Christian Fretz and wife were Mennonites and worshipped in the old stone church at Deep Run, the oldest Mennonite church in Bucks county. C: John, Agnes, Joseph, Henry, Martin, Jacob, Abraham, Isaac, Barbara, Christian, Mary, Elizabeth.

III. John Fretz, born on the old homestead in Bedminster twp, Bucks co, Pa, May 24, 1758; d Dec 20, 1804; m Anna, dau of Philip Kratz. She was born Nov 4, 1764; died Aug 4, 1813. In 1787 he bought what is called the "Poor Fields" in Bedminster twp, which he sold to his brother, Christian Fretz, in 1793. In 1790 he purchased of John Thomas a tract of 130 acres in New Britain twp, now known as the Curly mill property; this he sold to Mark Fretz in 1792. He never lived on this property. In 1792 he bought 299½ acres in Warwick twp of Richard and Willet Smith, for £1200. In 1794 he built a barn on this property, and in 1795 a stone house, which is still standing. To this property he added by various purchases until he owned 800 acres—along the Neshaminy Creek, marked on old Pennsylvania map as "Fretz Valley." Menn. C: Christian, Susan, Rachel, Barbara, Elizabeth, Mary, John, Anna, Philip (d young).

IV. Christian Fretz, b in Bedminster twp, Pa, Nov 17, 1782; died Jan 28, 1840; m Mary daughter of Ralph Stover, Apr 14, 1808. She was b Dec 1, 1787; d in New York Nov 27, 1855. He was a farmer and hotelkeeper and resided in Warwick on the old homestead. He was very successful in business and accumulated property to the extent of 13 farms. C: Ralph, John, Philip, Elizabeth, Christian, Mary.

V. Ralph Stover Fretz, b Nov 13, 1809. He sailed from the Isthmus of Panama in 1849 and landed at San Francisco, Cal, where he established a bank and amassed a fortune of about half a million dollars, which he bequeathed to relatives, except $20,000, which he willed to the United States to aid in liquidating the National debt caused by the Civil War. He was never married and died in California June 6, 1867.

V. John Fretz, b Oct 2, 1811 ; d in California June 26, 1863. He owned and operated a gold quartz mill in Calaveras co, Cal.

V. Philip K Fretz, b Sept 14, 1813 ; d on the steamship "Henry Chauncy" March 13, 1867, while on a voyage to California, and was buried in the Atlantic off the coast of North Carolina ; m Annie Stover Feb 18, 1841. He lived on a part of the old homestead in Warwick, was a farmer and one of the prominent men of the county. He was extensively engaged in contract work, and was one of the contractors to build the horse shoe curve of the Pennsylvania Railroad over the Allegheny Mountains.

He inherited from his forefathers a stern sense of duty, a loving jovial disposition, together with a keen appreciation of a harmless joke, and an unswerving directness in following that which his conscience deemed right. To write of him as he was known is to write of the day by day life of the earnest, loving Christian, who had at heart—first, his township, then his county, next his State, and finally "the best country that God Almighty ever gave to man." He was a man to feel for his neighbor in affliction, sickness and death, and to rejoice with him in prosperity. In January 1845 fire broke out in the county buildings, and if it had not been for the prompt help of the neighbors, under the lead of Mr Fretz, no doubt lives would have been lost. About the Summer of 1848-50, cholera being prevalent in many parts of the county, it broke out with great virulence at the Bucks County Almshouse, on which occasion Mr Fretz displayed heroic courage and bravery by laboring all Summer for the safety of the neighborhood until the scourge was abated.

While Mr Fretz was proprietor of the "Fretz Valley Inn" a memorable scene occurred there on January 9, 1846. On that day Mrs Fretz brought her baby Mary Catharine into the barroom, placed it in her husband's arms and said: "Papa, the baby is one year old today," to which he replied, "just take her a minute;" he then got the axe and cut down the hotel sign, and that was the ending of the "Fretz Valley Inn." Pres. C: Charles, Mary, Philip, John.

VI. Charles Augustus Fretz, b May 31, 1843; died Aug 12, 1900; m Susie Derby. Farmer, and owned a part of the old homestead of his father. No issue.

VI. Mary Catharine Fretz, b Jan 9, 1845; married Theodore P Austin* Sept 8, 1868. P O North Hancock, Me. Mr Austin employs his time looking after his woodlands and mining property. The Austin estate is situated in Hancock county, Me, and consists of several thousand acres of land, on which many improvements have been and are still being made. The property is mostly in one connected tract, and through it runs the Washington County Railroad for three and a half miles. It is called "Cuniculocus," and derives its name from a quaint drawing by a very little girl of a hand-windlass over a hole in the ground, underneath which was written, "There is millions in it," qualifying the assertion with the statement that there are many holes in the ground in Hancock county called "mines," hence the name "Cuniculocus," a place of mines.

The property consists of woodlands, mining property, farm lands, interspersed with barns for storing of crops and housing of cattle, and camps for convenience of the workmen. There are 1000 acres enclosed with wire fence as pasturage, in which deer, moose and cariboo, in a wild state, yet tame to a degree, are free to come and go at their pleasure. To them this is verily a "city of refuge." While all wild animals belong to the State, when in Cuniculocus Park they are safe, as hunters are prohibited from trespassing therein.

In the Fall of 1900 a terrible forest fire swept through the vicinity, destroying about 25,000 acres of timber land. It was the most terrific fire that has visited the place for 100 years. The area burned over in Cuniculocus Park and was between 2000 and 3000 acres. The fire threatened camps, barns and dwellings, but fortunately no buildings of any importance on Austin property were burned, and no lives lost, except of some wild animals.

In Egypt are located Cuniculocus Mills for sawing all kinds of lumber, in which is run a resaw for spoolwood, a planer, shingle and lathe machine, threshing and winnowing machine, hay and straw cutter, and feed grinder. There is also a blacksmith-shop fully equipped with tools suitable for the finest iron work. On the other side of the State road from Cuniculocus Mills is Austin Cottage, with modern conveniences, built by Merrick Thread Company, for their superintendent, and across Egypt bridge is the Austin Mansion.

Mrs Austin is a humble tiller of the soil, a law-abiding citizen, as were her progenitors, and is an uncompromising believer and worker in the cause of temperance, and a loyal advocate of the "Maine Law," as is attested by an earnest appeal sent by her to the Maine Legislature in its behalf.

Mrs Austin is a member of the Presbyterian church and Mr Austin and one daughter of the Protestant Episcopal church, of which the family are regular attendants. Dr Fretz is a graduate with honors of Lafayette College and also of the Medical Department of the University of Pennsylvania, and is a rising young physician who has had much success in his practice. He has been honored by the offer of the position of physician and professor of hygiene, anatomy and physiology, in Williams' College, at Williamstown, Mass, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Prof Luther Danna Woodbridge, M D, an eminent professor whose work has attracted much attention. Dr Fretz, however, concluded not to accept the professorship, as he has a lucrative practice at Easton, Pa, to which he prefers to give his attention.

VII. Anna Leola Fretz, b in Bucks co, Pa, Nov 1, 1875.

VII. Ralph Johnston Fretz, born Feb 25, 1878 ; died Dec 24, 1900. He prepared for college under Dr John Gosman, of Doylestown, Pa, and at the time of his death was a student of Lafayette College at Easton, Pa, class of 1901. He went home to spend his Christmas vacation, after having successfully passed his examinations. He was taken seriously ill on December 20, with acute myelitis, which failed to yield to treatment. He was a sturdy, manly, popular boy, greatly beloved by his family, collegemates and all who knew him. He was studious, fond of athletics and exemplary in his habits. Many expressions of sorrow and regret at his sudden and early demise were heard when it became known on Christmas morning that his illness had resulted fatally. He was a member of Phi Gamma Delta Society of Lafayette College. Pres.

In 1833 the whole family moved to Thoroughfare Gap, Va, where they purchased a mill and farm. Ralph, taking charge of the mill, soon built up a large and prosperous business.

In 1841 he removed from Virginia to Point Pleasant, Pa, and engaged in the manufacture of lumber, flour and feed. He took much interest in school and church affairs, doing much to improve the school, and donated the ground for the Baptist church, of which the family are members. He also donated ground from his farm for a cemetery, in which he reserved a plot for a family burying ground. In the centre of this plot he erected a handsome granite monument as a memorial of the sleeping forms within its enclosure. V. John Fretz Funk, b in Hilltown twp, Bucks co, Pa, Apr 6, 1835. He worked on the farm as soon as old enough, going to school in the Winter season until he was in his 19th year, when he commenced teaching in his native township and taught during the Winter of three successive years. He also attended school at Freeland Seminary three months during the Summer of 1855 and again in 1856. In the Spring of 1857, after closing his school at Chestnut Ridge schoolhouse, in Hilltown township, he went to Chicago, Ill, and engaged in the lumber business, in which he continued nine years. In the Winter of 1859-60 he became a member of the Mennonite church at Line Lexington, Bucks county, Pa. In January 1864 he commenced the publication, the "Herald of Truth" and "Der Herold der Wahrheit," and on the 19th of the same month married Salome, daughter of Jacob and Mary (Myers) Kratz, of Hilltown, Bucks county. On May 28, 1865, he was ordained to the ministry in the Mennonite church near Gardner, Grundy county. In April 1867 he removed to Elkhart, Ind, and established there the business house now known as the Mennonite Publishing Company, first under his own name and afterwards under the firm name of John F Funk & Bro, after having associated with himself his brother, Abraham K Funk, and continued the business under this firm name until May 14, 1875, when the Mennonite Publishing Company was organized. On June 6, 1892, he was chosen and ordained to the office of bishop over six congregations, including Elkhart, Yellow Creek, Haldeman's, Olive, Salem and Nappanee districts, in Elkhart county, Ind. V. Abraham Kratz Funk, b in Bucks co, Pa, Jan 20, 1840. His early years were spent on his father's farm. He attended school about four months usually during the Winter, and a month or two during the Summer. He commenced teaching in the public schools of the county at the age of 18, under the county superintendency of William H Johnson. He attended school at Freeland Seminary, now Collegeville, Montg co, in 1859, and Excelsior Normal Institute at Carversville, Pa, in 1861. After spending five years in farming during the Summer and teaching in Winter he went to Chicago, Ill, in the Spring of 1863 and engaged in the lumber business. After a residence of five years in Chicago he went to Elkhart, Ind, and there entered into a copartnership with his brother, John F Funk, as publishers and booksellers. During the continuance of this copartnership a number of religious works, the most important of which was the great book of Martyrs, in the German language, containing over 1100 quarto pages, and the complete works of Menno Simons, which was translated from the Holland and printed in English. In 1875 he became one of the principal stockholders in the Mennonite Publishing Company, which was then organized, and has since held the position of secretary and treasurer of that institution.

He married Annie M, dau of Joseph and Mary

(Geil) Landis, of Bucks co, Pa, Mar 11, 1872. Menn. C: (VI) Mary Maude Funk. Presby. (VI) Edna Josephine Funk. (VI) Esther Winifred Funk.

V. Jacob Silas Funk, born in Bucks co, Pa, Apr 13, 1842. He spent his early days on his father's farm and received a fair common school education. In the early part of 1862 and Summer of 1863 he spent two terms at the Excelsior Normal Institute at Carversville, Pa. He taught in the schools of his native county from 1862 to 1865. In the Spring of 1865 he went to Chicago and engaged in the lumber business. In September of this year he purchased a scholarship in the Eastman Business College of that city and took a commercial course, attending evenings only. In the Spring of 1869 he located at Chillicothe, Mo, where he engaged in the lumber business. On January 15, 1870, he was married to Annie K, daughter of Jonas Stover, of Bucks county, Pa. He afterward became connected with the Northwestern Lumber Company and continued with the firm eleven years, during which time he gained their highest esteem and respect.

He took an active part in the various civil, social and religious movements of the day, and was always ready to assist in all enterprises of public interest, and held continuously positions of responsibility and honor.

In 1869 he was elected superintendent of the Presbyterian Sunday school of Chillicothe, Mo, which position he held until 1880. In 1871 or '72 he was elected elder of the Presbyterian church at Chillicothe. He was secretary of the School Board of that city, and through his influence the beautiful new school building, costing about $50,000, was built. In 1875 he was also a member of the City Council. For three years he was correspondent of the "Globe Democrat," a Republican paper of St Louis. During the Summer of 1890 he became connected with the T B Scott Lumber Company, of Merrill, Wis. During a business trip for that company through Illinois and Indiana he was taken sick. He reached his home in Minneapolis, Minn, Sept 22, and died Oct 15, 1890. Presby. IV. Philip Fretz, b Jan 8, 1789; died April 1851; m Elizabeth Stover. She was b Nov 8, 1790; d June 8, 1870. Fuller, dyer and farmer. Aunt Betsey was a great favorite with the birds, not canaries or caged birds, but wild birds, hundreds of them, free to come and go as they pleased. She could call them to her at any time in the day. She would crack nuts in the house and say to the girl "get my bird sunbonnet," then while the audience looked out of the window she would crack more nuts on the piazza. Such a flying from the woodlands and meadows, such an alighting of birds of all sizes and colors on Aunt Betsey's head was a beautiful sight, and the old tattered sunbonnet, torn by bird claws, was an insignia of office more honorable than the helmet of some gallant knight of old. They lived on the old Fretz homestead in Bedminster. The farm, consisting of 255 acres, he inherited from his father. He was an honest, upright citizen, a conscientious christian, and much esteemed in the community in which he lived.

It is related that while working in the field one day a man rode up, and seeing his fine cows, wanted to buy one, but he did not want to sell. The man, however, insisted and asked him to set a price. He then thought that if he should ask double what the cow was worth the man would leave without buying. But contrary to his expectations the man laid down the money and drove the cow off. After the man was gone he talked the matter over with his wife and they decided it was "usury." He mounted a horse, rode after the man and gave him back half of the money, saying: "I don't want to be damned for a cow."

He and wife were members of the Mennonite church at Deep Run, of which he was a deacon for many years. C: Anna, Rebecca, Jacob, Christian, John, Isaac, Martin, Elizabeth, Barbara, Abraham.

In 1856 his parents moved to Bedminster on the farm of his grandfather Christian, where his father was born, and which, on the death of Christian, passed into the hands of Ely, but is now owned by Allen. When 16 years old Allen attended the Mennonite Seminary at Wadsworth, O. He subsequently attended one term at the Excelsior Normal Institute at Carversville, Pa, after which he taught eleven terms, working on his father's farm during the Summer months.

In the Fall of 1882 he accepted the nomination of the Republican party as a candidate for the State Legislature, but his party being in the minority in that year's campaign, he was, with the rest of the ticket, defeated.

In 1883 the Second Mennonite church at Deep Run called him to be their minister, and he was accordingly ordained by Bishop Moses Gottshall October 13, 1883, and installed pastor of the same.

Feeling the need of an English paper in the interest of his branch of the Mennonite Church, he, with the aid of Rev N B Grubb, of Philadelphia, succeeded in getting out the prospectus of "The Mennonite," which was laid before the conference and accepted as one of the periodicals of the Church, and of which he was assistant editor for many years.

On November 24, 1892, he was ordained to the office of bishop by Rev William S Gottshall, assisted by Rev J S Moyer, at Deep Run, Pa, and has the spiritual oversight as bishop of the Deep Run and Souderton churches. At the latter place a neat and substantial edifice has been erected, of which he was elected pastor in full charge February 9, 1893. He has also organized and is conducting successful missions at Perkasio and Leidytown. She was b August 31, 1813; died March 21, 1855. C: Mary, Magdalena, Catharine, Leah, Elizabeth, John, Anna, Theodore, Abraham, Martha, Edwin, Albert. Martin married for his second wife widow Margaret E Hill (nee Wintermute) Feb 14, 1857. She was b Apr 30, 1817. He was variously occupied as farmer, weaver, miller and merchant. He at first lived on a farm in Montgomery county, but later purchased 60 acres of the old Fretz homestead and some adjoining lands in Bedminster, where he built in 1838 a stone house, and subsequently a barn, tenant house and other buildings. The farm is now owned by Reuben Miller.

Mr Fretz and wife early in life became members of the old Mennonite church at Deep Run. About 1847 a division took place in that congregation and a new meetinghouse was built a short distance from the old one. At the time of the division he was a trustee in the old church, but cast his lot with the new church, and was subsequently chosen one of its first ministers, in which capacity he served about four years.

In 1853 he purchased a mill property in Sussex

co, N J, and moved thereon with his family in the Spring of 1854. In the Spring of 1857, having rented the mill property, he moved to his second wife's farm in Warren co, N J, where he engaged in farming until the Spring of 1862. Having disposed of his mill property he removed to Newton, Sussex co, where he had built a house and engaged in the commission business. About 1866 he removed to Stillwater, same county, and engaged in the merchandise business. In the Spring of 1882 he again removed to the farm in Warren co, where he died. Some years prior to his death he was ordained a ruling elder in the Presbyterian church at Stillwater. Amid all the trials and turmoils of his long and eventful life he maintained a strict integrity and died highly respected by the people of the community in which he lived, and was honored in the church. Church he subsequently united with the Methodist Episcopal Church July 4, 1868. He was licensed an exhorter October 18, 1869, and a local preacher March 7, 1870. In September 1870 he went to Ohio and attended the Mennonite Seminary at Wadsworth for one year. After visiting friends in Canada he returned East in the Fall of 1872. In the Spring of this year (1872) he was appointed pastor of Middle Smithfield charge, in Monroe and Pike counties, Pa, by Rev N Vansant, P E. His labors as pastor of this charge were attended with great success. He conducted several revival meetings and received into the churches under his care 121 converts. Since then he has served as pastor of the following charges : Stockholm, N J, 1873 ; Libertyville and Coleville, 1874 ; Unionville and Westtown, N Y, 1875. In the Fall of 1876 he attended Wyoming Seminary at Kingston, Pa. He was appointed to Hamburg and Ogdensburg in 1877 ; Hurdstown and Hopatcong in 1878-79. In 1880 he built a house and engaged in farming, which he has since followed in connection with the ministry. He has since served as pastor at the following places : Longwood and Berkshire, 1881 ; Longwood, 1882-83 ; Dodge Mine, 1884-87 ; Dodge Mine and Longwood, 1888 ; West Milford, 1889-90 ; Longwood and Dodge Mine, 1891. He was ordained deacon by Bishop John F Hurst April 2, 1882, and elder by Bishop Charles H Fowler April 1, 1888.

In August 1890 he was appointed Township Clerk and Assessor to fill vacancies. In the Spring of 1891 he received the Republican nomination for Township Clerk, was elected and re-elected at subsequent town meetings, serving in that office up to the present time (1901). In the Summer of 1888 he began compiling family histories, his first being a history of the Fretz family, this was followed by other histories in their order, viz : Kratz, Wismer, Funk, Moyer, Stover, Rosenberger, Beidler, and the present work. - V. Dr J Freeman Hendricks, born May 15, 1854 ; m Annie Garner, of Doylestown, Pa, in 1894. He received his education in the district schools : Line Lexington Seminary, Excelsior Normal Institute at Carversville, and Millersville State Normal School, from which he was graduated in the class of '76 with the degree of B E. In the Fall of 1874 he was granted a provisional certificate, was elected principal of the schools of Rittersville, Pa, where he taught several months, and was then granted a professional certificate. In the Fall of 1876 he took charge of a school at Breinigsville, Lehigh county, and the following year in East Donegal township, Lancaster county. During this time he gave some attention to public lecturing, appearing among other audiences before the Page Literary Society of Millersville. At the commencement of '78 he received from his Alma Mater the degree of M E. In the Fall of that year he was elected teacher of the intermediate department of the Doylestown borough public schools, and before the close of the term was made principal and borough superintendent.

In the Summer of 1879 he left the schoolroom and turned his face in the direction of the legal profession. He entered the office of Alfred Fackenthall, Esq, of Doylestown, and was duly registered as a student at law. In 1881 he was admitted to the Bucks County Bar, and at once entered upon the practice of law. In the Spring of 1885 the borough of Doylestown elected him Justice of the Peace by an overwhelming majority. The same year he was admitted to the Bryant Literary Union of New York, and again entered the lecture field. At the commencement of '86 Ursinus College conferred upon him the degree of M A.

He has also been closely identified with politics, and has been on the stump for his party in every campaign. He has been for five years a Notary Public, and for four years clerk of Doylestown Town Council. For three years he was chairman of the Bucks County Republican Committee. He was one of the founders of the "Republican" Printing Company and is secretary of the same. In the campaign of 1894 the Republicans of Bucks county overwhelmingly demanded his nomination for District Attorney; with much reluctance he yielded to the popular wish and accepted the nomination, and, although a bitter fight was concentrated against him, he was triumphantly elected. He has been an active worker in the Sunday school and Christian Endeavor Society. Presby. C: Grace, Robert.

V. Dr Clayton D Fretz, born on the old John Fretz homestead in Bedminster Nov 16, 1844. At the age of 6 years his mother died of a lingering illness. He remained at home with his father until the Spring of 1855, when he was hired on the farm of the late Jonas Meyers, of Bedminster, where he remained nearly two years. The following year he was employed with the late Reuben Stover, and the succeeding year with Aaron Tyson, working on the farm during the Summer and attending school at Bedminster during the Winter terms. His father, having resumed farming, he returned home in the Spring of 1859 and assisted on the farm, attending school during the Winter months at Fretz Valley.

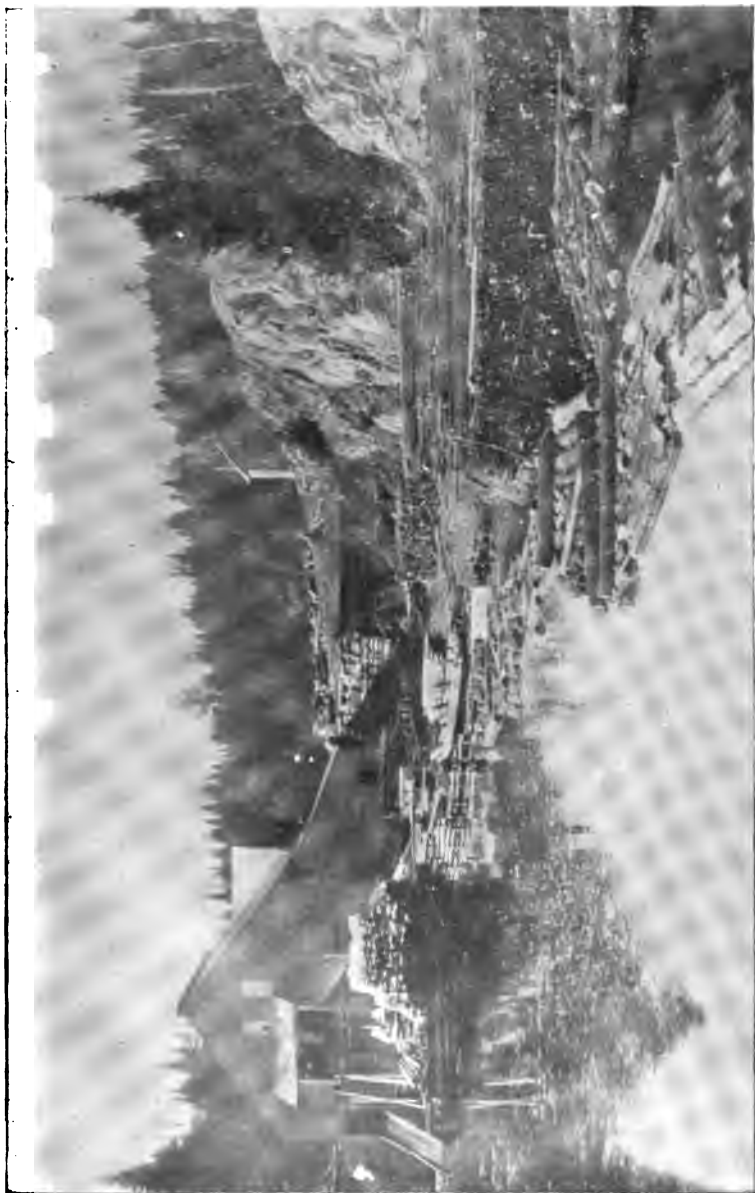

In the Spring of 1862 he attended a term at the North Wales Institute, under the principalship of A S Overholt. He also attended the Spring term of 1863 at the same institution. In the Summer of 1864 he took a course at Eastman Business College, Poughkeepsie, N Y, graduating July 12. In the Autumn of 1862 he secured a certificate of County Superintendent S S Overholt, and taught his first term of school in the "Old Octagon" schoolhouse, near Fountainville. He continued teaching for the next three years, teaching at the Monroe school, Durham, the Fretz Valley school at Bedminster, and closed his career as teacher at Crout's school, Rockhill.

During the last term he commenced reading medicine under his preceptor, Dr I S Moyer, then of Plumsteadville, Bucks county. After the close of the school he devoted all his time to medicine, and entered the office of his preceptor as a regular student, and in the Autumn of 1866 matriculated at the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania. During the succeeding two years he applied himself closely to study, attended the lectures, and graduated March 13, 1868. Ten days thereafter, on March 23, he located at Sellersville, Pa, and entered into partnership with Dr Nelson Applebach for the practice of his profession. He met with success, and in a few years succeeded in acquiring a lucrative practice and establishing himself in the confidence and esteem of the community. In the Autumn of 1871 he dissolved business partnership with Dr Nelson Applebach to enter into a life partnership with Kate B, daughter of the late Dr Charles W Everhart, of Sellersville.

The study of botany and the collection of specimens of wild plants and flowers has been one of his favorite pursuits. He has added many new and rare plants to the known flora of the county, besides having no less than 45 new to the State flora, and one new to science. In 1901 he revised the catalogue of the wild flowers of the county for General Davis' "History of Bucks County." His herbarium not only contains a complete set of the plants growing in the county, but a large majority of those growing east of the Mississippi, including not less than 10,000 specimens, and about 4000 different varieties.

Dr Fretz has been president of the Sellersville National Bank since November 1893, president of the Board of Health since its organization, and president of the Sellersville Building Company. He served as School Director for 15 years, and as deacon of the Reformed church 12 years. He is a past master of MacCalla Lodge, No 596, F and A M, of Sellersville, and also a past officer in the Odd Fellows lodge and the encampment, of the same place. He has been twice a delegate to the Republican State Convention at Harrisburg. He is a member of the Bucks County

VI. Dr Alfred E Fretz, b in Sellersville, Pa, Aug 30, 1874 ; m Frances E Rile, of Blue Bell, Pa, Oct 24, 1900. Dr Fretz attended the borough schools of his native town, graduating from the High school thereof in 1889, at the age of 15. After taking a post-graduate course of one year to prepare for teaching, he taught public school for two terms. In the Fall of 1893 he entered the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania and took a four years' course. While at college he was an active member of the Hirst Obstetrical Society, being for one year its treasurer. He graduated in medicine in 1896, and was at once elected as one of the five resident physicians to Mercy Hospital, Pittsburg, upon competitive examination. After serving there for six months he was called home to assist his father in his extensive practice at Sellersville. Since that time he has continued there and has gained a lucrative and constantly increasing practice.

Dr Fretz is a member of the Bucks County Medical Society and Pennsylvania State Medical Society, being for one year vice president of the former. For two years he was president of the Sellersville Chautauqua Assembly, and for five years president of the Irving Chautauqua Circle, the pioneer Chautauqua movement in that section. He has served as a member of the Board of Managers of the Alumni Association of the Sellersville High School for six consecutive years, being one year president of the association. He is an active member of several secret orders, being past officer of the I O O F and also in the Sons of America. He is also a member of the Odd Fellows Encampment. Ger Ref.

V. Sybilla F Fretz, b in Bedminster, Bucks co, Pa, Nov 18, 1861 ; m William L Fenton October 20, 1880. R Doylestown, Pa. Mr Fenton was employed on the North Penn Railroad for about 15 years as fireman and engineer, and was one of the Reading's most valued employees. In all his experience as a railroader he had never met with an accident previous to that which caused his death on June 15, 1892. He was running the Doylestown express with a large number of passengers at a high rate of speed, when he saw an engine on the track ahead where he had the right of way. He instantly saw that a collision was unavoidable, but that he might save the lives of the passengers by sacrificing his own, he reversed his engine to slacken speed. The crash came. Mr Fretz was a farmer and lived in Tinicum township. He also freighted goods by teams from Philadelphia to Easton, Bethlehem, Nazareth, and other points West. During his absence from home March 4, 1804, his barn was struck by lightning and burned, during which his wife Veronica displayed heroic energy in rescuing horses and cattle, and undoubtedly would have perished herself had she not at last been held back by the neighbors. One horse and 14 (some say 21) head of cattle perished. In 1815 he built what is now known as the Fretz Valley

Mill, on the Tohickon Creek, and operated same. He succeeded in business and owned nearly 300 acres of land. Menns.

At the age of 18 he learned the shoemaking trade, and, as was the custom, went from house to house carrying his "kit" with him. At the age of 21 he engaged in the milling business, which he followed many years.

About 1818 he, in company with Samuel, son of "lame" Anthony Fretz, and "Velvet" Henry Fretz, made a trip to Canada to visit friends and relatives there. The entire trip was made on foot. He was a member of the old Mennonite Church before marriage, and after the division he and wife joined the second Mennonite church at Deep Run, of which he served as trustee for some time, and was the second sexton of the church, which position he held for 22 years. VI. Kate C Rosenberger, b Dec 8, 1867 ; d Sept 22, 1895 ; m Isaiah R Haldeman Oct 5, 1890. Mr Haldeman attended the public schools until 14 years of age, when he entered the Lansdale (Pa) " Reporter " office to learn the art of printing. Four years later, or after serving an apprenticeship, he was employed on the Harleysville " News " (then in its infancy) and later became editor. After being employed on that paper for over three years he took a position as foreman on the Ambler (Pa) " Gazette." Later he was employed on the Philadelphia " Press," but lost his position by a strike of the Typographical Union in that office one year later. He was again employed in the Harleysville " News " office as foreman, the paper then being owned by the A E Dambly Estate, and about one year later, on May 8, 1892, purchased the establishment from the estate, which he now successfully conducts.

He was also the founder of the Harleysville and Hatfield Beneficial Societies, and was elected treasure of the former in 1894.

Mr. Haldeman is a self-made man in every sense that the word applies. He started in life with nothing but good health and plenty of ambition, and he worked himself up by careful attention to every detail of business, both as an employee and an employer. He saved his money which he invested in a loan association until he possessed $300. This formed the nucleus of his capital with which he started in the newspaper business.

After entering the newspaper business he took an active part in local politics, and his paper was the only one in Montgomery county that came out for Quay in his memorable fight in 1895 for control of the State Republican organization at a time when the Senator's fight was a seemingly hopeless one.

Mr. Haldeman was elected an Alternate Delegate from the Seventh Congressional District, to the Republican National Convention held at St. Louis in 1896, and was elected a member of the County Committee and appointed on the Executive Committee during the same campaign. He is still, (1899) a member of the Executive Committee. In 1900, he was nominated by the Republicans, of Montgomery county, as their candidate for a member of the state Legislature, and was triumphantly elected. The following year he was nominated for sheriff, receiving the highest vote in the County, but was defeated by a Fusion ticket. C:

DESCENDANTS OF HENRY OBERHOLTZER,
SON OF MARTIN OBERHOLTZER.

II. Henry Oberholtzer, b in Bucks Co., Pa., Feb 5, 1739; d in Westmoreland Co., Pa., 1813; m *Anna Beitler Jan 3, 1765. She was b Mar 24, 1745; d Apr 5, 1835. The homestead of Henry "Overhold," in Bucks Co., was a tract of 175 acres and 44 perches at Deep Run in Bedminister township, adjoining the Mennonite Church property, which William Allen conveyed to Abraham Black (Swartz) May 10, 1762. Abraham Black assigned all his rights to above deed Sept 20, 1762, to Anges Nash (d), widow of William Nash, of Bedminister, and mother of Henry Oberholtzer by her first husband, Martin Oberholtzer. On Nov 7, 1774, Anges Nash conveyed the homestead to her son, Henry "Overhold," for £, 357, 17 shillings and 2 pence. On Apr 25, 1800, Henry "Overhold" and wife Anna sold the homestead to Andrew Loux for the sum of £, 1500, gold and silver money.

The old homestead is now owned and occupied by Samuel Leatherman.

After disposing of his property in Bucks County, Henry Overholt with his family, emigrated to West-

He also has interests in Silver mines in Colorado. He is an accurate business man, there are few better. In some business matter a lawyer was heard to say, "if A. S. R. Overholt has counted it we need not look it over." He was universally liked by his employees, one of whom remarked that he would rather work for him than any one he had ever known, as he always knows what he wants to do before he gives his orders to his men. He is kind hearted and generous to all. He with his twin brother John served for three years in the Civil War, enlisted Aug 1862, in Co. A. 15th, P. V. C. mustered out at Nashville, Tenn., as first Sergeant June 1865. He is the present occupant of the old Homestead, where his great grandfather Henry Overholt lived. C: Ralph, Clyde.

Overholt, still own and occupy the farm purchased by his father 90 years ago. It joins the old original Overholt homestead. Mr. Overholt is a model man although he has never connected him-self with any church, but has lived an up-right and conscientious life. He has always taken great pleasure in hunting, and during his life time has killed nineteen wild turkeys; although old in years, he has never grown so in disposition. He has a good memory, and can give dates and occurances from childhood, and in his day was one of the best spellers in his township. In politics, he is an ardent Republican. S.

III. Henry Oberholtzer, b in Bucks Co, Pa, July 10, 1779. Moved to Westm'd Co, Pa, with his parents. In 1809 he returned to Bucks Co, to be married to a Miss Myers, but before the day set for the marriage he was kicked by a horse, from the effects of which he died Apr 10, 1809. His funeral services were held at the house of his uncle Martin Oberholtzer, (husband of his aunt Elizabeth Nash), where he died. * Jacob Oberholtzer preached at the house and Jacob Gross at the Deep Run meeting house where he was buried.

* It is possible that the name is wrong, and should be Abraham, not Jacob, as no Jacob Oberholtzer is known to have been a minister at Deep Run. However, in a letter written in German at the time by Joseph Nash, to Mr. Oberholtzer's father in Westm'd Co., the name was written Jacob Oberholtzer.

was b in Fayette Co, Pa, July 13, 1791; d at West Overton, Pa, Nov 1874. Abraham Overholt learned the weaving trade in Bucks Co, Pa, and while his brothers cleared the land he wrought at the loom for the family, and the wide about neighborhood. In 1810 he and his brother Christian, purchased the homestead farm, and a couple of years later he bought his brother's interest in the farm. The purchase included a log distillery having the capacity of 3 or 4 bushels of grain per day.

About 1834 he built a brick flouring mill, in order to do his own chopping for the distillery. This distillery and mill were kept running until 1859, when both were taken down, and on their site was erected a large structure comprising mill and distillery, the dimensions of which were 63 x 100 feet and six stories in hight. The capacity of the distillery 200 bushels per day, that of the mill 50 barrels of flour. A short time before rebuilding, his son, Henry S. Overholt purchased a half interest in the farm, distillery and mill.

Abraham Overholt was the first discoverer of coal in that portion of Westmoreland Co., and was the first to use it. Prior to its discovery coal was brought from the other side of the mountain to the blacksmith shops, and which it was found stood over the finest strata of coal. Mr. Overholt used to exhibit his coal mines in an early day as a curiosity to visiting strangers from the east. He was a business man as distinguished for the order with which he conducted his affairs, for his firmness in decissions, his promptness, great energy and punctuality. He was never known to disappoint a creditor seeking payment. He was gentle to employees and straight forward in all his dealings. He was a public spirited man, and one of the earliest and most ardent to advocate the present school system of the State.

He was very successful in business, and his estate paid out to the heirs about $350,000. Menn. C: Henry, Anna, Jacob, Abraham, Elizabeth, Martin, Christian, John.

V. Abraham O. Tinstman, b in Westm'd Co, Pa, Sept 13, 1834; m Harriet Cornelia Markle, daughter of Gen., C. P. Markle of Westm'd Co, Pa, July 1, 1875. P O Turtle Creek, Pa. Mr. Tinstman was reared on the farm where the Emma Mine Coke Works are now located. He received a common school education and remained on the farm until 25 years of age, when he went to Broad Ford, Pa, to take charge of the mill, distillery and land of his maternal grandfather, Abraham Overholt. In 1864 he became a partner with his grandfather in the firm A. Overholt & Co., and continued to manage this Company's affairs until the death of the latter. Five years previous to this event, Mr. Tinstman and Joseph Rist had bought 600 acres of coal land near Broad Ford, and in 1868, in partnership with Col. A.S.M. Morgan they opened what is now called the Morgan Mines and engaged exclusively in making Coke. Morgan & Co. then controlled almost the entire Coke business of this region and built a mile of railroad to secure an outlet for their product. In 1870 Mr. Tinstman organized and built the Mt. Pleasant and Broad Ford Railroad connecting with the Pittsburg and Connellsville R. R. at Broad Ford. He continued its President until he sold the entire road to the B. & O., R. R. six years later. This the beginning of the development of the Coke business in Westm'd Co.

In 1871 he formed another Coke Company and associated with him Messrs Joseph Rist and H. C. Frick, under the firm name of H. C. Frick and Co., thus establishing the great H. C. Frick Coke Co., and this firm built 200 Coke ovens now known as the "Novelty" and Henry Clay Works. In 1872 Morgan & Co., bought 400 acres of coal land at Latrobe, and Mr. Tinstman also made extensive purchases of other coal tracts which led to the loss of his entire possessions in the panic of 1873. He set bravely to work to retrieve his losses, and in 1878 and 1880 was enabled to purchase options on coal lands in the Connellsville region. In 1880 he sold 3,500 acres at a good profit and soon bought a half interest in the Rising Sun Coke Works. About this time he established the firm of A. O. Tinstman & Co., in Pittsburg and was highly successful in his operations. In 1881 he acquired Mt. Braddock and Pennsville Coke works, and three years later sold all his coke interests. For the last 10 years he has been engaged in the purchase of coal lands in Western Pennsylvania and West Virginia. In 1879 was built the fine mansion which Mr. Tinstman and family now occupy. The grounds include the site where once stood a pioneer's log cabin which gave shelter to George Washington after his raft had capsized in the Allegheny on one of his exploring expeditions. Presby. III. Christian Overholt, b in Bucks Co, Pa, July 18, 1786; d in Hancock Co, Ohio, Jan 11, 1868; m Elizabeth Stauffer Nov 1811. She was b Jan 19, 1794; d Nov 21, 1887. He followed at different times the occupation of farming and distilling. In the autumn of 1858, he in company with his son, Abraham, left Westm'd Co, Pa, and located at Fostoria, Seneca Co, Ohio, where the latter had previously purchased a farm, and with whom he made his home during the remaining years of his life. In disposition he was impulsive and quick to speak, but kind hearted and generous to a fault. His wife survived him nearly twenty years. She was a sister to his brother Abraham Overholt's wife, and a daughter of Rev. John and Elizabeth Stauffer.

Christian Overholt and his wife were faithful members of the Mennonite church, and after moving to the State of Ohio, they drove a distance of twelve miles to attend worship in a church of their denomination. To the grandchildren, one of the most precious memories were of their grandmother. Her son and his wife were untiring in their devotion to her, while her presence in their home was ever like a gracious benediction. It was often said of her, "I have never seen mother out of patience, nor heard her utter one unkind word." She retained full possession of her mental faculties until her death at the age of nearly ninety four years. C: Abraham, Sarah, Henry, Anna, Elizabeth, Christian.

V. Elizabeth Overholt, b in Westm'd Co, Pa, Aug 5, 1842; m Dr. Jacob A. Shesler Mar 15, 1865. P O San Jose, Calif.

Dr. Jacob A. Shesler, was b in Fairfield Co, O, Aug 30, 1836. In 1852 he left home with a company of young men for California, accross the "Plains." Many incidents of his journey for want of space must be passed over, such as cremation of an Indian Chief, war dance by 2000 Indians, murder, capture, trial and execution of murderers, a narrow escape from a pack of wolves, etc., etc. He arrived safe in Butte Co, in Sept, without a dime in his pocket. Here he hired out to a mining company, at $4.00 per day, and subsequently became one of the owners of the mine

His life struggle now began with its alternation of successes and failures. At one time his mining property in Sierra Co, was estimated to be worth from $80,000 to $100,000, but by trusting to the honesty of a "friend," he became involved in a law suit, which cost him over $3000 and the loss of all his mining property.

In 1856 he took an active part in the formation of the republican party in Sierra Co., and became its first candidate for the Legislature from the 17th, Judicial Dist., the following year. He was one of the delegates from Sierra Co., to the First Republican State Convention ever held in California, at Sacramento, Feb 16, 1860, to elect delegates to the National Republican Convention, which nominated Abraham Lincoln for President.

On Aug 11, 1860, he started for his old Ohio home, arriving there in Sept. In 1863 he enlisted in the 49th., O. V. V. I., served till after the close of the war.

In 1874 he began the study of Medicine, graduated from Physio-Med., College, Cincinnati, O, Mar 1877. After marriage they moved to Fostoria, O, and in 1881, to San Jose, Cal., where they still reside practicing his profession as a "Specialist." Mrs. S. Christian ch. C: Ada, Minnie, Walter.

VI. Minnie Shesler, b Dec 4, 1867. She fell a victim to one of the most atrocious crimes of the 19th, century, in which the McGlincy family near Campbell Station, Santa Clara Co, Cal., with his step-son James Wells, Robert Briscoe, an employee, and Minnie Shesler, six in all, were murdered in cold blood by James C. Dunham, the son-in-law of Mr. McGlincy.

During the absence of the male members of the family at night, James C. Dunham murdered Mrs. McGlincy, and his wife, the latter sick in bed from confinement. He murdered his wife by breaking her neck across the side-board of her bed. Miss Minnie Shesler (who was employed to superintend in the cooking department of the family), occupied an adjoining room, and no doubt heard the struggle and came into the room to see what was wrong, and was stricken down with an ax, the sharp edge striking cross-ways just back of her forehead, from which death must have been instantaneous. There were four other wounds made, each penetrating the brain, either of which would have proved fatal. She was found lying in a large pool of blood beside the bed of Mrs. Dunham. The murderer then waited the return of the other members of the family when he finished his bloody work.

Minnie Shesler was a member of the Christian ch, of the Daughters of Veterans, and other societies.

II. Martin Overholt, b in Bucks Co, Pa, Dec 20, 1743; d in Westm'd Co, Pa, Mar 1811; m * Esther Fretz. She was b in Bucks Co, Pa, about 1748; d in Tuscarawas Co, Ohio Feb 1813.

They lived in early life in Bucks Co, Pa, within half a mile of the Delaware River. It is said that in the time of the Revolution, not being friendly to the war, and being loyal to the King, that he with others of the family went to Canada, but not liking the climate he returned, and emigrated to Western Pennsylvania, settling at Alverton in Westm'd Co, on the farm now owned and occupied by Mrs. Agnes (Stauffer) Fox, a great grand-daughter.

About 1810 Martin Overholt made a trip to Ohio and selected land in Coshocton and Tuscarawas Counties, intending to move there, but six weeks before he and his family were ready to start, "Kings evil" (cancer), came on his neck from which he bled three days and nights, causing his death. He made his will Jan 14, 1811, recorded Mar 2, 1811. Gives his wife 1200 lbs; bequests to children: Martin, Christian, Henry, Isaac, Abraham, Elizabeth Wel-dy, Joseph, Agnes Stauffer, Barbara Burchfield, Mary Noffzinger, Magdalena Mumaw, Esther, Sarah and Anna.

 In 1867 he sold his farm in Westmoreland Co, Pa, and settled on a large farm in Nemaha Co, Kan. Here he was for two terms chairman of the Board of county Commissioners, and during the ravages of the "grasshoppers" when many poor people were trying to support their families and keep their homesteads—Mr. Stauffer fought the R R Bonds in that county and saved it from paying $125,000 of bonds enabling it to get out of debt, and become one of the wealthiest counties in the State. In 1885 he moved to Pottawatomie Co, where he remained until his death.

He died at Manhattan, Kan, where he had gone to receive medical treatment for one of his eyes. Shortly after retiring for the night he was taken suddenly with heart trouble and died in a short time. His daughter, Miss Ella, was the only one of the family with him when he died.

"Mr. Stauffer, all through life, exhibited traits of character and a spirit of social deportment which attracted scores of men women and children to him as earnest confiding friends, whom no doubt will deck his eternal brow with wreaths of undying love." He was firm and confiding in his belief of divine power in Almighty God, and all through the many adversities he encountered through life, he never lost sight of his obligations to God. This fact was clearly shown only a few moments before he closed his eyes in death, when he knelt beside his bed in the presence of his daughter and there offered prayer to God, and there committed himself to His care. He was a devoted husband, a kind father, loved and respected by all. In his death his devoted wife and children realize that a vacancy in the family circle has been made that no earthly friend can fill. Farmer, later traveling salesman, ch of God. III. Barbara Overholt, b in Bucks Co, Pa, about 1775-6; d in Tuscarawas Co, Ohio, Jan 16, 1813; aged 37 yrs; m Rev. Mathias Burchfield. He d in Tuscarawas Co, O. Mar 16, 1822. They were married in Westmoreland Co, Pa, and removed to Ohio about the time her mother came. He was a farmer, but became an United Brethren preacher, preaching in German, and had a "meeting house" on his own farm, which remained until a few years ago. His only living daughter by marriage with Barbara Overholt, is widow Sarah Adams, now past 90 years old. She is in good health and active, going 150 miles by rail in the winter of 1900 to visit a daughter.

The following inscriptions are upon the tomb stone in the same rural cemetery (on the Burchfield farm), where widow Esther Fretz Overholt was buried—viz:

OUR FATHER AND MOTHER.

The subject of this sketch, up to the age of 16 years received a common school education. At that date he began clerking in a drug store, getting only a few months more of schooling at odd times. Two years were spent in the drug business and two at learning the printing trade; and in the winter of 1859 he taught a country school and continued the following summer and the next winter at the same place. Although he had an enrollment of over 60 scholars, he taught there the three terms without ever striking a scholar. He was employed for the school for the winter of 1861, but after teaching through the first ten days of October, resigned and enlisted as a private of Co G 16, O V I. He marched with his regiment through eastern Kentucky to Cumberland Gap, Tenn, where they were besieged by an overwhelming force under Bragg, and finally had to retreat to the Ohio river, and were sent into West Virginia, and from there to the Vicksburg stronghold. At that point he was discharged for a heart ailment contracted on the march. During these 17 months he was much of the time on detail as druggist of the regiment or brigade.

Arriving at home Apr 1, 1863, he remained till June, when he accepted the position of contract druggist at Dennison U S Hospital, which at that time contained nearly 3000 sick and wounded soldiers.

In November of that year he was again mustered into the service, as Hospital Steward 12, U S Inf and was put in charge of the entire drug commissary and other departments of the Hospital, and so remained till the close of the war, being mustered out upon his own application Dec 19, 1865.

During the summer of 1866, he was captain of a canal boat plying between his native town and Cleveland, some 90 miles on the Ohio Canal. In 1867 he purchased a drug store, and continued at that business for several years. In 1868 he was appointed local agent for the Union Express Co, which was succeeded by the American Express. He ran this in connection with the drug business; but having been made Route Agent for the Company, sold out his drug interest. After ten years with the Express Companies, in 1879 he bought a half interest in the Iron Valley Reporter, located in his home town, and the following spring purchased the remainder, and has been continuously editor and proprietor up to the date of this writing, August 30, 1901.

In June 1898 he received from President McKinley the appointment of Postmaster, and during his 3 years of service the office has been advanced from third to second class, and the salary increased from $1800 to $2200, and the office this year has reached the point of free delivery. VI. Edith Scott, b at Canal Dover, O, Mar 10, 1876; m John E. Joss June 20, 1899. Mrs. Joss received a thorough common school education, graduating at the age of 16 years. Six months later she was chosen to fill a vacancy, and besides completing that, taught five successive years, resigning her trust to become the wife of John E. Joss, a prominent optician and jeweler of New Philadelphia, O.

After a wedding tour to Switzerland to visit ancestors of the groom, and a jaunt through France, England, and Scotland, they returned; The principal incident of the voyage having been that their steamship crashed into an ice berg during a dense fog off the coast of Newfoundland, and they were two days adrift upon the ocean.

During the trip Mrs. Joss wrote a series of very interesting letters to the home paper, descriptive of incidents and scenery, which were highly appreciated.

In early life they were respected members of the Lutheran church, in which Mr. Mumma was a leader in the choir for about 20 years. In Mrs. Mumma's religious experience, it is related when she was invited to anxious seat, she was much affected, and wept—aloud and cried for mercy. The minister came to her and said, "hush sister, not so loud," but her cries for mercy were soon renewed and the minister came to her again and said, "hush sister, not so loud, arise the Lord has blest you." She, however, was never satisfied with her conversion. About 20 years later, at a Union meeting of several denominations, she and her husband were brought under deep conviction, and at about twelve o'clock at night Mrs. Mumma got up out of bed, and said to her husband, "get up and get on your knees, for if we don't repent we will both go to hell." She was soon converted, and the praising God, aroused all in the house out of bed. Prior to this they only had time to have family prayers once a week on Sunday evening, but ever thereafter they found time twice a day to meet at the family altar. U B ch. V. Dr. Abraham J. Overholt, b in Tuscarawas Co, Ohio, Aug 16, 1839; m Mary T. Franklin Aug 17, 1865. P O Salida, Colo. In 1852 his parents removed to Christian Co, Ill, near Taylorsville. Here he remained until 1860, working on the farm. On the 31, of May, 1860, he arrived in Denver, having walked across the plains from Fort Leavenworth, Kan. From Denver he walked to Mt. Vernon, Colo, and secured employment from a Mr. Morrison, whom he helped to erect a stone house. Later he wandered over to Idaho Springs, where he engaged in placer mining. In July he started for California Gulch, got lost on the way, but finally reached his destination and went to work mining. In Sept he returned to Idaho Springs, and two weeks later for his eastern home, remaining there until Aug 1861. The doctor endeavored to enlist first in the infantry regiment and then in the cavalry, but was rejected. He finally secured employment as steward with the Third Illinois Cavalry and accompanied them to Benton Barracks, St. Louis. Here he tried to enlist in the artillery and navy, but again failed. He was with the regiment at Jefferson City, Springfield, and Rolla, Mo. In March 1862, they were in the battle of Pea Ridge, Ark. The doctor was never mustered in, but performed the duties of a private soldier just the same. He was also private dispatch carrier for the colonel of his regiment. After the battle of Pea Ridge he returned home, taught school the next winter and then went to Bloomington, Ill., and attended the State Normal University for six months. He worked on a farm and taught school in the winter until 1872, when he entered Rush Medical college, Chicago, and at the close of the term he located in Loami, Ill., where he was engaged in the active practice of medicine until 1880. In that year he removed with his family to Maysville, Colo, and has been an active and successful practitioner ever since.

Mrs. Welty was a noble woman, very sociable, enjoyed company and was fond of playing jokes. She was much esteemed by all that knew her. During her husband's absence at night when off on a journey—bears and wolves would be her nightly visitors, and with only a shawl for a door, they would push it aside and walk to her bed which would waken her, and then came the battle for the right of property. She had frequently been treed by wolves. She was an expert climber. C: Esther, John, Isaac, Eliza, Mary.

A somewhat amusing incident is related of Mr. Overholt, that on a certain occasion he took a grist to the mill and wished it ground at once, so he could take it home with him, but the millers did not want to do it, and on their declining, Mr. Overholt said: "If you don't grind it right away, I will put something in the mill that has eyes as big as pewter plates." Suffice it to say his grist was ground at once. Farmer, Ev Ass'n. C: Abraham, Elizabeth, Jonas, Joseph, John, Jacob, Margaret, Mary, Isaac.

III. Anna Overholt, b Apr 8, 1802; d Jan 15, 1839; aged 36 years. She was the youngest and her mother was 55 years old when Anna was born. M Gabriel Weimer in 1822. He was b in Somerset Co, Pa, May 13, 1801; d near Wilmot, Stark Co, Ohio, Feb 12, 1876. In 1812 his father was found dead in the field behind the plow. In the spring of 1815 the family removed to Stark Co, Ohio, and in the fall he entered as an apprentice to the Saddler trade in Steubenville, O, where he remained two years, and finished his trade at New Philadelphia. After marriage he settled in Canal Dover, casting his first vote for Jackson. He held various township offices for over 20 years. In 1854 he was elected County Infirmary Director on the Free Social ticket by 1300 majority—was urged to be a candidate for the Legislature, but refused, having great aversion to public office. He was a firm opposer of slavery, and lived to rejoice over its downfall. He was a great friend of Education, giving his children a liberal course of instruction. He was one of the three trustees of Muskingum Conference of Otterbein University.

He joined the United Brethren church and remained a faithful member for over 50 years up to the time of his death. His house was a welcome home for the weary itinerant for many years. He had resided on the farm where he died for 51 years. He was a kind husband, father, and neighbor, and a most liberal patron of the church, having assisted in the building of many churches, and gave largely to church benevolences. His religious views were firm and clear, his personal enjoyments were fresh and vigorous; having a clear evidence of his acceptance with Christ, in his long experience, and held tenaciously to this hope to the end. Mr. Stall emigrated with his parents to near Beach City, Stark Co, Ohio, in 1833. In 1852 they moved to Indian Village, Noble Co, Ind, where he and his wife took an active part in building up a United Brethren Society in that village. In 1870 they emigrated to Kansas and settled upon the the farm where he died. In 1875 the people of the 37th district honored him by choosing him as their representative in the State Legislature as a republican, where he made such a prominest record that he was returned to serve a second term.

On his death bed he gave strong evidence that he was prepared to die, and had no fear of death. His last words were: "Higher, higher, higher." His name by which he was familiarly known—Honest John Stall, was fairly earned. As a citizen he was a patriot, as a neighbor hospitable, and as a father, husband and friend, he was always kind and gentle. He was an honored member of the A. F. A. M. under whose auspices his funeral services were conducted. The funeral procession was long and imposing, 122 vehicles being in line.

After moving to Kansas the family united with the Presbyterian ch. C: Myra, David, Mattie, Lorin, Ida, Charles.

On the 6 of June, 1878, the family passed through a very exciting experience. They were then living on a farm in Neosho Co, Kan. About three o'clock on that June afternoon they saw a storm cloud coming up, but did not see that it partook of the nature of a cyclone. Mr. Cole was working in the field at the time, but came to the house. The doors and windows were closed when the wind began to blow pretty hard and Mrs. Cole becoming alarmed took her sleeping baby off the bed in her arms and suggested to her husband that they go into the cellar, to which he replied: "Don't fear, we are all right;" when at that moment the house began to break away from its foundation and was lifted in the air and deposited upside down on the ground about 40 feet distant as a mass of ruins. Mr. and Mrs. Cole crawled from the wreck, badly bruised and cut by the broken timbers, but no bones broken. After crawling from the wreck, Mrs. Cole heard her baby crying and found it near where the house had stood. The baby (then six months old) was in its mother's arms when the house began to go, but how or when they became separated is a mystery. The baby escaped with only a scratch across the instep of its foot. They rebuilt the house on the same spot, where it still stands.

JACOB OBERHOLTZER OF BEDMINSTER AND PLUMSTEAD TWP.

I. Jacob Oberholtzer, (d); m Barbara —. He was a pioneer settler of Bucks Co, Pa, having emigrated from Germany in the early part of the 18th century. His land consisting of 185 acres in Bedminster and Plumstead townships he purchased from Rebecca and Thos. Leech, the deed bearing date May 17, 1749. After the death of Jacob Oberholtzer the homestead passed into the hands of his son Abraham, by deed from the heirs bearing date Mar 4, 1763. The homestead later was divided into two equal parts, and continued in the Overholt name until the death of the late Abraham Overholt, who died in Aug 1899 at the advanced age of over 95 years, and lived on the old homestead property, which after his death was sold to Amos Fretz, who again sold it to Urias Smell the present owner. The other part was devised to Isaac Overholt, who erected the buildings thereon, and is still owned and occupied by his son Abraham S. Overholt.

The pioneer Jacob Oberholtzer made his will in writing June 28, 1760. Farmer, Menn; buried at Deep Run. C: Jacob, Abraham, Ann, Elizabeth, Mary, Barbara, Hester, Magdalena, Sarah.

II. Jacob Overholt, (d); m Esther Leatherman. Farmer in Bedminster near the village of Bedminster-ville, where he purchased his land from William Allen in 1763, consisting of 152 acres 95 perches. In 1779 he built a log house, which is still standing though it has since been weather boarded over and two additions built to it.

Jacob Overholt made his will in writing June 8, 1805. Menn. C: Elizabeth, Barbara, Jacob, Magdalena, Esther.

VALEDICTION.

DEAR FRIENDS:— As we reach the close of this volume, and ere we lay down our pen, we wish to add a few parting words commendatory of our progenitors, whose names and deeds are written in this book. To them we owe a debt of gratitude, for their unflinching courage in the performance of duty, and devotion to God. Nearly two centuries ago, deprived of the blessings of religious liberty to worship God in a manner acceptable to themselves in the "fatherland," they fled across the ocean to the shores of our own beloved America, then a vast wilderness. Here they carved out their homes, subdued the land, and lived modest unassuming lives, as humble tillers of the soil. In their new homes they remembered the God of their fathers, and from their humble fire-sides went up grateful songs of praise to the God of every blessing, while from the family altars ascended thanksgivings from truly grateful hearts in recognition of God's beautiful mercies and kindly leadings. Here they erected their shrines and altars, and worshiped unmolested the God of all the earth. Within these templed walls erected in the long ago, their voices were heard in the preached word, in testimony, in hearty soul inspiring songs of praise, and faithful to the last, these servants of God heard the higher summons and their voices hushed in the silence of death, they went up to their crowns of glory and are now waiting for you and me. Blessed be their memory.

Dear reader, let us take counsel of the fathers. Consider the motives that led them to leave their beloved homes in the far-off fatherland, to brave the storms and perils of the ocean for a wilderness home on these shores, that it was not simply to better their conditions in temporal affairs of this life, but as followers of Jesus, the Salvation of their souls, and freedom from religious oppression for themselves and their off-spring were the paramount motives.

Mark their unselfish devotion to duty amid the persecutions in the old world and the trials and privations of pioneer life in this new world that made it possible for us to enjoy the freedom, blessings and comforts of the greatest country God ever gave to man. May we ever bless their memory for their simple, childlike, unyielding faith in God, and the world's Redeemer. They laid deep and firm the foundations of their faith in the Crucified One. They fought well the battles of life, and lived in peace with all mankind. And thus they have passed on to their rewards. May their self-denying, Godly lives and examples rest with benediction power upon us, while we bide our time, and follow in their footsteps, preserving unsullied the family name.

Dear reader, are you a follower of Jesus? If not, let me remind you of the saintly, godly ancestors whose forms have so long slept in their quiet graves; of the suffering for the faith; their victory in death; their crowning in the Father's House, whence they await the home-coming of the faithful loved ones. Let me point you to the Saviour they loved, and to the God they served. Let me entreat you to do likewise.

Oh, come surrender to the King of Kings,
The Sovereign Lord of all,
Before whose throne the fathers fall,
"And crown Him Lord of all."

Come join the pilgrim band,
Whose eyes are upward turned,
Behold the hills the fathers gained,
And boldly forward go.

Come, the fathers bid you come,
And Jesus stands with outstretched hands
And pleads, poor dying one,
Here's food, shelter, rest and Home, Oh come.

Milton, N. J., Sept. 22, 1903.

THE HYMN OF OUR ISLANDS.

WORDS COMPOSED BY MARY C. FRETZ AUSTIN.

Music—There'll be a Hot Time in the old Town To-Night.

We mustered in our Army from the East and from the West,

From the North and from the Southland, O, the truest and the best;

And we bid our wives and sweethearts a fond but sad good-bye,

To do battle for the helpless; or to die as soldiers die.

Charge, soldiers charge! Oh, do not be delayed,

Charge, oh, charge! to victory or the grave;

Charge, soldiers charge! and never be dismayed,

Charge fiercely; yes, fiercely; ye brave—for Cuba.

CHORUS.

Where'er the flag waves, and you it see,

Sing songs of Peace—and Chi-val-ry—

Ring out "Wild Bells"—to Lib-er-ty,

Cheer stoutly; yes, stoutly; ye Free;—1-2-3.

Cheer. Hurrah! Hurrah!! Hurrah!!!

Since we bid our wives and sweethearts a fond and sad good-night,

We have crushed the yoke of bondage, set up banners to the right;

And our starry flag waves proudly over land and over sea,

But the Star of Bethlehem's manger is the freedom of the free.

Pray, soldiers pray! 'tis Christ who makes you free

Pray, O, pray, for all hu-man-ity;

Pray, soldiers pray! 'tis Heaven you can see,

Pray strongly; yes, strongly; for thee, O, Cuba.

CHORUS.

WILLIAM NASH, OF BEDMINSTER,
AND HIS DESCENDANTS.

I. William Nash, b Nov. 24, 1696; d in 1760. Emigrated to America in the early part of the eighteenth century, and settled in Bedminster township, Bucks Co., Pa. By some he is said to have been a native of England, but by others it is thought he was a German. He was three times married, but the maiden names of none of his wives are known. His third and last wife was Agnes, widow of Martin Oberholtzer. By his first wife the children were Elise, Ann, and Katharine; by the second wife, Magdalena and William; by the third wife, Elizabeth, Joseph, Benjamin, and Abraham. He made his will in 1760, which was probated Dec. 23, 1760, recorded in Philadelphia, and reads as follows, viz:

WILL OF WILLIAM NASH.

In the name of God, Amen. I, William Nash, of Bucks County, and Township of Bedminster, being weak in body but of sound memory, blessed be God, Do this eighteenth day of November, in the year of our Lord 1760, make and order this my last Will and Testament, in manner following, that is to say: First, I give and bequeath to Anglis, my wife, the stone end of my dwelling house for her to live in, as also 2 cows and a young horse, with a sufficiency of hay yearly to fodder said creatures, with four sheep and sufficiency of hay yearly to fodder said sheep, as also my Sd wife's saddle she is to possess and enjoy. And next, I give and bequeath to this my Sd wife's daughter, Barbara Frets, seven pounds, the remainder of ten pounds, which I have engaged to pay her. I also allow and bequeath to my son, Martin Overhold, the sum of ten pounds, to be levied of my estate. I give and bequeath to my daughter, Mary, a new suit of cloaths in full, a bed and bedding of cloaths with a bedstead, a cow, a tub, a pail, a churn, pewter, an iron pot and frying pan. I also give and bequeath to my first wife's three daughters, Ellse, wife of Wm. Tyson, Ann, wife of Joseph Tyson, Katharine, wife of Benjamin Hendricks, and William, son of my second wife, and my daughter, Madaline, wife of Jacob Frets, and daughter of my second wife: as also I bequeath to Elizabeth, Joseph and Abraham, children of my now present wife, with my first wife's children, an equal part of the remainder of my estate, after the first above mentioned and bequeathed parts is first paid; and I make and ordain her, my s'd wife, and my trusty friend, William Tyson, sole executrix and executor of this my last Will, in trust for the intent and purpose in this my last Will contained; and I make my loving friend, Tilman Culp, overseer of this my last Will—to take care and see the same performed according to my true intent and meaning. And I also allow and bequeath to my present wife a bed and bedstead and bedding of cloaths for her own use and proper right, apote and necessities suitable for a citchen, as also the wool, flax, &c., for the the use of children now in my house. In Witness Whereof, I, the s'd Wm. Nash, have to this my last Will and Testament set my hand and seal the day and year above written. His

WILLIAM [W] NASH. [Seal]

V. Dr. William Overholt Baker, b in Lower Mt. Bethel township, Northampton Co., Pa., Dec. 12, 1827; m Rebecca Utt May 10, 1856. P. O. Louisville, O. Dr. Baker was born about three miles from the foot of the Blue mountains, near the banks of Martins Creek, where his early childhood days were spent. This was before the days of public schools, and the schools he attended were known as "Subscription" schools, which were held in the winter in the Mennonite church, which was fitted up for the purpose. After removing to Ohio he attended the common schools for several years, and later Wadsworth Academy several terms. However, he received the bulk of his knowledge and mental discipline by incessant and close study by himself. At the age of 20 years he began to teach school, which he followed through his student life. After arriving at the age of 21 years he began the study of medicine at Wooster, Ohio, in the office of his uncle, Dr. John Overholt, in connection with teaching. In 1852 and 1853 he took a course of lectures at the Jefferson Medical College at Philadelphia, Pa. Later he went to Cleveland, O., where he also took lectures. In 1855 he commenced the practice of medicine at Louisville, O., where he still resides, and is engaged in the practice of his profession. About 1860 he was chosen to the ministry of the Brethren in Christ church, and has served the church by preaching the gospel as much as his circumstances would permit for the last forty years. Adam Schwimley is one of the prominent ministers of the U. Brethren in Christ denomination. He has served his church for 17 years as Presiding Elder, and 17 years as pastor. Twelve years were spent as P. E. in the South Eastern Iowa, five years in Colorado, and six years as pastor in Denver, Colo. He has also represented his church in the General Conference for six quadrennials. He has been an earnest and faithful minister of the gospel, and has been very successful in winning multitudes for Christ. His noble wife ever standing by his side and nobly bearing part in the work, possesses a peculiar faculty of working with the children of the church, in which she has had great success. She is also a leader in the various societies of the church work. C: William, Joseph, Nellie.

VI. Rev. Elias B. Utt, b at Bangor, Pa., Mar. 13, 1846. In the spring of 1856 his parents moved from Northampton Co., Pa., to a farm near Columbus City, Iowa. He lived with his parents and worked on the farm during the summer and attended school in the winter, as opportunity afforded until in Feb. 1864, when he enlisted as a soldier in Co. F., 25th Regt., Iowa Vol. Inf. He joined the regiment at Woodville, Ala., in the latter part of Mar., 1864, and was all through the Atlanta campaign, and Sherman's march to the sea. He was in the grand review at Washington, D. C., and was then transferred to the 4th Iowa Veteran Vol. Inf. and served in that until July 24, 1865, when he was mustered out of the service at Louisville, Ky.

After returning home he took a partial course in the Normal department of the State University, Iowa City. After this he taught for about four years in the public schools of Louisa Co., Iowa,

He was converted when 10 years of age and united with the Evangelical Association. Believing himself called to the ministry, he was licensed to preach, and was received into the Iowa conference of the Evangelical Association in April, 1872.

When the DesMoines conference was formed in 1876 he became a member of that body, and remained such until the division occurred in the Evangelical Association, when he became a member of the DesMoines conference of the United Evangelical church, with which he still remains connected. During his ministry of 29 years he has served the following charges in order: La Porte, Creston, DesMoines, Monroe, Vinton, Des Moines District, Blairstown, Marshalltown, Cedar Rapids District, Trinity Church, Des Moines; Marshalltown, Cedar Rapids, Lisbon.

He was twice elected Presiding Elder, and served in that capacity for six years. He represented his conference at four different sessions of the General Conference and was a number of times a delegate to the Board of Missions of his church. He was elected to the chairmanship of his conference at its session in 1890. He has served as secretary of his conference for 10 years, and has for a number of years been editor of the Conference Journal. He has been prominently connected with the recent establishment of Western Union College at Le Mars, Iowa, of which he is now secretary of the Board of Trustees and Executive Committee. He is at present, Feb. 4, 1901, pastor of the United Evangelical church of Lisbon, Iowa.

He was married Mar. 30, 1876, to Miss Emma Elizabeth Brehmer of Humboldt, Ia., in whom he has found a most estimable companion and helper in all his labors. P. O. Lisbon, Ia. C: Robert, Arthur.

VI. Rev. Jacob Aurcher, b in Northampton Co., Pa., Dec. 13, 1851; m Chestle A. Barber April 17, 1879, daughter of J. K. Barber and granddaughter of Rev. James Barber. He worked on the farm until 22 years of age, and had but little schooling up to that time, although he had an ardent desire for an education, and eagerly read all books within reach. When about 17 years of age his father sold his farm and moved to Louisa Co., Iowa, near Columbus City. Here, when about 18, Jacob became converted and united with the Evangelical Association. He was soon afterwards elected Sunday school superintendent and classleader. Realizing a divine call to the ministry, at the age of 22 he entered Northwestern College, Naperville, Ill. In 1877 he was licensed as preacher by the Des Moines Conference Evangelical Association, and stationed at Anita Mission, and the following year at Newton Mission. At the conference session of 1879 held at Afton, Ia., he was ordained deacon, and was again stationed at Anita Circuit. At the end of the conference year and while on his way to conference he was taken very sick at his father's home with pleuro-pneumonia and was attended by Dr. John Overholt, under whose skill and faithfulness, and the blessing of God, he owes his recovery. His next field of labor was Cedar Rapids, Ia., where he remained four years. During this time a new church and parsonage was built. From there he was sent to Lisbon, Ia., serving two years and was then transferred to Des Moines, Ia., where during his ministry of three years a new church and parsonage was built.

He was then elected presiding elder of Des Moines district, serving five years, after which he was elected for a second term, but owing to not being in a condition to move he declined, and went into business. In March, 1898, he was elected a member of the Board of Education of East Des Moines Public Schools, and at this time, (1901) President of the Board; and is again in the active work of the ministry as pastor of the First United Evangelical church of Des Moines, Ia. In 1891, when the Evangelical church divided he went with the "Minority faction," now the United Evangelical church. Children:

VI. Aaron Auracher, b Oct. 6, 1866; d Dec. 11, 1887. He was a young man of sterling worth; honest, industrious and kind. He won universal esteem by improving his school privileges and spare moments by which he laid well the foundation for a thorough education.

At the age of 21 he entered Northwestern College at Naperville, Ill., but about two weeks after entering he was taken with scarlet fever and soon returned home, where loving hands and hearts attended him, but were powerless against disease and death. On Friday previous to his death his brother, Rev. Jacob

Auracher, believing death to be near, asked him, "how it would be should he not get well," to which he replied, "It is well with my soul," but he regretted being called away so young, and lifting up his hands he exclaimed, "It seems as though I was going empty handed."

As he was just entering upon a regular college course full of hope and zeal in the Master's cause, what wonder that the thought of death was at first an unwelcome one? In early youth he gave his heart to Jesus, and though death came at a time unexpected, it did not find him unprepared. At 11 a. m. Sabbath morning, his usual time for entering the earthly sanctuary, he raised his hands signalling all is well, and entered the heavenly sanctuary "where congregations ne'er break up and Sabbaths have no end."

V. Rev. Aaron Bussard, b Mar. 12, 1839; m Lydia Andre Sept. 8, 1860. P. O., Hiawatha, Kans.

Rev. Aaron Bussard was born in Lower Mt. Bethel township, Northampton Co., Pa., where Bangor now stands. He was converted Jan. 7, 1857, and united with the Evangelical Association church. He enlisted Feb. 14, 1865, in the 28th Regt. Pa., Vol. Inf.; belonged to the 20th Corps, Sherman's army. He was discharged July 18, 1865. In the fall of 1867 he emigrated to Iowa and lived on a farm near Columbus City until the the spring of 1871. He was licensed to preach April, 1871, and was elected Presiding Elder April, 1881. He was a delegate to the General Conferences of 1883 and 1887, three times a delegate to the Board of Missions, and ten years missionary treasurer of Des Moines Conference. On the occasion of the division of his church he remained with the United Evangelical. In 1895, owing to failing health, he was obliged to quit the active ministry. In March, 1898, he removed to Hiawatha, Kan., where he still resides. One child, Viola.

IV. Joseph K. Overholt, b in Northampton Co., Pa., Feb. 3, 1804; d in Mich. Jan. 23, 1887; m Margaret Anglemoyer Oct. 15, 1829. She was b in Bucks Co., Pa., Sept. 11, 1808; d in Medina Co., O., Mar. 18, 1883. They moved by wagon over the mountains in Pennsylvania, the tedious distance of 600 miles to Ohio, settling in Medina Co. Nov. 12, 1834. At that time Medina county was a comparative wilderness. They lived to see the great march of improvements reduce the wild forests and in their stead flourishing farms and comfortable buildings take the place of the log hut. In May, 1851, they moved from Guilford to Montville Twp., where Mrs. Overholt died. With sagacity and good judgment they emerged from poverty to comfortable circumstances, reared a large and intelligent family, and with untiring zeal for their welfare labored that they should grow up honest and respected. About 1842 Dr. Overholt moved to Wooster, O., where he began the practice of medicine, graduating from the Botanical Medical College of Cincinnati, O., July 8, 1848. Prompted by an enterprising spirit, and working to better his condition and widen his field of usefulness, in the fall of 1852 the family moved to Des Moines county and in the spring to Louisa county, Iowa, and settled upon a farm near Columbus City. In March, 1865, the family took up their abode in Columbus City. From this time Dr. Overholt devoted his entire time to the practice of medicine. For this calling he was qualified as many in the profession are not—strictly temperate in all things—a man of sound judgment, a good nurse, kind, gentle and patient; pre-eminently a reformer, his whole nature tempered by a Christian spirit, he grew in favor with the people, which soon gave him an extensive practice. By hard study and patient application Dr. Overholt won a reputation that did not pass unnoticed. He was often referred to as authority by the leading practitioners of his school, viz.: the Physio-Medical. In Professor Kost's work on "Materia Medica," and Dr. W. H. Cook's "Dispensatory" he is often quoted as authority. Dr. Overholt was a Christian gentleman of the highest order, and was a pillar in the church of Christ. He took his christianity with him into every walk of life where he was called to go. In business, in the sick room, in the chamber of death, and in all matters of religion, the Word of God was his guide. With an unswerving faith he looked forward, with a hope that served as an anchor of his soul. He has passed to the realization of his brightest hopes. He has been gathered into the garner like a ripe shock of corn.

Society has lost one of its tried and true members. The children have been bereft of a devoted Christian father, whose example falls upon them as the choicest legacy, more precious than the richest earthly treasure, and the church has lost a brother whose counsel will be sorely missed. Dr. Daniel W. Overholt removed with his parents to Wooster, O., when he was four years of age. He was a pupil in the Select schools of that city until the fall of 1852, when they removed to Columbus City, Iowa, where he attended school until 1857, when he entered Grand View Academy, then a school of note. In 1860-1 he attended medical college at Cincinnati, Ohio, winter of 1860-1. In 1866-7 he attended the College of Physicians and Surgeons, Kio Kuk, graduating at the head of his class in the spring of 1867. He took full course at Bellevue Hospital Medical College, N. Y.,

1872-3, graduating from that school in 1873. Dr. Overholt has been in continuous practice of his profession since the spring of 1861 in his present home county, excepting two years that he practiced in Leavenworth, Kan. He is a member of the Louisa Co. Medical Society, of which he has been the president many times; also of the Eastern Ohio District and the Iowa State Medical Societies, the American Medical Association. He is the author of papers read before the State and Eastern Iowa Medical Societies upon "The Etiology and Treatment of Diphtheria, with a Report of three-track-aetomies and the use of Antitoxine in Diphtheria and Membraneous Croup; also Report upon Scarlatina. He is a member of Columbus City Lodge, A. F. & A. M., of which he is the presiding officer; also of Composite Chapter, R. A. M., in which he has been the presiding officer for twenty years past; is a member of Bethlehem Commandery Knights Templar, and of Kaaba Temple Mystic Shrine. He was married to Isabella Latta, daughter of Judge S. M. Latta of Leavenworth City, Kan., a prominent pro-slavery leader in the early settlement of Kansas. V. Charles Alwyn Overholt, b May 28, 1855; m Ella J. Elsenhart, July 25, 1877. Res. 900 Star Ave., Burlington, Iowa: Piano tuner. Charles A. Overholt was born on the farm situated five miles southwest of Columbus City, Ia. At the age of 10 years the family moved to the village of Columbus City, where his father practiced medicine and owned a drug and hardware store in partnership with his son-in-law, Dr. I. M. Smith. Charles attended the public school there until 1873, when he went to Oskaloosa College part of that and the two succeeding years, teaching school during the winter terms of 1873-4, and attended college spring and fall terms. After his marriage in 1877 he located at Letts, Iowa, where he was engaged in selling pianos and organs until the following winter, when they moved to Bremer Co., Ia. He taught music in that vicinity for eighteen months, then moved to South English, and a few months later to Webster, Ia., teaching music and one term of school. In the summer of 1881 he moved to Sanborn, Ia., to engage in the piano and organ business. In the following fall he moved to Sheldon, Ia., continuing in the same business. In 1885 he came to Burlington, Ia., to take charge of the agency department of James A. Guest's music store and was on the road for two and one-half years, then went back to Sheldon and engaged in tuning pianos until the spring of 1889 when he again moved to Burlington, continuing to the present time in his business of piano tuning, &c. Mr. Overholt is a genial even-tempered man of firm character and moral principles, and always proves "a friend indeed," being kind hearted and generous to a fault. By conscientious work he has attained a wide reputation and a lucrative practice, and is necessarily foremost in the ranks of his profession. C: VI. DESCENDANTS OF ELIZABETH NASH. 37

V. Sarah S. Gelsinger, b in Medina Co., Ohio, May 30, 1844; m Dr. Wright Williams, Aug. 26, 1860. P. O. Harris, Mo.

Dr. Wright Williams was born July 25, 1839, near Columbus City, Louisa Co., Iowa, then a howling wilderness, among the Indians and wolves of the prairie. It was his lot to grow up to manhood on the frontier. He enjoyed the best advantages a country school of the times afforded. He was taught music by the best teachers, both east and west, viz.: I. B. Woodbury, William B. Bradbury, Lowell Mason, George F. Root and A. D. Felmore. He read medicine from 1854 to 1859 with Dr. John Overholt, (formerly of Wooster, Ohio.) He taught school several terms in 1859-60, and has also taught vocal and instrumental music for many years, and is now director and manager of the choir of the Christian church of Harris, Mo. He has been engaged in the practice of medicine very successfully for 41 years. In March, 1867, the family moved to the then new country of Putnam Co., Mo., where they resided for 33 years and raised a family of five sons and one daughter, all honored and well respected. Dr. Williams has seen both the shady and sunny side of life, financially, but his greatest joy is that his sons and daughter have been brought up to be the honorable and religious persons that they are. Christian ch. C: William, Lydia, Ernest, Harry, Harlan, Charles.

VI. Dr. William Warren Williams, b in Columbus City, Louisa Co., Iowa, July 4, 1861; m Anna May Tatman, April 10, 1884. She was born in Adams Co., Ill., Sept. 20, 1864. Res. 1250 Maine St., Quincy, Ill.

Dr. Williams graduated from the medical department of the State University of Iowa, at Iowa City, in 1884. He was appointed local surgeon of Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific R. R. at Wichita, Kan., in 1890. He attended the New York Polyclinic in 1892, and the Chicago Post Graduate School and Hospital in 1893. In May, 1900, he was appointed Surgeon to Blening Hospital, Quincy, Ill. He was appointed Secretary of the Adams Co., Ill., Medical Society in 1899 and First Vice-President in 1900. He is also

Librarian of the Quincy Musical and Literary Association, to which he was appointed in 1900. He resides in Quincy, Ill., where he is engaged in the practice of medicine and surgery. Christian ch. DESCENDANTS OF JOSEPH NASH, SON OF
WILLIAM NASH.

II. Joseph Nash, b in Bucks Co., Pa., Jan. 18, 1753; d May 31, 1830; m Elizabeth Wismer. She was b Sept. 1, 1753; d Sept. 9, 1837. Farmer and weaver; lived in Tinicum. He was a Mennonite deacon for many years. C: Mary, Abraham, Jacob, Henry, Elizabeth.

III. Mary Nash, b May 5, 1776; d Mar. 8, 1833; m Henry Overholt. (See Henry Overholt family.)

III. Abraham Nash, b in Bucks Co., Pa., July 1, 1778; d July 22, 1823; m Mary Gross. Farmer. Menns. C: Elizabeth, Mary, Joseph, Rebecca, Abraham, Jacob, Anna.

*Between the years 1823 and 1830 the widow, Mary (Gross) Nash, left the old Pennsylvania home with her four daughters, Elizabeth, Mary, Rebecca and Anna, for the prosperous colony in Lincoln county, Canada. These hearty young maidens were soon married, the fortunate husbands in each case being industrious young farmers. "Betty's" husband was Jacob Fry. Mary married Abraham B. Moyer. "Becky" was won by David B. Moyer, and "Nennie" married Samuel Fry.

After many years of successful home building in the 50's and 60's, including the families of the brothers, Joseph, Jacob and Abraham Nash, there were seven large families of cousins whose greatest delight was probably found in visiting each other. The four sisters all outlived their husbands, "Betty," after her family was grown, having married John Hipple. At this date (February, 1902), Anna and Abraham are still living. Abraham and Rebecca were twins. These seven groups named, with second, third and fourth generations, are now scattered far and wide. This large number of sons and daughters, nephews and nieces, friends and neighbors and succeeding generations cannot look upon these four earnest faces without blessing the memory of such noble pioneer home builders. Those of us who knew them will ever hold in honored remembrance those "Mothers in Israel."

After six years residence on a farm on the "Fly Road," he sold out there and settled with his family in what was termed the "Indian Bush," in Haldimand Co. Here he cleared a farm and erected good buildings. In 1844 he again sold his farm and leased Cross & Fisher's mills and farm in Norfolk Co.,

and engaged in the manufacture and sale of flour, plaster, walnut lumber, and in agriculture, until 1847, when he returned to Lincoln Co. and purchased a farm near Beamsville where he remained until the fall of 1850. From 1850 to 1860 he resided in Welland Co., and from 1860 to 1863 in the town of Brantford, where he occupied the historic home of Capt. Brant, Chief of the Six Nations. In the spring of this year, as the family were ready to sit down to an evening meal, the house was discovered to be on fire and with nearly all of the contents was consumed. He now once more returned to the old homestead, where a house was temporized until arrangements could be made for building anew, which was accomplished in 1864, and here his eventful life was ended, April 21, of the following year. He was noted for his integrity, cheerfulness, enterprise and courage. He was liberally endowed with skill in the construction of buildings, utensils, implements, or shoes for the family, including the lasts. He lived for his family, forgetful of self, and by constant over-exertion shortened his life. In early life he and wife were Mennonites, in which faith they continued until 1850, when they joined the Evangelical Association ch. The first 19 years of his life were spent on the farm in Canada. At the age of 20 he began teaching school, which he followed for 18 years, excepting a few terms in Clark Seminary at Aurora, Ill., and vacation in the harvest fields of Ill. Three years in the school house at Fry's Corner, South Cayuga, followed by three years at Campden, Ont., he regards as the most satisfactory as to material public interests and results of his school life. From 1868 to 1870 he taught at Independence, Mo. A professorship at Lincoln College, Greenwood,

Mo., 1870-71, was given up for want of college funds. On account of his knowledge of German he was offered a position in the Central School of Wyandotte, now Kansas City, Kan., which he held until 1875. Next he engaged in the business of real estate and loans. In 1879 himself and partner purchased the "Wyandotte Gazette," which was published and edited by them (Armstrong & Moyer) until 1887, when Mr. Moyer sold his interest. He was one of the original directors of the Wyandotte National Bank, of which he has been for a number of years vice-president, holding an active position. He is also treasurer of the Kansas City Savings Bank; Presby. C:

Father Nash spent his boyhood days in Bucks Co., Pa. When 19 years of age he emigrated to Canada, settling near Campden, Lincoln Co. In 1836 he moved with his family to South Cayuga, Haldimand Co., where the family resided about 26 years. In 1841 he was ordained a minister of the Gospel in the Old Mennonite Church, where he served eight years. In 1849, under the labors of Rev. F. Scharffe, he was gloriously converted and soon afterward joined the Evangelical Association. In 1860 he was licensed as preacher by the Conference at Lockport, N. Y. For a number of years Father Nash served as local preacher, filling appointments all the way from Beach Creek to Middleton. In 1863 he moved with his family back to Campden, where he lived the rest of his days. Father Nash was a conscientious, consistent Christian, and had the welfare of the Church and the glory of God much at heart. He believed in practical piety and everyday religion. Thus he died as he had lived, full of comfort and trust in the Lord Jesus. C: Elizabeth, Mary, Rebecca, Abraham, Sophia, Jacob, Samuel, Anna, Saloma.

REV. SAMUEL N. MOYER, (See Page 67)

V. Rebecca Nash, b Jan. 15, 1839; d Sept. 24, 1862. She attended the common schools of her section until her 18th year. But desiring to pursue a more complete course preparatory thereto she attended a Grammar school, but on account of ill health she discontinued her school attendance. When about 17 years of age she began teaching school and taught, except when attending school, until within three months of her death. When in her 18th year she was converted and soon after joined the Ev. Ass'n ch., and though often in darkness with conflicts, doubts and fears, yet bright hope as often intervened to cheer and light her path until the end came, and the crown won. Among her writings were many pieces of her own composition, mostly of a religious character, that speak well of her poetical talents. We make room for one written for an intimate friend and schoolmate:

RESPONSE.

You smooth the tangles from my hair
 With gentle touch and tend'rest care,
 And count the years ere you shall mark
 Bright silvery threads among the dark—
 Smiling the while to hear me say,
 "You'll think of this again some day!
 "Some day!"

I do not scorn the power of time,
 Nor count on years of fadeless prime;
 But no white gleams will ever shine
 Among these heavy locks of mine.
 Ah, laugh as gayly as you may,
 You'll think of this again some day,
 Some day!

Some day I shall not feel as now
 Your soft hands move about my brow;
 I shall not slight your light commands,
 And draw the long braids through my hands;
 I shall be silent and obey,—
 And you—you will not laugh that day,
 That day!

I know how long your loving hands
 Will linger with these glossy bands,
 When you shall weave my latest crown
 Of these thick braidings long and brown;
 But you shall see no touch of gray
 Adorn their shining lengths that day,
That day!

And while your tears are falling hot
 Upon the lips which answer not,
 You'll take from these one treasured tress,
 And leave the rest to silentness,
 Remembering that I used to say,
"You'll think of this again some day,
"Some day!"

Mr. Moyer at an early age began clearing operations on the 100 acres of forest land purchased for him by his father in Clinton twp., Lincoln Co., Ont., upon which he settled and occupied until the time of his death. He also learned the shoemaker's trade, and during the early years of his married life made and mended the "footwear" for the family. His educational advantages were very limited, having enjoyed the privileges of but one term at a German school taught by his father, and by his own further efforts he ultimately acquired sufficient education to meet the exigencies of the times. He was always interested in the educational matters of the community, and served his own school section at various times as trustee. He kept his home supplied with good books and papers in both languages. Mr. Moyer was a man of extremely mild and genial disposition, quiet and unassuming, and given to hospitality. He was domestic in his tastes, and deeply devoted to his family and home life. Of Mennonite ancestry, he was an adherent of that faith until 1849, when he united with the Ev. Ass'n., in which he lived an earnest Christian life. During a visit to Bucks Co., Pa., he was stricken with apoplexy and died at the home of Rev. Isaac Rickert. His remains were removed to his home and buried in the Evangelical church yard. C: Samuel, Mary, Anna, Barbara, Eli, Elizabeth, David, Simeon.

V. Rev. Samuel N. Moyer, b Aug. 10, 1834; m Martha J. Brown, Sept. 1858. She d without issue, May 21, 1871. He m second wife, Mary Anna, widow of Conrad Selbert, and daughter of William Lingelbach, June 4, 1872. His early life was spent on the homestead farm, attending the common school during the winter months. In Jan., 1854, he began teaching school; taught three months. The following year, after teaching three months, he decided to make teaching his life work and took a course in the Normal School and followed teaching until 1868. In early youth he was converted and united with the Ev. Ass'n ch. In 1857 he began to exercise his talents for the Lord in Church and Sunday school work. Feeling impressed that he should go forth as a herald of the cross of Christ, he finally yielded to the call and was given work as a local preacher in 1867. At the next Annual Conf. he was licensed as probationer and sent as junior preacher to Upper Woolwich Circuit. In 1869 he was sent to Blenheim Circuit; Hamburg Circuit, 1871-2; Lincoln and Gamsboro Mission, 1873-76, and Campden Station one year; Hespeler Mission, 1877; Crediton Station, 1880; Hespeler Mission, 1883. In 1884 he was elected Presiding Elder and sent to Ottawa District, and also as pastor of Golden Lake Mission. In 1887 he was stationed on the North District; 1888, on the South District; and, in 1889, on the West District, remaining until 1892, when he was re-elected and returned to the former district. On Sabbath morning, Mar. 11, 1893, while serving an appointment at Norriston, Ont., he was taken sick and sank helpless in the pulpit. He was taken to the house of a friend where he remained until he recovered sufficiently to return to his home. His condition was such that by his physician's advice he spent the summer in Manitoba; but all in vain. He died Oct. 3, 1893. His remains were brought home and buried in the Langelbach cemetery. His funeral was attended by an immense gathering of friends, among them 26 ministers of the Ev. Ass'n. His main forte as a preacher lay in his ability as an evangelist. His sermons were of an awakening kind, sending conviction to the heart of the sinner, and by his pathos and tender sympathy leading him to accept salvation through the Lord Jesus Christ; and thus the Lord gave him many seals to his ministry on every pastoral charge he has served. Abraham Nash was born in Bucks Co., Pa., and at the age of 14 years he emigrated to Canada with his uncle, Jacob Gross, in a wagon, with whom he lived until he was 20 years old. He received a good education and taught singing school for a time, and for several years taught in the public schools. He purchased a farm of 100 acres in South Cayuga, Ont., which was heavily timbered, which he cleared and improved. He was one of the pioneer settlers in that section of the county. In 1844 he was appointed to the office of Magistrate, which he successfully filled until declining years compelled him to retire. In 1854 he was appointed to the responsible position of Local Superintendent of Public Schools for the township of South Cayuga, and was annually re-appointed until 1871 when the government made a change to County Inspectors. He ran a private dairy for several years, converting the milk of from 18 to 22 cows into cheese. He was also land surveyor and conveyancer. In 1873 he sold his fine farm and in 1875 purchased another, which he worked for several years and then retired from active life. He was converted in 1841 and united with the Evangelical Association, he being the first member of the South Cayuga Society, to which he donated the land for the church and burying ground. He is still living (1901) and has his home with his son, Daniel.

A few years after the death of his mother, Mr. Nash went to live with friends and later with his uncle, Joseph Nash, where he remained until 1875, when his father having purchased a farm he went home to live, remaining about four years. He then lived with his sister, Mary Hoover, for two years, and on Dec. 21, 1881, apprenticed himself for three years to Wm. Merners & Co., at New Hamburg, Ont., to learn the carriage and blacksmithing trade. In 1895 he engaged for nine months learning the art of horseshoeing. After being otherwise engaged for some time, he secured situations in Bolton, Ont., and other places. In 1898 he went to Wexford, Ont., but returned to New Hamburg in Oct. of that year and once more engaged with Wm. Merner & Co., remaining nearly three years, after which he returned to Wexford, worked there as journeyman for a time, and later at Campden and Cannington, Ont. He then engaged as journeyman in Buffalo, N. Y., but returned to Canada in Mar. 1893, and on Mar. 18th of that year went to Camilla, Ont., where he was a complete stranger and set up business for himself, which he has successfully conducted at that place ever since. IV. Joseph D. Nash, M. D., b on the old homestead in Plumstead Twp., Bucks Co., Pa., July 15, 1836; m Eliza Shaddinger Oct. 1861. She d Mar. 17, 1863. One child, a daughter, died aged 8 months. Joseph m second wife, Florence E. Smiley of New England parentage, in 1867. Res. 1316 N. 11th St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Joseph grew up a diffident, backward boy, yet not without a fair amount of ambition. His school days, after he was ten years old, were limited to about three months in winter, wherein many days were "missed," fully one-third of the time. When he was nearly 17 years of age, a slim, pale, beardless young man from Vermont had charge of the school for the winter. His brother, the Rev. John C. Hyde, from New Britain had charge of the Baptist interest of the neighborhood, centered at Point Pleasant. This frail stranger, Damon Y. Hyde, wrought a revolution in the mode of teaching and in the spirit of the school. Every scholar loved and most of them idolized him. As he was bidding us good-bye he said, "Joseph, what do you intend to make of yourself?" adding immediately, "get a good schooling." Never had such a question come to the farm lad before, but that advice, coming from one so much admired, made an indelible impression. The great object thereafter was to get more time for school. This could not be done at home. The work on the farm was exacting, admitting of not more than two holidays from January 1st to December 30th, and there was but one older brother at home to help.

Joseph's father had always strenuously held that every boy should have a trade, and as a practical proof of his theory had given two of his three elder sons a trade, and was not getting an extra schooling to take the place of a trade? But it would cost money. The boy's portion of a few hundred dollars from his mother, left by his grandfather, secured the means for a start at some higher school. But his father's consent must be had. How to secure this and meet every objection was the hourly study of many weeks and months. There was no one to open the way or intercede for him. With his father "no" was irrevocable, a blast of every hope. At length an opportunity occurred; they argued the case; objections were met. The time to go, when school opened, and the place was discussed, but the father never said "yes."

The winter was advancing and time was growing more and more precious. An acquaintance was then at Beverley Institute, Beverley, N. J. The father of the Principal of the school was a distant neighbor of old acquaintance, and the young man at school was an orphan boy raised by the old family physician. Here, then, "were points of contact" to disarm opposition. When the fall work was done his father consented to allow him to accompany his brother to market. He was then far in his 19th year, and it was the third time he had ever been to Philadelphia. When here he went to a favorite nephew of his father to whom he stated his plans, and expressed a desire to visit Beverley and have an interview with the Principal, which they did.

A few weeks afterward he told his father of the visit, the cost, the time to go, &c. As the time drew near the more tense became his anxiety, until within two weeks of the time to go, he said sternly: "Now, you tried to get yourself away; are you getting ready to go, and what must you have as outfit?" Thus, he simply allowed him to go. Who can estimate the ecstasy of that moment? Thus he spent his first term at Beverley Institute; then teaching school, himself going to school; and with a final term at the Lancaster Co. Normal School, his school days were ended. Also during this time he had been west a few summers securing data for county maps. When the Civil war broke out the advance of labor and material darkened the financial hopes which had been so bright, and apparently prosperous.

In Oct., 1861, he was married to his old schoolmate, Eliza Shaddinger, and the next spring began to read medicine with Dr. A. M. Cooper, at Point Pleasant. In the excitement and bustle of the war he spent the fall and winter as attendant in a military hospital in Harrisburg. In the spring of 1863, seventeen months after their marriage, his wife died, leaving a little girl six weeks old who, when about eight months old, joined her mother, where there is no parting or sad farewells. He then resumed the study of medicine, attending a course of lectures at the University of Michigan, graduating at Jefferson Medical College, Mar. 11, 1865, and soon after located in Philadelphia, where he still continues. V. Edgar Smiley Nash, b in Philadelphia, July 6, 1872; m Florence DeLacy Beck, Oct. 30, 1895. Res. Wyncote, Pa. He attended public schools in Quaker City until the fall of 1885. At this time his father entered him as pupil at Worcester Academy, Worcester, Mass. Then, as now, D. W. Abercrombie, LL. D., a cousin on the maternal side, was principal of this highest of high grade preparatory schools in New England. From this institution he graduated with honors in the spring of 1890, standing third in class, and delivering commencement oration on "Savonarola." Entered Brown University, at Providence, R. I., in the fall of 1890. Within two months was elected member of Alpha Delta Phi fraternity, considered the highest honor for a "freshman." He held various positions of honor in athletic and religious organizations. Delivered in Junior year a lecture on "Hypnosis" before the Philosophical Society, which attracted wide attention among leading New England educators. Was awarded Walker Scholarship and won Carpenter Oratorical prize of $60 at end of Junior year. He was chosen one of six speakers at Commencement and received honorable mention for Oration on "George William Curtis and George W. Childs, a comparison." In the spring of 1895 he became a member of the editorial staff of the Philadelphia Record. Left this at the solicitation of Edward Bok, editor of the Ladies' Home Journal, to accept the position of associate editor of the Saturday Evening Post in 1898. In 1899 he was appointed art manager of same. In March, 1901, he resigned to enter the field of advertising, furnishing high grade designs, but was taken ill with pneumonia and barely "pulled through." About this time, Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly, hearing that Mr. Nash had left the Saturday Evening Post, opened negotiations to secure his services. The advertising field, however, looked so promising that he refused to abandon it. The matter was compromised, and now Mr. Nash is Advertising Manager of the Beck Engraving Company, of Philadelphia, one of the largest concerns of its kind in America, and is Art Manager of Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly in New York. This necessitates spending every other day in New York. Mr. Nash's home is at Wyncote, Pa., a beautiful suburb about 10 miles out of Philadelphia. C:
